

Our Constitution—guard it ever! Our glorious Union—hold it dear! Our Starry Flag—cherish it never! The proud Caucasian—our only peer!

BLOOMSBURG:

Saturday Morning, Oct. 1, 1864.

Democratic Nominations

FOR PRESIDENT,

GEN. GEO. B. McCLELLAN, OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

HON. GEO. H. PENDLETON, OF OHIO.

DISTRICT TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,

COL. V. E. PIOLLET,

OF BRADFORD.

FOR ASSEMBLY,

WILLIAMSON H. JACOBY, OF BLOOMSBURG.

COUNTY TICKET,

FOR SHERIFF,

SAMUEL SNYDER, of Mifflin.

FOR COMMISSIONER,

ALLEN MANN, of Beaver.

FOR AUDITOR,

DANIEL SNYDER, of Scott.

A CARD.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. Whereas, my name was announced in the Republican paper, of Bloomsburg, last week, as a volunteer candidate for the legislature, I take this occasion to say, that I am not a candidate for that office, nor could I consent to disorganize the noble Democratic party of Columbia or the State, as I firmly believe that up to the election of the State and National Tickets—McClellan & Pendleton—depend the political salvation of our beloved country. DANIEL SNYDER. Esq., Sep 27, 1864.

"Sour Grapes" for "Thomas Dunn." The Editor of the Republican, familiarly known as the "Snout Machine," attempted last week to seduce and destroy our estimable friend and fellow-citizen, Mr. DANIEL SNYDER, by announcing his name as a volunteer candidate for the Legislature. Mr. SNYDER is a Democrat, an honest man, and an uncompromising supporter of Gen. McClellan for the Presidency, and is the last man to aid the cause of Treason and Disunion by affiliating with the cohorts of Black Republicanism. Let Mr. Dunn and the other enemies of our common liberties—loyal preachers, thieves and vagabonds—seek elsewhere a victim for political sacrifice, as they have done heretofore, and abandon the hope of prostituting the honored name of DANIEL SNYDER.

"We understand the announcement that Daniel Snyder is an independent candidate for the Legislature is well received by a large portion of the intelligent members of the Democracy of this district. If the Republicans vote for him—and we believe they intend doing so in preference to Jacoby—he will most likely be elected. If we must have a Democrat to represent us, let it be a decent one—a man of some character.—Thursday's Smut Machine.

Now, don't "Thomas." Mr. SNYDER has spoiled all your hopes of defeating JACOBY, the Democratic nominee. Bah! To our Patrons.—We earnestly request prompt and advance payments to the "COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT." The man who takes our paper, and omits payment, is either inexcusably negligent, or not the printer's friend. Our printing material has run up to near three prices, and all other articles of living in proportion, hence the continuance of our business depends upon the PUNCTUALITY of our friends and customers.

Every dollar tells in these terrible times. Let those who have not paid for the last year's subscription, call or send, and do so, immediately; and then pay another year ($2 00) in advance. This is what should be done, and all who do so, will save 50cts or $1 00 a year, and we sincerely hope many of our numerous subscribers and customers, will promptly comply with their plain duties.

GREAT FALL IN DRY GOODS.—At the auction sale of one of the dry goods houses in Philad., the other day, shawls, pieces of silk, and other imported goods sold at the same price as when gold was at par, which is a decline of over one-half. The cautious dealer can now replenish their stocks at one-half the prices ruling thirty days ago. Our people should now look out for impositions.

The Fifth Annual Fair, of the Luzerne County Agricultural Society, will be held on the Wyoming Battle Ground, on Wednesday the 5th of October, and continuing three days. Mr. DANIEL F. LEACOCK, keeps an excellent Hotel, on the premises, where our friends will be well accommodated. Give him a call.

A tremendous McClellan meeting was held in old Lancaster on the 17th. The country is alive with enthusiasm.

We have a man in Bloomsburg whose calling is a minister of the Gospel, his business is electioneering for Abe Lincoln. In his ostensible pastoral visits instead of inquiring after the soul's health, his solicitude is for the body's politics.—He button holes his Democratic members, tells them that McClellan is also a war man, as Lincoln is—an assertion he knows to be false when he makes it—averts that there is thus no difference for whom you vote, but thinks that Lincoln should be re-elected, for he has not yet had a fair chance. That he ought to be allowed to end the war, that he has just begun to understand the business, &c. &c.

Electioneering is his constant business as well as his pastime, it is the subject of his conversation, and if he ever preys, doubtless of his prayers also. The obscure jester at Washington is his beau ideal of a man and a statesman, the blood of his fellow-citizens the wine whereon he grows frantic—He prostitutes his holy calling to the dirty work of the Loyal League—He uses his official position to operate upon the minds of the members of his congregation, and with well feigned modesty and hypocritical piety seeks to accomplish his work.

We call his attention to an article on our first page this week, which although more particularly aimed at the preaching of Politics—of which he is also guilty—will nevertheless suggest some thoughts to him, which he will do well to ponder. We are on his track—we mean to keep there—and if he shall continue to sink the Preacher in the Politician, to make his stated rounds among his people one grand capstern speech; we shall treat him in the character he thus assumes, give his name to the public, strip him of the cloak under which he hides,

The Dismissal of Postmaster-General Blair. The telegraph makes the announcement of the dismissal of Montgomery Blair as Postmaster-General by President Lincoln, the reason assigned by the President being to relieve him from embarrassment.

Between the Blair and the Fremont factions there has been, ever since Fremont had command in Missouri, a "war to the knife" quarrel. This alienated the Pathfinder from the support of Lincoln and caused him to accept the nomination for President by the Cleveland Convention.—We announce the declension of Fremont in his letter of adhesion to Lincoln, and the summary dismissal of Blair from the Cabinet. Was this letter the consideration in the contract which induced General Fremont to support Lincoln's re-election? It looks very much like it. Mr. Lincoln, in arousing the wrath of the Blair family, may find this latest "swap," a bad bargain.

General Fremont's Letter. The Presidential question has been simplified, but not materially changed, by General Fremont's withdrawal from the canvass. Nominally, though with a very bad grace, the Cleveland candidate resigns in favor of Mr. Lincoln; but, in reality, his withdrawal will scarcely affect the relative positions of the remaining candidates, or if it does, the advantage will be with the Democratic nominee.—Those who brought General Fremont into the arena aimed a blow at Mr. Lincoln, and although it has failed of its full effect, they are aware that it will not be forgotten or forgiven. It is now too late for them to return to the fold with any hope of wiping out the record of their apostasy. The fatted calf will not be killed for them, and they will rather cast their fortunes with McClellan than seek to patch up a hasty and hopeless reconciliation with the object of their deeper hostility.

General Fremont relied upon the votes of those Black Republicans who are thoroughly disgusted with Mr. Lincoln, and the fact of the withdrawal will not render their repugnance less intense. No enmity is more bitter than that of an alienated friend, and none is more zealous than a renegade to oppose his former faith. Many Black Republicans flocked to the standard of General Fremont because they had been rebuffed and slighted in the distribution of the spoils, and their disappointed avarice and ambition sought relief in a vindictive opposition. Others were influenced by conscientious motives, having sufficiently appreciated Mr. Lincoln's character to be convinced that under his Administration the honor and welfare of the country would be sacrificed to the most unscrupulous ambition and the most obstinate folly. The votes of both classes will be given to the Chicago nominees, and the result of General Fremont's abdication will be to recruit the ranks of Mr. Lincoln's opponents. So far as the prosecution of the war is concerned, there has been no antagonism of sentiment between the candidates.

TWO PLANS FROM McCLELLAN'S PLATFORM.—Neither confiscation of property, political organization of persons, territorial organization of States, nor forcible abolition of slavery should be contemplated for a moment.—Letter to President Lincoln, July 2, 1862. In prosecuting this war, all private property and unarmed persons should be strictly protected, subject to the necessity of military operations.—Letter to the President, July 7, 1862.

