

AND BLOOMSBURG GENERAL ADVERTISER.

LEVI L. TATE, EDITOR.

"TO HOLD AND TRIM THE TORCH OF TRUTH AND WAVE IT O'er THE DARKENED EARTH."

TERMS: $2 00 IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 18.—NO. 34.

BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PENN'A., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1864.

VOLUME 28.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, in and by an act of General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "AN ACT TO REGULATE THE GENERAL ELECTIONS WITHIN THE COMMONWEALTH," it is enacted, that...

COMMUNICATIONS.

[Correspondence of the Columbia Democrat.] CAMP 50th PA. VETERAN VOL. REG'T. October 2nd, 1864.

Mr. Editor Columbia Democrat. DEAR SIR:—I enclose the money for your valuable paper. I have had a few copies sent me from home, and it is just what we want here,—sound Democracy.

Another Abolition Outrage.

[Correspondence of the Columbia Democrat.] Col. TATE.—The Hackery Pole which stood on the corner of the street, opposite the Store of Equine Chases, in the Borough of New Columbia, Luzerne county...

From the Army of the Potomac.

Camp near Bermuda Hundred, Va. October 5th, 1864. EDITOR COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT:

Dear Sir:—As the clouds above send forth their drops of water upon the face of the earth; and I being relieved from all duty this day and while lying in my tent, I have come to the conclusion of penning a few lines to you in regard to our present situation upon the soil of Virginia.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

COMMUNICATIONS.

[Correspondence of the Columbia Democrat.] CAMP 50th PA. VETERAN VOL. REG'T. October 2nd, 1864.

Mr. Editor Columbia Democrat. DEAR SIR:—I enclose the money for your valuable paper. I have had a few copies sent me from home, and it is just what we want here,—sound Democracy.

Another Abolition Outrage.

[Correspondence of the Columbia Democrat.] Col. TATE.—The Hackery Pole which stood on the corner of the street, opposite the Store of Equine Chases, in the Borough of New Columbia, Luzerne county...

From the Army of the Potomac.

Camp near Bermuda Hundred, Va. October 5th, 1864. EDITOR COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT:

Dear Sir:—As the clouds above send forth their drops of water upon the face of the earth; and I being relieved from all duty this day and while lying in my tent, I have come to the conclusion of penning a few lines to you in regard to our present situation upon the soil of Virginia.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

COMMUNICATIONS.

[Correspondence of the Columbia Democrat.] CAMP 50th PA. VETERAN VOL. REG'T. October 2nd, 1864.

Mr. Editor Columbia Democrat. DEAR SIR:—I enclose the money for your valuable paper. I have had a few copies sent me from home, and it is just what we want here,—sound Democracy.

Another Abolition Outrage.

[Correspondence of the Columbia Democrat.] Col. TATE.—The Hackery Pole which stood on the corner of the street, opposite the Store of Equine Chases, in the Borough of New Columbia, Luzerne county...

From the Army of the Potomac.

Camp near Bermuda Hundred, Va. October 5th, 1864. EDITOR COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT:

Dear Sir:—As the clouds above send forth their drops of water upon the face of the earth; and I being relieved from all duty this day and while lying in my tent, I have come to the conclusion of penning a few lines to you in regard to our present situation upon the soil of Virginia.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

ALL FOR McCLIELLAN.

Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

THE DRY BOOK.

Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

EDITED BY LEVI L. TATE, PROPRIETOR. "Our Constitution—guard it ever! Our glorious Union—hold it dear! Our Starry Flag—forsake it never! The proud Caucasian—our only peer!"

BLOOMSBURG: Saturday Morning, Oct. 22, 1864.

Ex Governor John Bigler, of California, speaks confidently of the Golden State going for McClellan, and is determined to be at home in time to assist in the good work.

The Blue's Journal, a rabid Shoddy paper published at Pottsville, in this State, in its issue of September 21th, gave as a reason why McClellan should not be elected that "the mere announcement of his nomination had declined from one to two dollars a ton."

Mr. Lincoln calls for 500,000 more men to the slaughter, and at the same time tells them that "the government" will consent to peace only upon a universal abolition basis.

"Swearing Horses!"—The disposition among the people "to swap horses" is now in the Presidential harness will be sent out to grass.

An order has been issued by the War Department for the discharge from the Invalid Corps of all soldiers in the District of Columbia who have lost a leg or an arm.

In December 12, 1862, Mr. Lincoln wrote to the Hon. Fernando Wood: "Understanding the phrase in the paragraph above quoted, 'the Southern States would send representatives to the next Congress,' it to be substantially the same as that 'the people of the Southern States would cease resistance, and would re-inaugurate, submit to, and maintain the national authority within the limits of such States, under the Constitution of the United States.'"

The violent abuse with which the whole pack of Abolition hounds—editors, orators, preachers and office holders—are assailing McClellan is the saddest evidence we can have that they fear his popularity.

All for McClellan. Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

The Dry Book. Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

All for McClellan. Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

The Dry Book. Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

All for McClellan. Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

The Dry Book. Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

All for McClellan. Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

The Dry Book. Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

All for McClellan. Hon. O. P. Browning, of Illinois, heretofore a Republican, lately said in a speech that McClellan was a true patriot, and an exalted statesman, and that he would be satisfied if he were elected.

The Dry Book. Our abolition friends have been very anxious to know what course the New York Day Book—the great peace organ of the country—would take on the Presidential question.

McClellan Campaign Song.

Why are we an strong and sanguine— See our banners waving high! All around the sky is brightening, Bright with glory to be won!

Are the Germans Wrong in Wanting our Bonds?

Not a bit of it! No shrewd, thrifty people, in matters of money, exist on earth. Our Jersey people and New England people are a frugal, industrious people, but they can't save money like the Germans.

The Democrats charge the Democratic party with aiding the rebellion. They know it is false, wickedly false. They know too that the distinction of the South look upon them as their natural ally.

Abraham has been a good Emperor for us; he has served his term; his policy has settled, established, and made irrevocable the separation of the old Union into nations essentially foreign and we may be almost sorry to part with him.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

McClellan Campaign Song.

Why are we an strong and sanguine— See our banners waving high! All around the sky is brightening, Bright with glory to be won!

Are the Germans Wrong in Wanting our Bonds?

Not a bit of it! No shrewd, thrifty people, in matters of money, exist on earth. Our Jersey people and New England people are a frugal, industrious people, but they can't save money like the Germans.

The Democrats charge the Democratic party with aiding the rebellion. They know it is false, wickedly false. They know too that the distinction of the South look upon them as their natural ally.

Abraham has been a good Emperor for us; he has served his term; his policy has settled, established, and made irrevocable the separation of the old Union into nations essentially foreign and we may be almost sorry to part with him.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.

The Democratic party is not in power now and we may thank God for it. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union on any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded.