The Berwick Gazette.

J. S. SANDERS, Esq., has introduced his paper to the public with a new heading, and in a neat dress of new type. It makes a very fine appearance and is conducted with creditable ability. Success to the Berwick Gazette.

One Truth!-The Smut Machine, most remarkably, tells one truth in this week's issue. It says, speaking of our Orangeville Meeting, that, the "attendence has been large." Thomas Dunn, we fondly hope, is improving in verseity,

When this Old Hat was New.

BY COL 2, G. CARLES

Before this hat was made King George was on the throne, Our Fathers all were rebels then And fought with Wa hington;

The Tories cheered for old King George The Revolution through; And bragged about their legalty, Ere this old but was now.

When this old hat mes new The sons of that base crowd Revived the cry of "Layalty," And bellowed it aloud; The Government our Fathers made

For them would never do: And they have torn its bulwarks down Since this old hat was new.

When this old hat was now Thore was no public de bt, No unilliounire had yet

His pile for Seven Thirties speat On which no tax was due, But each man fairly paid big tax When this of that was new.

When the old had man B'estions still were free, And every man was thought to have A right to liberty ;

Acrests were made by course of law. Trisls were speedy too. And Soward rang no little bell, when this old hat was new-

When this old hat was new This land was in its prime, Miscegenation was untaught In all this happy clime : And white folksthen were thought as good

As Sambo, Cuff or Sue; But things have sailly changed about Since the old be was new.

When this old but was new The poor white men was free, And every year a bran new boy Could danule on his lines : But now, for every child he has, He's taxed till all is blue; Dut thing- I tell you were not no When this old hat was new.

When this old hat was new Gold dollars did abound, And not a stamp in all the land Could any where be found; But now you dare not kiss your wife Unless you stamp her too; But things I tell you were not so When this old hat was new.

DEMOCRATIC CALL.

AIR - Bruce's Address.

Democrats who undismayed, Stand for freedom's fight arrayed, Neath the Constitution's shade Shout your glorious battle ery;

Grand sons of old seventy sig, Secretary Stanton, Holt and Dix. By the right, our course we fix, Ever shouting "liberty."

That for which our Fathers rose And dealt full many stardy blows, Whilst the Tories fed our foes, Bragging of their "loyalty : Do you know those Tories' sons ? Trace the blood, see where it runs. And as sure as shine the suns, They are shouting "loyalty."

Ye who with McClellan fought-Who with Sherman wonders wrought-Who with Meade the formen taught-Rally to the call again; