

Saturday Morning, Oct. 22, 1864.

SALUTATORY.—JESSE C. TATE, my Junior Brother, having volunteered in the service of his country...

Judge ELWELL, is on a visit to his Farm, near Towanda, and will be absent from home for several weeks.

Mr. PETER BAUGLER, of Hemplock township, we are informed, raised a Pumpkin this season, measuring over six feet in circumference and weighing 128 lbs.

The County Fair, last week, was not very good, as a Fair,—but was well attended. It brought a handsome income.

We publish on the last column of this page, a number of McClellan electoral tickets. Cut them out, or send the entire paper to your friends or sons in the army.

The gain in this County is from one to two hundred, outside of the Districts in military occupation, notwithstanding the outrages committed on our citizens, by illegal arrests, &c.

The "Small Machine" informed us last week, that Capt. Clark, had been making speeches in all the other counties in this Congressional District, and the result is a largely increased Democratic vote.

Our Columbia county boys seem to be scattered everywhere through the Union armies, and we receive almost every day the most encouraging reports from them on political subjects, and of the great enthusiasm that every where abounds for Little Mac.

Our Democratic friends in Scott township, at the late election, covered themselves all over with political glory. They elected Mr. JOSEPH LILLY, a Justice of the Peace and reduced the usual 100 abolition majority to one vote.

If preventing the Republicans from cheating two honest men out of their votes at the late election, made them believe themselves with passion what would have been the consequence had all four of their victims by some means been enabled to vote?

The returns of Soldier voting now coming by mail to the Prothonotary's office here show very well. Our boys have not been much cheated, and the Lincolnists are disappointed at results.

The Machine man over the way, intimates that the Democratic Editors here, have not yet heard that an election was lately held in Ohio and Indiana.

Would it not be well, in view of the importance of the November election, for the Democracy to raise a little money by subscription, to induce Lawyer Clark and Reverend Wilson, to continue making Abolition speeches?

Another Victim.—Wm. E. Roberts, who died in Fort Millin a few days ago, and who was one of the Columbia county prisoners, was 57 years of age, and, no doubt, perished from hardships and a broken heart.

A certain act once whether there are any persons in your district that should be assessed, and, if so, have it attended to. Let every Democrat exert himself.

COLUMBIA COUNTY PRISONERS.—The trial of John Rantz, one of the Columbia county political prisoners is in progress today, but the case advances slowly.