The Fishingcreek Arrests. We call attention to the 24th, 26th, and 29th sections of the "Act for enrolling and calling out the National Forces, and for other purposes," approved March 3d, 1863, by which it will be seen that the parties arrested in this county, upon the last day of August, are entitled to have been delivered over to the civil authorities immediately upon their arrest, and to be tried by the civil Courts. These men have now been in prison over thirty days, yet we have no information as to when their trial will come before the United States Court. The following are the sections embodying the law of Congress, on the subject of Military arrests, and are applicable to the cases in question:

SEC. 24. And be it further enacted, That every person not subject to the rules and articles of war who shall procure or entice, or attempt to procure or entice, a soldier in the service of the United States to desert; or who shall harbor, conceal, or give employment to a deserter, or carry him away, or aid in carrying him away, knowing him to be such; or who shall purchase from any soldier his arms, equipments, ammunition, uniform, clothing, or any part thereof; and any captain or commanding officer of any ship or vessel, or any superintendent or conductor of any railroad, or any other public conveyance, carrying away any such soldier as one of his crew or otherwise, knowing him to have deserted, or shall refuse to deliver him up to the orders of his commanding officer, shall, upon legal conviction, be fined, at the discretion of any court having cognizance of the same, in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and he shall be imprisoned not exceeding two years nor less than six months.

SEC. 25. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall resist any draft of men enrolled under this act into the service of the United States, or shall counsel or aid any person to resist any such draft; or shall assault or obstruct any officer in making such draft, or in the performance of any service in relation thereto; or shall counsel any person to assault or obstruct any such officer, or shall counsel any drafted men not to appear at the place of rendezvous, or wilfully dissuade them from the performance of military duty as required by law, such person shall be subject to summary arrest by the provost marshal, and shall be forthwith delivered to the civil authorities, and, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years or by both of said punishments.

SEC. 29. And be it further enacted, That the court shall, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to either party for such time and as often as shall appear to be just. Provided, That if the prisoner be in close confinement, the trial shall not be delayed for a period longer than sixty days.

HON. MILLARD FILLMORE, Ex-President of the United States, elected by the Whigs when they were yet a party, is out in a letter in favor of McClellan.—Mr. Fillmore has a reputation for honesty, integrity, ability and devotion to the Union and the best interests of the country, which will insure him a high place among the statesmen and Patriots of our country.

The old whigs of the country are once more looking to their leaders in this crisis, and when they see Millard Fillmore, and Reverdy Johnson, and Robert C. Winthrop, and George S. Hilliard, and Josiah Randall, and Washington Hunt, and the National Intelligencer, and the Louisville Journal and hosts of other ancient and honored leaders joining the ranks of McClellan, they will heartily add their names and presence, and roll on the ball, even equalling the Democracy in their honest zeal.

Our Congressional Nominee. We trust the conservative voters of this Congressional district will see the importance of using every honorable effort to elect Col VICTOR E. PIOLLET, to represent them in the next Congress. A more worthy man could not have been selected. His extended knowledge of our political history will, should he be chosen, enable him to reflect credit upon the State and Nation. He is a ready debater, an able speaker, and a true friend of National measures.—We must have men of his mind in our country from the hands of those who seek its overthrow. Let us work with a zeal and energy worthy of the great interest involved, and all will be well.

The Way Kentucky is Governed. From one single number of the Lincoln organ in Kentucky, the Louisville Press, we select the following paragraphs: James F. Hite was politely requested to go North yesterday, and he went. Mrs. Audiot and two children were received at the Female Military Prison yesterday. GONE TO MEMPHIS. The following persons have been sent to Memphis by order of General Burbridge, with a request to the commandant there to send them through the lines. Thomas J. Bronston, Milo Baxter, Squire Turner, and Wm. Marshall. Lieut. Sage, of the 112th Illinois Infantry, an able and efficient officer, has the prisoners in charge. Hurrah for the land of the free and the home of the brave! where all power over life, liberty and property is concentrated in one man! This is the kind of government Lincoln wants to establish in all the States. GEN. ROBERT ANDERSON.—The gallant defender of Fort Sumter is out for the hero of Antietam. So is Gen. Hooker,—"Fighting Joe." So it goes.

Politico-Religious Fanaticism. We have lately read and heard of these politico-religious fanatics, in this county, whose brutal language and fanatical ravings, deserve registration in the "Columbia Democrat." Rev. J. Milton Acres, sometime ago gave his views of loyalty and the duty of preachers, through the Smut Machine, in which he most unqualifiedly wished all men who disagree with him in political sentiments—and whom he denounces as "copperheads,"—in a hotter place than he would like to name. A vagrant itinerant preacher, wishing his fellow-men in Hell—thus "using the livery of Heaven to serve the Devil in!"

Rev. P. F. Eyer, who lately turned a somersault out of the back-window of the Sugarloaf School House, in exousing his cowardice, describes Democrats, as "men who resist the Draft." He thus slanders his honored Father, who is what he never was or will be, a Democrat, a gentleman and a Christian. Shame on such hypocrisy. Rev. D. A. Beckley, we are told, led a political meeting last Sabbath, in M. E. Church. He thanked God that they had licked the rebels in Shannadoah Valley, and boasted that they would achieve an equal victory—(over the Democrats)—in next November. This last named individual, it should not be forgotten, stands upon the Records of our Quarter Sessions, as a convicted Rioter.

What a trio of Preachers. And what else could be expected of fools and fanatics—inspired by negrophobia. Oh! the horrors of "negro-on-the-brain."

The Prospect.

The signs of the times point unmistakably to the coming regeneration of the government and the renovation of liberty.—The public plunder, although vast beyond precedent, is insufficient to satisfy the cravings of the vampires who suck out the life-blood of the nation: Insatiably hungry, they fight over the spoils, each clamoring for more, and all proclaiming that the reward of "loyalty" should be unlimited exactions, wrung from a suffering people by increased taxation, more fraudulent contracts and more suffering, wounds and death. Let the conscription be enforced, let exactions be increased, let the soldiers be butchered—all this brings grist to our mill. He is a traitor who hesitates to inflict the sacrifice and suffering which will swell our already enormous fortunes, and expand still further our bloated carcasses, full to repletion of the fat of the land, at the expense of starved soldiers and deluded people. Such are the sentiments of the enemies of the Constitution and the country, who present a revolting spectacle of unscrupulous vice and callous indifference to perils and agonies which they do not share.

On the other hand, the great Democracy, party, unchangeable, independent, united presents a front invulnerable to the enemy, whether Secession or Abolition. Absolutely united, they are unconquerable.—The gates of Hell cannot prevail against them. Rallied around the standard of the Constitution, they still hear the voices of the party calling them to defend the last citadel of freedom. JEFFERSON and JACKSON live again in the inspiration of their example, and the wisdom of their teachings.

No man doubts that only force and fraud can prevent the sentence of condemnation on the crimes of those who now rule the country by arbitrary force—who have covered the land with mourning and brought impeding universal ruin. Let no man despair of the republic.—Time makes all things even. Time will show that the inherent vitality of truth will triumph over all the arts and schemes of wicked men.

Practically, this will be demonstrated by the election of McCLELLAN, who will restore peace to our distracted country, relieve us from the oppression of enormous taxation, and, above all, restore the harmony of the Union, the ascendancy of the Constitution, the supremacy of law, the rights of the States, and the liberties of the people.

If citizens are bribed or intimidated, if they have not the intelligence to perceive the evils which surround them, or the misery which is impending over them, if they are regardless of the Constitution and have lost their love of liberty, Lincoln may be elected. But if they are true to the traditions of their fathers, they will emulate their glorious example. They will purge the land alike of tyrants and traitors, and bring both to just judgement for their crimes.

The only hope is in discarding and destroying the vile and vulgar gang imbecilities and cowards who have, during three years, nearly overturned the glorious fabric of freedom reared by the pure patriots of the Revolution and protected by succeeding generations, until lately, when supineness, lethargy, and over-confidence in supposed security, combined with unfortunate intestine divisions, enabled the enemy to surprise the sentinels on the watch tower of liberty, and to usurp the functions of government. Let all honest men unite to drive these money-changers from the Temple. To this end, to restore what has been stolen, and secure what is in jeopardy, the party of the people has rallied in its ancient unity and might under the glorious banner of the heroic McCLELLAN, and will earn the blessings of after ages by his triumphant election. From Atlanta have been removed 440 families—being 705 adults, 860 children and 479 servants. So says Sherman.

Gen. John Cochrane. Wonders will not cease. We shall not be surprised to see Old Abe himself supporting McClellan when the 8th of November comes. Hon. John Cochrane, the candidate for Vice-President on the Fremont ticket, made a speech in Chicago on the 27th ult., in which he said: "When we look at the great crowd before him, he thought that the good old Democratic times were coming again.—That the Constitution guaranteed the right of the people to assemble peaceably and discuss the affairs of the Government; that they had assembled, and with one voice declared against the re-election of Abraham Lincoln. He said that he belonged to the Celtic race, a nation that had ever proved her devotion to the cause of liberty by shedding her best blood. He concluded by stating that the Irishmen of New York city intended to roll up a majority of 840,000 for McClellan, the man who, amid bribery, corruption, and falsehood, stood proudly above it all, and preserved the escutcheon of his character pure, bright, and un tarnished.

Our County Ticket.—Our District and County Tickets are now complete and will be triumphantly elected. The enemy, conscious of their weakness and the wickedness of their cause, dare not offer opposition. We are sorry for this, as we do not intend electing every man on the Democratic Ticket, but could beat the Abolitionist by an unprecedented majority.—Democrats, call at this office, and get the Tickets for your respective Election Districts.

Dryden's Fables, a most beautiful pocket edition, for sale cheap, by Col. Freese; who has also many curious new and second hand books, for sale at very low prices. Some at cost, and some at a still lower figure.

Hon. Garret Davis, United States Senator from Kentucky, an old whig, heretofore acting with the republican party, is going for McClellan. He is an able and eloquent man, and is doing yeoman service.

Our Book Table.

MME. DEMOREST'S Illustrated Monthly Mirror of Fashion, for September, is upon our Table. It contains the latest Parisian Fashions, elegant engravings on colored plates, and a choice assortment of polite literature. Every Lady should patronize Mme. Demorest's fashionable Magazine. 25 cents per copy, or $3 00 a year.

THE PRINTER, for September, has been received. This is a quarto work of eight sheets, sixteen pages, and forty-eight columns, handsomely covered and neatly printed. It is chiefly devoted to the interests of printing and printers—the exposition of the "art preservative of all arts." JOHN GLEASON & Co., publishers, New York, at $1 50 per annum.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, for October, was here last week. "Peep," a beautifully executed steel engraving of a mother and her little girl, introduces this number of the Lady's Friend. The double steel Fashion Plate is rich and elegant. Then follow the numerous engravings, illustrating the new modes for ladies and children. By Paterson & Deacon, Philadelphia, at $2 50 per year.

GODEY'S LADIES' BOOK is here for October. It is the standard American Magazine of polite literature. Ladies everywhere appreciate its character and importance. L. A. GODEY, proprietor, Philadelphia, $3 50 per annum.

THE LADIES' REPOSITORY, published by the M. E. Church, in Cincinnati, Ohio, is before us for October. It has always been a favorite in our family, ranking high in the literary annals, and is a simple Religious Magazine. Terms, $2 50 in advance per annum.

BALLOU'S DOLLAR MONTHLY MAGAZINE of Boston, for October, is on our desk. It is a secular publication, containing much useful reading and many engravings. We always peruse Ballou with interest and edification. Price, 15 cts. per copy, or $1 50 per year.

PERSON'S LADIES' NATIONAL MAGAZINE, looms up in good time and order, for October. Colored plates, rich engravings, and choice literary production, grace its pleasant pages. No lady should be without this parlor ornament. Price, $2 00 a year.

The Atlantic Monthly (Democrat) with a rich list of articles, is on our table for October. It has "Habeas Corpus," concluded—several capital poems—History of Democratic National Conventions—The Chicago Convention—Brazil and Brazilian society—Democracy vs. Republicanism, &c., &c.

Send for it by all means—Three dollars per year. J. Holmes Agnew, Editor, No. 37 Park Row, New York. Increased attractions are promised for November.

The Atlantic Monthly (abolition) for October is on our table. Paper, type and general get up, very fine. An entertaining table of contents, and from the Atlantic's point of view strongly written. The Rev. Col. Higginson begins in November a series of papers on his experiences with his nigger regiment. They will doubtless be entertaining, and strong. The price of the Atlantic is to be four dollars hereafter; of which subscribers will take notice. Address, Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

The Christian (?) Advocate and Journal, Methodist, announces its intention to devote its columns to party politics for the next two months; and some of its profanity was retailed in the meeting house of that denomination here last Sunday. We trust some of them will read the article in the Democrat this week, "Against preaching politics." How high above such men, are the real followers of Him whose kingdom is not of this world!

Loyal men of the North! for whom will you vote—for Abraham Lincoln, the chosen candidate of the rebels, or for Geo. B. McClellan, the terror of the rebels? The Richmond Enquirer says: "Vote for Lincoln! Whether we look at his nomination in the light of peace or of war, we prefer Lincoln to McClellan." The Richmond Enquirer says: "McClellan is by far the more dangerous candidate for us."

PAYMASTERS are being sent to the armies to pay off a portion of the back indebtedness of the Government to the poor soldiers,—some of whom have been unpaid for eight and ten months,—in order that the soldiers may get in a good humor to vote for Old Abe. After that it is hard to say when they will see the light of a paymaster's countenance.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY.—The Opposition in Montgomery county have nominated a whole county ticket as follows: For Commissioner—Daniel Morgan, of the Borough of Danville. For Treasurer—Charles Fenstermacher, of Valley township. For Auditor—William Murray, of Liberty township. For Coroner—John Patton, of Danville.

An abolition meeting was held in Lancaster City a few nights ago, which was addressed by two ministers of the Gospel (?) As we said a few weeks ago, the Philadelphia Loyal League is performing its labors. Go in, gentle Sambos, howl for blood.

Brown's Bronchial Troches Clear and give strength to the voice of Singers, and are indispensable to Public Speakers. "I have never changed my mind respecting them from the first, excepting to think yet better of that which I began thinking well of."

Rev. H. W. BECKER. Mr. Lincoln has managed during the three years he has been in office to swell the public debt of the United States to about seven hundred million dollars more than the whole expenses of the Government from the Declaration of Independence to March 4, 1861.—Can we afford such a President for four years more?

Dr. C. WIGWERTH, Physician from Germany, having located permanently in Bloomsburg, Pa., Columbia county, Pa., respectfully informs the public generally, that he is prepared to attend to all cases fully, and on terms of ANCTUE and ECONOMY. CHRONIC DISEASES. With promptness and on moderate terms, and will guarantee general satisfaction. C. WIGWERTH. Sept 24, 1864.—y.

was addressed by two gentlemen, in support of McClellan, who have been long Republicans, and concluded with the following item of our National Degradation:—"The President's grounds are still the scenes of negro picnics, a fine lot of pleasure young negro women are there. They have swings, and Old Abe goes out and swings them. These scenes remind one of Abraham of old, who called his children home to his bosom; and it follows that Abraham of a later date should do as like him. Readers the above is a fiction. I have seen it with my own eyes, and I can tell you it is no pleasing sight for a wounded soldier. Hoping that you may hear, if the news does not reach you on the field of battle, that Luzerne county gave McClellan a handsome majority. Yours, &c., Union.

RECEIPTS FOR SEPTEMBER.

TO THE COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT. The following payments have been made to the Columbia Democrat office, during the month of September, 1864:

Table with columns for Name, Amount, and Date. Includes names like Hon. Geo. F. Root, John M. Pomeroy, Geo. P. Richards, etc.

We acknowledge, with pleasure, liberal payments for the month of September. While our friends in this vicinity are doing well, in the way of paying up their indebtedness to this office, it is to be regretted that many distant subscribers, who owe for years, are doing nothing. We appeal to those men, and their sense of justice, for our honestly earned and just dues.

We want our money. Be thoughtful, friends, and as we have dealt generously with you, in return, treat us justly. Send the amount promptly by mail, at our risk, and it will be carefully receipted. We wait in hope.
