COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

ALEM B. TATE, LOCAL EDITOR.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 17, 1864.

☞ A series of meetings have commenced in the Bloomsburg M. E Church, under the direction of Rev. Wilson.

☞ WM. H. ABBOTT, Esq., of Bloomsburg, has been appointed by Capt. Silver Assistant Deputy Provost Marshal of Columbia county.

☞ Judge ELWELL opens Court in Sullivan county, at Laporte, on Tuesday next, the 20th day of December.

Court in Montour county, commences in Danville, on Monday, the 19th inst.

☞ WM. G. HARRIS, of Greenwood township, will sell his entire stock of personal property, at public sale, on Wednesday, the 28th of December. See bills and advertisement.

☞ The trial of DANIEL MCHENRY, Esq., our County Treasurer, is said to be in progress, at Harrisburg. We expect his acquittal, with the balance of the political prisoners, and the sooner the better. This would be but justice.

☞ Those who intend to commemorate from this time to Christmas, in presenting friends with acceptable gifts, are respectfully informed that the "Democrat" office is opened daily, (except Sundays,) from 7 o'clock, a. m. to 8 o'clock, p. m.

☞ Mr. ROSENSTOCK, the polite and gentlemanly Photograph Artist of Bloomsburg is turning out daily, large numbers of beautiful and life-like pictures. Done up in one of his numerous rich cases, they would make an exceedingly appropriate Holiday Gift.

☞ SAMUEL SNYDER, Esq., the new Sheriff of Columbia county, took a prison r to the State Penitentiary, on Monday last, who was convicted for stealing money, at the late term of Court, and sentenced to fourteen months and a half to the Penitentiary.

☞ All lovers of sweet meats should read the Card of B. STOHNER, Confectioner. His establishment is well filled with Holiday candies, of a quality surpassing those of any manufacturer in this part of the State. Special inducements held out country dealers.

☞ We intend to get a list of those who have recently procured personal substitutes, and publish it, when our readers will see a precious set of voters for war and Abe Li coln, who dodge their votes and principles by sneaking out of the responsibility and disgrace by procuring substitutes.

☞ However mild the season previous to the past week may have been, Winter is now upon us in good earnest. Snow fell on Friday night a week, to a depth of about eight inches. The cold weather still continues up to the hour of going to press, and the jing'e of sleigh bells is ringing in our ears as we pen this item.

☞ PROF. B. C. FEDDING, an excellent dancing teacher, is about organizing a cla s in Bloom burg. His tuition for a term of thirteen lessons, one a week, is certainly very reasonable, being but $5. He has secured Major KOON'S Exchange ballroom for the purpose. "On with the dance, let joy be u nconfined."

☞ Bears, deers and other important game are said to be quite numerous on the Mountain in the northern part of our county. Those of our sportsmen who are fond of hunting, should buckle on their armor, and tramp up to them "diggins," as we expect to do, between the Holidays. In the meantime, orders for bear-meat, venison, &c., can be left at our sanctum. Only a limited number received.

☞ A Soldier died at the residence of Mr. HENRY C. HARTMAN, of Bloomsburg on Saturday last. He arrived in our county last fall, and shortly afterward become ill, and was taken by Mr Hartman, to his residence, where he has kindly been cared for up to his death by Mr. H., and his lady. Such acts of kindness, come from whatever source they may, we commend. The soldier' name we believe was Harry V. Bissel, of New Brighton, Beaver county, this state.

☞ The Restaurant under the Exchange Hotel of this place, has been throughly refitted in accordance with the times, and has passed into the hands of our friend, Prof. WILLIAM GILLMORE, who intends to give it his whole attention. All persons in want of a dish of good Oysters, either raw, stewed, fried or pickled, should give Bill a call, as he is determined to please the most fastidious.—Reading Ale on hand at all times. Drop in and take a smile.

☞ The township asse-sors of Columbia county have completed their enrollment of all white male ci izens, liable to military duty, and have handed their lists to the County Commissioners for public inspection, correction, &c. The draft for Pennsylvania Militia,—for which purpose the enrollment was made,—will take place in Bloomsburg, as soon as the necessary arrangements for the same, shall have been completed. All persons unable to do military duties, through physicial disability, &c., should loose no time in calling on the board and assing to their cases.

List of Drafted Men for Columbia Co.

