

BLOOMSBURG: Saturday Morning, Aug 5, 1865.

DEMOCRACY, a sentiment not to be appalled, corrupted or compromised. It knows no baseness, it covers no danger, it opposes no weakness. Destructive only of despotism it is the sole conservator of liberty, labor and property. It is the sentiment of freedom, of equal rights, of equal obligations - its law of nature prevailing the law of the land - ALICE.

Democratic County Convention. Notice is hereby given that the Democratic Electors, in and for the several Boroughs and Election Districts, will meet at their respective places of holding the General Elections - except in Conowington twp., where they will meet at the Public House of Peter Hower, - on SATURDAY, THE 26th of AUGUST, 1865, between the hours of 3 and 7 o'clock P. M. of said day, for the purpose of choosing two Delegates from each district to meet in County Convention at the COURT HOUSE in Bloomsburg, on MONDAY, THE 28th DAY OF AUGUST, 1865, at 10 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of making the usual annual nominations of the Democratic party of Columbia County.

E. H. LITTLE, Chairman, JOHN J. STILES, ISAIAH BOWER, HENRY BINTZELER, JOHN FREITZ, PETER K. HERRINE, JOHN PRUITT, E. G. RICKETTS, ELIAS FRIEDRICK, Secretary, Democratic Standing Committee, Bloomsburg, July 29, 1865.

Pennsylvania Agricultural Society.

The State Agricultural exhibition, to be held at Williamsport on the last days of September next, promises to be an unusual display. We learn that already more space for cattle and sheep has been applied for than ever before, so long previous to the exhibition. The State Society is exerting itself, in conjunction with a committee of the Lycoming County Agricultural Society, to have complete preparation for any crowd that may visit the fair or the beautiful town in which it is to be held. There are now in process of erection stalls for nearly one thousand cattle, sheep and hogs; a hall three hundred feet long for protection to agricultural improvements; a two story hall, two hundred feet long, for the display of embroidery, pictures, statuary, piano and other articles subject to damage from the weather; and a covered arena, overlooking the whole of the ample grounds, capable of seating from two to three thousand persons. A sub-committee of the general Executive Committee of the State Society, consisting of Messrs Hamilton, of Harrisburg, Kapp, of Northumberland, Bliff, of Lycoming, Holstein, of Montgomery, Driesbach, Lazerne, accompanied by a number of members of the society, visited Williamsport a few days ago. They were hospitably received there, and after visiting and examining the park, they departed for their homes, heartily approving of the designs and acts of the President of the Society, and Mr. Hurdie, the resident member of the Executive Committee in that locality, to whose efforts in this direction too much praise cannot be awarded. There is every promise of a fine display, and ample accommodation will be made for its entertainment.

The Trial of Davis.

The rumor that Jeff. Davis is to be tried by a Military Commission, appears to have some confirmation in a report that one of the members of the recent Commission has been notified of his assignment to the new one. We hope this may not prove true. If Davis, as the chief executive of the rebellion, be chargeable with treason, he is amenable to the law, and not to the military. If he be accused of complicity with the assassination, the courts are open and the course of justice not more liable to impediment there, than before a military tribunal. It would be as well, quietly to murder him in his cell at Fortress Monroe, as to go through the mockery of a trial before Military Commission, especially with such a malignant imbecile as Gen. Hunter at his head. Therefore, we repeat, if he be tried at all, the Administration had better observe, at least the forms of law - remembering that the Constitution, which the President recently swore to "preserve, protect and defend," says that "No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury" - and "In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury."

"Fearless and Free," is the motto of the old black Rhinoceros, who nominally engineers the "Smut Machine," at Danville, called the Montour American. As O'Dabe was wont to say, this "reminds us of a little circumstance." Last spring we were compelled to administer to poor Brower, a pretty severe newspaper chastisement, and concluded by reminding him that we hoped that would be the last notice we should have to make of him, except it might, indeed, be at the toe of a gentleman's Boot. A few days afterward, we were standing at a store door in Danville, when Brower came along towards us, but on looking up, he suddenly turned about and ran into a building across the way. This was a sample of Poor Brower's 'Fearless and Free!'

Affairs on the Rio Grande cause much uneasiness at Washington.

The Reverend Rioter Beckley.

On Monday last, we stepped into the Bloomsburg Post Office, to get our mail, and found the Rev. Rowdy Beckley, standing amidst a small group of loyal-listeners, whilst he was pathetically reading to them a filthy production, which he wrote the week before, and published in the Smut Machine, over the signature of A. E. Kline. This fellow Beckley is a public rioter a reverend rowdy - like 'Old Parson Brownlow' of Tennessee - and as such was convicted by a Jury of Columbia county in a rioter, a rowdy and a violator of law and order, and duly fined and sentenced by the Court of Quarter Sessions. And this is the Christian Officer of the Government at Bloomsburg, - who got his office as a reward for being a "Rioter," as his appointment was made in the teeth of two-thirds of the Republican party here, and in opposition to the remonstrance of every Democrat who uses the Post Office, - and he may now well employ his time in writing scandalous communications for the "Smut Machine," against decent citizens, and using as a cloak for his hypocrisy, the name of an irresponsible creature called A. E. Kline.

Speaking of A. E. Kline, it may be well enough to say, that he is the same loyal individual, who some two months since, published an article in "Brower's Smut Machine," Danville, through the agency of Rowdy Beckley, and Mr. Thomas Dunn, over the signature of "Jacob," dated at Rhorsburg, charging upon us the cause of the "arrest and imprisonment" of his venerable Father, SAMUEL KLINE. His aged Father publishes in this Democrat to-day, a voluntary statement over his own proper signature, reminding his recent son, A. E. Kline, whom he addresses, as "my child," that when he got into the Army, (and he plainly tells him through what influence it was accomplished,) that he (the said Emanuel) solicited his Father to get him out, and failing to do so, Mr. Jacob deserted and hid in the mountains. - Nay, more. A member of the Co., from which "Jacob," alias Emanuel, deserted, in our issue to day, pins upon him the burning truth, that before he deserted the Army, he shielded his precious carcass from danger behind a Hay-stack. Like Beckley, the Rowdy, his man "Jacob," - whom Dr. Brower, of Danville, endorses as good authority, - stands convicted by his Father, with falsehood, and by his fellow soldiers, as a coward.

Speaking of Brower, of the Danville Machine, we invoke pardon of our readers, and self respect impels us to admit, that he is about the last chap in creation with whom we would attempt to conduct a public controversy. A fellow of low instincts - devoid of truth, - reckless in habit - false to friends - African in appearance, - a public pauper - more black guard than statesman, - a disgrace to the Press - a dishonest opponent, - an apologist for thieves and robbers - a reviler of white-men, - an ugly specimen of humanity and a natural coward. Such then, are some of the creatures, by whom we are weekly assailed and slandered. A precious trivium of politico-religious vagrants.

Then there is Thomas Dunn and his "Loyal Lady," of Wilkes Barre. "They, too, are on our track. It would be important to the public, if Mr. Dunn, would just inform them at what hour he met this Union Lady and the dimensions of her crinoline. Such a batch of stuff, we hold, -

"Would pillage the palace of the King of Kings. And stir the gilding from an angel's wings. Would cheat the living - wrong the dead. And rob the orphan of his crust of bread!"

"Oh ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell!"

Mexico.

Events in this ill-fated country seem hastening to a crisis. The United States government is concentrating an army of such magnitude in Texas, as to preclude the idea that it is only for the purpose of enforcing its authority in that State, but intended to act effectively in the complications arising in the Franco-Mexican empire. Maximilian, and his French master, are marshaling an army of 35,000 men on the Rio Grande, with a view to check interference on the part of the United States in the affairs of that country, of which they entertain strong suspicion, in view of the army now occupying Texas. The horde of adventurous spirits in that section from this country. North as well as South, are sparing no efforts to bring about a collision between the two governments. That great mischief maker, - Santa Anna, has also issued a pronouncement to his countrymen from his retreat in the island of St. Thomas, exhorting them to wipe out the empire, and promising to take the field as their leader or serve in the ranks.

Important news may soon then be expected from Mexico. It looks to us as if another doctrine, called "the Monroe doctrine," would soon be brought to the same test, and be as effectually settled as that of Secession.

Elopement.

It is stated that Maj. McConnell, a sprightly young officer, who at one time officiated as Provost Marshal in this city, has eloped with and married a daughter of Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania. The Major, while here, was decidedly a ladies' man, and just the boy to carry off a boarding school girl with a rich old governor for her pa. - St. Louis Republican

The "Republican" vs. The Soldiers.

Dr. John is uneasy about the soldiers of this County, and well he may be. In the first place, notwithstanding the frauds in the army vote, they gave a majority for Gen. McClellan. In the second place, wherever they have been their previous sentiments, they are unalterably opposed to the doctrine of Negro Equality. They also see that the Republican party is an organization of negroes and white men, built expressly for the benefit of the Negro. In 1856, when they originated, their doctrine was no Slavery in the Territories. Emboldened by success in 1860 they declared a crusade against slavery in the States. In 1865 they throw aside all masks and not only themselves advocate Negro Equality, but impudently ask soldiers to do so. A certain class may do so; those who got fat positions in Washington, about hospitals, &c. The true soldier knows how to rate negro courage. They know that one Division of them all through the terrible battles of the Wilderness, Spotsylvania, North Anna, and Cold Harbor, was kept in reserve, and favored, while our noble white soldiers were laying down their lives by thousands. They know that at Petersburg there were two large Divisions of them; and at the mine explosion a Division of white troops took the main line, and the negroes lost all by their cowardice.

These same men know last April, they were pushed into the jaws of death in Lee's final overthrow, while the negroes were carefully kept behind until the enemy were defeated, and then without opposition advanced into Richmond, and claimed the fruits of the victory. And the "loyal" press throughout the North said they were better soldiers than our white men!

Dr. John insolently charges the Democracy with being the enemies of the soldiers. The soldiers are Democratic, and his assertion is absurd. But what has he done towards the suppression of the Rebellion. After doing his best to bring about a state of war, he and his Quaker colleagues were exempted on the score of conscience! An abolitionist have conscience! Then has an idiot common sense. A matter of conscience truly to apply the murder of Mrs. Surratt, and John Brown's invasion of Virginia, or counsel and rejoice over the imprisonment and death of his neighbors in loathsome dungeons.

No; during this war he has coined his money from the people. An able-bodied man, yet he never shouldered a musket; nay even cringed at home during the invasion of the State, while Democratic Editors aided in repelling the enemy. Even now he is only intent upon office, and procuring further spoils from the Government.

The Spirit of Oppression.

The war is now over, and it were time its implacable animosities were allayed. Yet there is still an element unseated with slaughter and burning with lust, who take delight in reviving a spirit of avarice and fomenting discord by appeals to the basest of passions, and by recalling or inventing past wrongs. Such an element may be found in every community. It is need less to say that this class is composed of those who have ventured nothing in behalf of the cause they so biligerently advocate, and have profited most by the suffering and bloodshed they seek to prolong. Their continued attacks upon the public peace, their constant cry for the blood of a conquered people, and the ruffian and riotous results of their persistent and perverted efforts, find an echo in the demoralization of war and their teachings exemplified in a spirit of oppression regardless of law and order, and destructive to the well-being of communities. Cruel because cowardly, these and their proselytes, fearing retribution for their own former originality, seek this means to gather around them a faction whose violence will inspire terror to all opponents, and secure to them in the future, as in the past, a place and power that will contribute more to their ill begotten gains.

We trust that an intelligent and magnanimous people will discountenance every effort from every source to keep alive this malign spirit. The longer this agitation is permitted, the deeper discord is sown, and indefinitely does it postpone that quiet and reconciliation which is necessary to reunion and prosperity. No possible good can be done by persecution, while great harm must inevitably follow.

We hope that every just man and true patriot will unite in frowning down the selfish wickedness of unprincipled men; that the administration may not be clogged in its wise and humane policy; that an erring people may be restored to the wealth and growth of the republic, and order resume their impartial and universal sway. Men may call this "treason," "copperheadism," or what they will, but in the eyes of all others than fanatics it will recommend itself as the only policy consistent with the Christian civilization of the age.

"Lincoln Hireling's."

The "Republican" having frequently made use of this term, our readers may wish to know its origin. During a late canvass one of the Speakers at this place in speaking of the Provost Marshals and their assistants, properly used the term "Lincoln hirelings." With their usual dishonesty the opposition say the assertion was made in regard to the soldiers at the front. Those who know the character of the person who made the speech will at once see the impossibility of this, as many of his supporters, and his favorite candidate for the Presidency were soldiers.

The term, as applied by him, had peculiar fitness. Men who had not the bravery to face an armed foe, accepted positions as petty Provost Marshals, and illustrated their character by arresting and imprisoning defenceless boys and old men. For this they got so much a head. In this country that had but a hireling, a foreigner by birth, a native of the country which twice tried to enslave America, and which during the late war aided the enemy by money, vessels and sympathy. He became a tool in the hands of these Leaguers, and was in very fact a "hireling." At the instigation of prominent Republicans he arrested the Sheriff of the County and the commissioner's Clerk, and in looking over the sacred record did you not see where Judas conspired to put Christ to death? We were served like Judas. Christ was arrested, - so were we 44 men. Christ was put to death - we were sent to Fort Mifflin. In our arrest there were more than one Judas, and Jews too, and if they don't repent will share his fate. They have their thirty pieces of silver from the Administration, and like Judas they pretended to be followers of Christ.

You say we were brought to Justice - My child, I am an old man, worn down with hard labor and trouble, and it is hard language for you to say it was right to put me there in my old age. You sympathize with those scoundrelly neighbors who caused our arrest, and who were the murderers of Wm. E. Roberts, and your own brother in Fort Mifflin.

You wish to use a soft phrase by saying "a disgraceful father and brother." Since you sympathize in such heinous and damnable deeds, insinuate no longer that we are "ignorant," but lay your hand upon your mouth and forever after hold your peace. Disgrace your parents and brothers no longer by abusing Tate, Jacob, or any one else for the deeds of your own black rascal.

You say your brother acknowledged it was Tate & Co's fault that he was put in Fort Mifflin. All his friends know that he claimed exemption on the ground of conscientious scruples, but the board would not listen to it, because he was no Quaker! He lived and died in that faith, never having taken any paper but a religious one. You were towards him as you were towards the Democratic party which you followed with a bass drum that you might get the loaves and fishes; and as the Jews sought matter to accuse the Lord that they might accuse him, as you watch over your brother, but you can't injure him now so let the dead rest. His letters in my possession prove your assertions false, and your party the cause of his death.

You state we were brought to justice. By the false swearing of renegade Democrats and abolitionists we were tried yet only seven out of forty-four condemned, and those seven afterwards retraced by the authorities. Not a single thing was found true as reported to the Government, such as forts, rifle pits, and entrenchments. You speak of our unlawful deeds. Was it an unlawful deed or "trespassing to Government" to lie peacefully in our beds, from which we were taken through the reports of your lying crew? Before you charge unlawful deeds show one act of resistance, or do not attempt to glory in my suffering. You will be held up to public infamy and scorn, and should be ashamed to show your face among your relatives. You had better emigrate, as you have no friends here.

