

EDITED BY LEVI L. TATE, PROPRIETOR. Our Constitution—guard it ever! Our glorious Union—hold it dear! Our happy flag—take it never!

BLOOMSBURG: Saturday Morning, Aug. 20, 1864.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1864. GEORGE B. MCLELLAN

CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIBERS.—We will send the Columbia Democrat from now, till after the Presidential Election, for 50 cents in advance.

Many friends have sent in their names for our Campaign Tracts, and with them, the money (50 cents each) for which we are thankful.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION. NOTICE is hereby given that the Democratic County Convention will meet at the Court House, in Bloomsburg, on Saturday, the 27th day of August next.

Monday, the 29th day of August, at 11 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of making the annual nominations of the Democratic party of Columbia County.

WM. H. JACOBY, Chairman. H. W. McINTOSH, J. A. FOSTER, W. H. KRICKBAM, HIRSH BOWEN, JACOB YEAGER, JOHN WEDDLELL, Democratic State Committee, Bloomsburg, July 20, 1864.

To our Patrons and the Public. The present high price of paper, labor, printing material and every article entering into our business has compelled us to look to a corresponding advance in our charges.

RATES OF ADVERTISING. One square of eight lines 1 month $1 00

JOB PRINTING. Hand bills one eighth sheet, 30 or less $2 00

A CARD. To the People of Columbia County. Understanding that, in certain portions of the County, the report is in circulation, that the "Act to protect Sheep and tax Dogs, in Lycoming and Columbia counties," was passed by the undersigned when in the Legislature a few years ago;

1. A Democratic Administration, with peace, compromise and re-union, no more drafts, and reduced taxes, or 2. Four years more of Lincoln's Administration, with continued war and butchery, more drafts, financial ruin, and perhaps permanent separation.

GLEASON'S NEW PUBLISHING HOUSE. No 22 Summer Street. A few days since we visited this spacious and magnificent new publishing house.

Freaks of Loyalty. We are informed, that a few days ago, one of the Soldiers from Camp Fair Ground, stopped to take a few peaches from the yard of a very loyal war-man—a Soldier's Friend,—when he was ordered by him to desert.

G. B. GOODLANDER, Esq., has withdrawn from the Clearfield Republican and D. W. MOORE, Esq., has assumed the entire control of the paper. The Republican, despite its name, is a sound Democratic paper and we hope to hear of its continued success.

A "three years soldier" complains in the Philadelphia Press that the Sanitary Commission's stores never reach the soldiers, being exclusively appropriated by officers.

CORRESPONDENCE.

FOR THE COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT. COL. TATE:—I avail myself of the present time to make a few brief remarks concerning a circumstance which occurred not long since: There were some eight or nine Republicans came from Harveysville, Luzerne county into our county, to arrest some fellows who were drafted and did not report.

A. DEMOCRAT. The Easton (Pa.) Argus writes to know "how, in the name of God, the Union is to be restored, if President Lincoln will listen to no Commissioners, will receive no offers, will hear no proposals?"

A large peace meeting of the people of Lehigh county was held at Allentown last week. The people everywhere are beginning to demand peace.

THE WAR.

General Grant has begun a singular maneuver. Above Bermuda Hundred is a narrow neck of land around which the James River flows. The length of the river around the neck, the end of which is known as Dutch Gap, is seven miles.

At nightfall, the Federal line was one mile nearer Richmond than Foster's earth work, ten miles from the town and seven miles southeast of Ford Darling.

The "Protest" Against Executive Usurpation. For three years past, the democratic party and the democratic press have persisted in charging President Lincoln, with arrogating to himself the powers of a Dictator, disregarding the laws trampling under foot the Constitution, and transforming our Constitutional Government into a despotism.

Troubles in the Kitchen Cabinet. WASHINGTON, August 3, 1864. The Kitchen Cabinet at Washington are sorely troubled. Everything goes by sixes and sevens. The cooks are constantly spilling the broth.

To the Supporters of the Government. We have read without surprise, but not without indignation, the proclamation of the President of the 8th of July, 1864.

EXECUTIVE MANSION. WASHINGTON, March 15, 1864. His excellency, Michael Hahn, Governor of Louisiana.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. Estate of Jacob Eyerly, deceased. J. EYERLY, Executor.

PROPOSALS. Will be received, by the undersigned for a bill of timber, to build a Barn, 40 x 25 feet, to be shingled in Bloomsburg.

STRAY SHEEP. Came into the enclosure of the undersigned, residing in a fence township, Columbia County, near Deerpark, on the 15th inst.

COURT PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS, the Hon. WILLIAM EWELL, President of the Peace and Arbitration Commission, and General J. A. BELMONT, Chief of the Peace and Arbitration Commission, have been appointed by the President of the United States, to hold a Court of Peace and Arbitration, in the County of Columbia, on the first Monday, to-wit: the 1st day of February next, to continue one week.

REGISTRY'S NOTICE. NOTICE is hereby given to all legatees, creditors and other persons interested in the estate of the late JOHN H. BROWN, late of Columbia County, that the Register of the County of Columbia, in pursuance of an order of the Court of Sessions, in the County of Columbia, made on the 15th day of July, 1864, has caused to be published in this paper, a list of the names of the legatees, creditors and other persons interested in the estate of the late JOHN H. BROWN, late of Columbia County, and has caused to be published in this paper, a list of the names of the legatees, creditors and other persons interested in the estate of the late JOHN H. BROWN, late of Columbia County.

President, and if the latter ordered him to take the field he would have to or origin. Thus Blair was compelled to return to Washington with a free in his ear.

The President persists in recognizing those shadows of Governments in Arkansas and Louisiana, which Congress formally declared should not be recognized.

Such is the free Constitution and Government of Louisiana, and like it is that of Arkansas. Nothing but the failure of a military expedition deprived us of a like one in the swamps of Florida, and before the Presidential election, like ones may be organized in every rebel State where the United States have a camp.

CONGRESS PASSED A BILL: The President refused to approve it, and then by proclamation puts as much of it in force as he sees fit, and proposes to execute those parts by officers unknown to the laws of the United States and not subject to the confirmation of the Senate!
