The Peace Question. It is announced from Washington that the extreme Radicals of Ben. Wade's school are foaming with rage and indignation beand brutal men? According to their own showing slavery is dead, and what more do they want? Do they wish to extermithe way of peace, viewing it from the stand-point of the dominant party? The answer to this question is of vital impor tapee to the people. They are longing for the beginning of some plan for the reconstruction of the Union, and the return of the era of prosperity to the nation. -Will the dominant party at this time, when they claim that slavery has received its death blow, and the real cause of the war has sentiment of the nation ! They can hasten the dawn of peace, or they can plunge the nation still deeper in blood and distress. This responsibility is upon the Abolition party and Mr. Lincoln, and they cannot escape from it.