We are indebted to Capt. SILVER, the Deputy Provost Marshall of this district, for the following correct list of Drafted Men, drawn at Troy, Bradford county, on the 8th of December. The number drafted is 128, being the hundred per cent of the number required to fill up the deficiencies in the townships drafted,—Sixty-four men. The men have been notified to report at Troy, on Tuesday next, the 20th of December, 1864.

☞ The cause of the rapid advance in th price of butter and eggs is somewhat a mystery. We can understand how oil stocks may be down to zero today and at the top of the fit to-morrow, but the late violent fluc tuations in the butter and egg market are something we cannot understand. Butter sells for fifty cents per pound, and eggs at thirty to thirty-five cents a dozen, "on account," as we heard a woman say, "of the rise in gold." We don't know who to blame for the rates which now rule in the market, the cows, the hens or their owners, but certain it is that the prices which our housekeepers are now asked to pay is in the highest degree extortionate. Oh, for the days of yore, when butter sold at 12 to 15 cents per pound, eggs at 10 cents per dozen, and meat at 10 and 12½ cents per pound. Then there would be some change for poor folks like printers, getting through this world without a resort to rye coffee, a hard crust of bread and no butter.—Those were "dis-loyal" times, however, and it is almost treasonable to think, let alone speak about them.

APOLOGETIC.—Being obliged to be our own Butcher, as well as editor compositor and pressman this week, will account for the scarcity of Local News.—Berwick Gazette.

This, we submit, Mr. Gazette, is a most miserable apology. The fact of an editor—especially a Copperhead editor—having any thing to butcher in these times, when pork is commanding 25 cents per pound, should be the subject of gratulation rather than of apology. Why what a cormorant this Berwick man must be! to stop the press, the types and the old goose quill to provide for the wants of his stomach—Does he not know that an editor should live on wind?—Luzerne Union.

☞ For the information of many of our country friends, who are in the practice of drawing instruments of writing we would state that all persons except such as hold license as lawyers, or claim agents, are regarged as conveyancers and must pay a license of $10, in default of which they are liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment not exceeding 10 years, and a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

☞ New kind of Copperheads—the Republicans that stole copper from the Philadelphia navy yard.

☞ Our payments are announced above for the past month and they are small. The fall season usually brings lean payments. Our thanks are due to thoughtful friends.

We have sent bills, by mail the past two weeks, to a large number of persons, in various sections of the country, indebted to the office of the Columbia Democrat, and requested remittances by the same channel Hundreds, if not thousands, of others, to whom we have not sent bills, but who know themselves indebted to us, and if they were as honest as they profess to be, would at once pay their indebtedness, (even though it be but one DOLLAR,) without waiting for a Printers Dun. Upon the advent of 1865, we shall be compelled, of necessity, to charge $2 50 for all past unpaid subscriptions, and $3 00 per annum, (which will not be equal at present to one DOLLAR in Democratic times) for the future, in advance.

Now is this the word. The name of delinquents will, in the future as in the past, be stricken from the roll. And more, they will be collected by the shortest legal process.

POSTSCRIPT!

Another Draft.

The people may as well make up their minds, if there are any who have not done so, that they will pass through another conscription within the next three months. The Cincinnati Commercial's Washington correspondent says: "The assertion of the Chairman of the Military Committee of the Senate is quoted here to the effect that there will be another call made and another draft ordered before the 1st of March. Those who are doubtful on the subject of future calls and confidently assert that no more men are needed, should try to explain away the fact that before next August the term of service of nearly one third of the army will have expired."

The same correspondent also says:

The expediency of repealing the substitute clause is frequently discussed here, but it meets with little favor. Most of the men furnished in the past year have been mustered in as substitutes or representative recruits, and to amend the law in this respect would be virtually to put a stop to enlistments.

Mariner, Consulting Chemists, Chicago, all of whom have analyzed the Catawba Brandy, and commend it in the highest terms, for medicinal use.

Analysis of the Massachusetts State Assayer, Jan. 25, 1858.

When evaporated through clean linen it left no oil or offensive matter. In every respect it is a pure spirituous liquor. The Oil which gives to this Brandy its flavor and aroma, is wholly unlike fusil, or grain oil its odor partakes of both the fruit and oil of grapes.—With solids, it produces ethers of a high fragrance.—The substitution of this Brandy for Cognac Brandy will do away with the manufacture of fictitious spirits sold under this name both at home and abroad.

Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M.D.
Assayer to State Mass. 16 Boyleston St.

I have analyzed "L. LYONS' PURE CATAWBA BRANDY," with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from ten casks afford
