A Shrewd I cllow.

In 1822, M. Labouchere, then a clerk In the banking house of Hope & Co. Amsterdam, was sent by this patrons to Mr. Baring, the London banker, to negotiate a loan. He displayed in the affair so much ability as to entirely win the esteem and confidence of the great English financiar.

"Faith !" said Labouchere, one day to Baring, "your daughter is a charming oreature ; I wish I could persuade you to give me her hand."

"Young man, your are jokeing ; for seri ously you must allow that Miss Baring could never become the wife of a simple clerk."

"But said Labouchere, "If I were in pactnership with Mr Hope ?"

"Oh ! that would be quite a different thing ; that would entirely make up for all other deficiences."

Returned to Amsterdam, Labuchere said to his patron :

"You must take me into parnership." "My young friend, how can you think of such a thing ? It is impossible. You are without fortune, and-"

"But if I become the son-in-law of Mr. Baring !"

"In that case the affair would be soon settled, and so you have my word."

Fortified with these two promises, Mr. Labouchere returned to England, and in two months after married Mizs Baring,because Mr. Hope had promised to take him into partnership, and he thus became all-103" H. H. Dodd, the escaped Indiana jied to the house of Hope & Co. His was a
