

BLOOMSBURG: Saturday Morning, Mar. 11, 1865.

TERMS OF THIS PAPER: (AFTER JANUARY 1st, 1865.) $3 00 per Year, or 2 50 if paid strictly in advance.

Judicial Appointment. F. B. STREET, Esq., of Montrose, has been appointed President Judge of the Susquehanna Judicial District, Judge Mercer having resigned in consequence of his election to Congress.

The Roman Catholic Church. It is very clear from the signs of the times, and the recent editorials of The Tribune, that the next policy of the Republican party will be to make war upon the Roman Catholic Church.

The Catholics were a church when the realm of England was not a state. They fought the battle of civilization when England was in a condition of barbarism.

The Philadelpia Press states that the internal revenue staff is at once numerous and costly; that three men are employed to do the work of one, and that the salaries and other emoluments of office are exorbitantly great.

God Save the Life of Abraham Lincoln. We have not, heretofore, experienced any particular solicitude for the health of Mr. Lincoln beyond that which our good wishes to all our fellow creatures have prompted.

Plant Trees—Spring is upon us, and our advice to all is, PLANT TREES. Every person, whether living in town or country, and having the unoccupied space, should at once improve it, by planting Trees, either Fruit, Shade or Ornamental.

The whole world should remember not to forget, nor forget to remember, that SIX MEN, citizens of Columbia County, good and respectable, are incarcerated in Lincoln Bastiles and dying an ignominious death.

Quaint Remark—Bells have been skinned ever since Noah came out of the ark; and printers have been cheated out of their just dues ever since the Orientals printed with blocks of wood; yet neither do bells get used to being skinned nor the printers to being cheated.

Reduction of our Quota. Col. REBER and Dr. JOHN, the Committee appointed to visit Washington, with a view of having the Quotas in this Congressional District corrected and revised, performed that duty and returned on last Saturday.

Troy, Penna., 13 District, February 27, 1865. To Gen. JAMES B. FRY, P. M. G.—Dear Sir: The enrollment in said District upon 31st Dec. 1864, was 11,236.

The draft appears to have been designed to draw about one-fifth of the number enrolled. Observing this ratio, instead of 2301, the District Quota should be about 800.

They had an interview with 'Old Abe.' He told them a few anecdotes, but had no panacea for the disease. He sent them back to Fry, and Fry put out to Philadelphia.

The Cost of Revenue Collection. The Philadelphia Press states that the internal revenue staff is at once numerous and costly; that three men are employed to do the work of one, and that the salaries and other emoluments of office are exorbitantly great.

These are frank and honest admissions, that do credit to the journal which condemns its own party in making them.—Three officers where one is needed, three thousand where one thousand would suffice, thirty thousand office holders where ten thousand would do all the work.

Gen. Sickles' mission to Columbia, one of the South American States is stated by the Panama Mercantile Chronicle to be to secure a grant of land from that Government upon which to colonize 30,000 of the emancipated slaves.

How it Was Carried—It is well known that the constitutional amendment was carried by bribery. Hon. WM. H. MILLER, from this State, says he was offered 100,000 dollars if he would absent himself on business on the day the vote was taken.

The Hon. Emerson Etheridge publishes a letter showing that the President's private door-keeper—O'Leary—has been in the habit of receiving money to admit visitors, and procured the pardon of rebel prisoners for $10 each.

Three coat pieces of copper and nickel have been authorized by last act of Congress, and the issue of fractional currency under five cents is to be prohibited.

The Amendatory Enrollment Bill. This bill as passed in the House of Representatives on Tuesday is substantially as follows: Hereafter all persons mustered into the military or naval service, whether as volunteers, substitutes, representatives, or otherwise, shall be credited to the State, and to the ward, township, precinct, or other enrollment sub district where such persons belong by actual residence.

At this second appearing to take the oath of the Presidential office, there is less occasion for an extended address than there was at the first. Then a statement somewhat in detail of a course to be pursued seemed very fitting and proper.

The progress of our arms, upon which all else chiefly depends, is as well known to the public as to myself, and it is, I trust, reasonably satisfactory and encouraging to all. With high hope for the future, no prediction in regard to it is ventured.

Both parties deprecated war, but one of them would make war rather than let the nation survive and the other would accept war rather than let it perish, and war came.

Neither party expected for the war the magnitude or the duration which it has already attained. Neither anticipated that the cause of the conflict might cease even before the conflict itself should cease.

With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive to finish the work we are in, to bind up the nation's wounds, to care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow and his orphan, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and a lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations.

Col. James S. Wallace, formerly editor of the Philadelphia Star, and for the past six years connected with the editorial department of the Louisville Journal, died on February 18 from paralysis.

The Inauguration of President Lincoln. WASHINGTON, March 4. The procession reached the Capital at about quarter to twelve o'clock, escorting the President elect.

At a subsequent period the President and Vice-President, together with the Justices of the Supreme Court, members and ex-members of Congress, foreign ministers and other persons of distinction assembled in the Senate Chamber.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

The country is weary of bloodshed; the weight of taxation is becoming enormous; the tide of suffering and sorrow is every month rising higher and higher over the whole country.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that Isaac Sones, of Lepore twp., while attempting to arrest some deserters on Monday evening, instead of shooting the deserters, accidentally discharged the contents of the pistol into one of his own wrists.

Major J. R. Dodge, Provost Marshal Gen. of Pennsylvania, has been relieved from duty by order from Washington, and Brigadier Gen. E. W. Hinks, lately in command in New York, is assigned to duty in place of Major Dodge.

Gen. Lew. Wallace has been relieved from the command at Baltimore, and Brig. Gen. Morris, for several years in command of Fort Mifflin, has been appointed to fill his place.

The rebel Governor of Louisiana is in favor of two hundred thousand negroes being added to the Confederate army.

The new Secretary of the Treasury—Mr. Hugh M. Culloch—is a native of Maine. Another tribute to New England.

The doorkeeper at the White House, O'Leary, has been dismissed for receiving fees for showing his master to visitors.

The rebel Governor of Louisiana is in favor of two hundred thousand negroes being added to the Confederate army.

Arrest of an Editor. P. G. MEER, editor of the Bellefonte Democratic Watchman, has been taken to Harrisburg, under arrest, charged with violating some of the provisions of the enrollment act, in having published a letter under date of February 4th, from Centre Hill, counselling and advising resistance to the draft, and an article under date of February 10th, in the same vein, containing the most violent expressions against the Government, of which Meer assumes all the responsibility.

We give the above version of the Inquirer's Correspondent, for what it is worth, as both extravagant and untruthful. Mr. MEER is simply the "victim of malicious abolitionism." Justice demands his acquittal.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

RELEASED.—We have just learned from Senator Stark that the Rev. A. R. Ratan and Conrad Horn, who have been confined in bastiles—the one for some two years and the other for several months past—were last week released from their imprisonment and allowed to go to their homes.

MARRIAGES. At the residence of the bride's father in Berwick, March 2d by the Rev. W. J. Lenoax, Mr. JOHN L. FREAS, of Centre and Miss MARY O. DIERBICK, of Berwick, all of Col. Co. Pa.

At Pittston, on the morning of the 28th of Feb. by the Rev. E. A. Shattuck, Mr. JACOB SANDERS, printer, of Wilkes Barre, and Miss MARY G. FERRIS, of Pittston.

At the same time and place, by the same Mr. MOSES STIFF, to Miss SUSAN E. FAUSEY, both of Bloomsburg.

At the 11th day of February last by J. M. Chamberlin, Esq., Mr. LAFAYETTE FULLER, of Illinois, to Mrs. SARAH A. GIBSON, of Bloomsburg.

At the M. E. Parsonage, in Catawissa, by Rev. B. F. Gearhart, Mr. ISAIAH JOHN to Miss SALLIE McCLOW, all Catawissa, Pa.

At the residence of the bride's father in Berwick, March 2d by the Rev. W. J. Lenoax, Mr. JOHN L. FREAS, of Centre and Miss MARY O. DIERBICK, of Berwick, all of Col. Co. Pa.

At the residence of the bride's father in Berwick, March 2d by the Rev. W. J. Lenoax, Mr. JOHN L. FREAS, of Centre and Miss MARY O. DIERBICK, of Berwick, all of Col. Co. Pa.

At the residence of the bride's father in Berwick, March 2d by the Rev. W. J. Lenoax, Mr. JOHN L. FREAS, of Centre and Miss MARY O. DIERBICK, of Berwick, all of Col. Co. Pa.

At the residence of the bride's father in Berwick, March 2d by the Rev. W. J. Lenoax, Mr. JOHN L. FREAS, of Centre and Miss MARY O. DIERBICK, of Berwick, all of Col. Co. Pa.

At the residence of the bride's father in Berwick, March 2d by the Rev. W. J. Lenoax, Mr. JOHN L. FREAS, of Centre and Miss MARY O. DIERBICK, of Berwick, all of Col. Co. Pa.

At the residence of the bride's father in Berwick, March 2d by the Rev. W. J. Lenoax, Mr. JOHN L. FREAS, of Centre and Miss MARY O. DIERBICK, of Berwick, all of Col. Co. Pa.

AGRICULTURAL CHEMICAL CO'S. CHEAP FERTILIZERS. The fertilizers prepared by the Agricultural Chemical Co. are of the highest quality and are sold at the lowest price.

Pabulette This Fertilizer is composed of the finest quality of phosphate of lime, sulphate of potash, and other valuable ingredients.

CHEMICAL COMPOST. This Fertilizer is largely composed of animal matter, such as horse, cow, sheep, and pig manure, and is sold at the lowest price.

PHOSPHATE OF LIME. The Agricultural Chemical Company manufacture a Phosphate of Lime in accordance with a new and valuable process.

TERMS CASH. All orders of a Ton or more will be delivered at the Railroad Station and the balance of the order will be paid for by check or draft on New York.

THE undersigned, will sell at Public Auction at the Store House in Yanawille, Pa. on Wednesday, March 23rd, 1865, his entire stock of—

Store Goods, Consisting in Part of the following described articles of Groceries, Hardware, Queensware, &c.

Four Horses, Four Milk Cows, Three Sheds, and other valuable personal property.

Two Head of Horses, AND ONE COLT, Three Milk Cows, one Heifer, FOUR EGGS, and other valuable personal property.

Two Head of Horses, ONE COLT, THREE MILK COWS, and other valuable personal property.

One Colt, Three Milk Cows, and other valuable personal property.