Now, Jacob, in conclusion, a few questions. Who schooled you at Millville under those Tory Quakers? Did you not tell me their religious creed was that if they could not rule the country they would oppose it, and you were converted to their faith. Did you not know, too, that that class of people were Tories in the time of the Revolution? you asked me if Tom Eves had not his heel shot off then, and I said yes. Don't you remember when Dr. John prevented you from voting at the Greenwood election, and that Joseph Patton gave you a horse and saddle to come to Benton, and how mad you were, Jacob? Did you not tell me you really believed the Negro in his natural state was not human. Yet you joined the noble bull in raising a company, in which Noble intended to get the preference at a 4th of July S. S. Celebration at New Columbus. You, Jacob, did not get it, but the Dem. Hogs did. Did not your Capt. Noble persuade you to go to war, and while there did you not write for me to get you out. I tried, but failed, when you deserted, came home, and secreted your self in the mountain. Again, while in the army were you not a McClellan man, and did you not call your boy after him? When Dr. P. would not vote for him you did likewise, and when your present Brother and wife called to see you did you not leave the house to avoid the subject of our past troubles.

P. D. Kline never took Tate's paper, nor did I for twenty-one years. Well, child, your first experience was under Democratic rule, which you deserted for abolitionism so you see your experience was of no use.

But let this suffice; if not you shall hear from me again.

SAMUEL KLINE. BENTON, PA., Aug. 1, 1865.

For the "Columbia Democrat." Col. L. L. Tate - Dear Sir - I understand that there are certain individuals in your town and about there, who have said, that it was right that we Fort Mifflin men were put in prison. I would just say, these men are like all other murderers. In their taking pleasure trips and trout fishing up Fishingcreek they had better seek pleasure some other place, as they will not be very welcome, nor accommodated by such bad vicious petty from prison.

A BENTON PRESS OPINION. CURE FOR A HURN - The best thing for a burn is the following, and every family ought to know it: - As soon as possible after the burn, throw a little green tea in hot water; let it steep. Stir an Indian meal poultice. Spread the tea leaves on the poultice, put it on the burn or scald, whatever it may be. If burnt with powder, it will take it out and the skin will be as clear as ever.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Col. L. L. Tate: Dear Sir: - I once more ask of you to give this room in your valuable sheet, for I am disposed to write a little more concerning Jacob of Rhorsburg.

Let me briefly observe first, that we Fort Mifflin men will know who were the cause of our arrest; it was our own neighbors, and not Tate or Jacob; I could name the neighbors if I wished.

I see by the card published by the Black Sheet from the eight liars of Benton, they had not Judge Advocate Lutz name included with theirs. I suppose they hold him insane as did the Commission at Harrisburg.

I shall now turn my attention to Jacob of Rhorsburg. Well, Jacob, I ought to call you my child, but wild as are your written sentiments, you truly said experience is an excellent teacher, and by its lasting impressions are made. Before I get through I shall portray the origin of your experience, and you can't deny it. - All the abolition liars and woolies in Benton and elsewhere can't make us believe Tate and Jacob were the cause of our arrest.

Jacob, you spoke of an organized company called the Democratic Home Guards, and you say the most of them were in the Fishingcreek Conspiracy. You once pretended to preach the gospel of Christ, and in looking over the sacred record did you not see where Judas conspired to put Christ to death? We were served like Judas. Christ was arrested, - so were we 44 men. Christ was put to death - we were sent to Fort Mifflin. A. E. Kline.

It is amusing to see this man spread himself in the "Negro Equality" sheet of this County. A man pretending to be religious yet who attempts to degrade his old father, and justify the imprisonment, and consequent murder of his brother.

He talks of the infamy of desertion, &c. Let me say privately to you, Col. a word about this loyal hero.

He enlisted in October, 1861 in Co. 'D' 84th P. V., was sent to hospital in June, 1862, and by some heinous plot was sent to Ft. Penn. From this he deserted and reports to this day. Let him deny it if he dares.

To show further that he is a fitting correspondent of the "Negro Equality" Gazette and Free Love Advocate, I will state that during the battle of Winchester, Va., March 23rd, 1862, he was one of five or six others who crawled under a hay stack to save his valuable carcass.

Let A. E. K. change base or he will get another shot.
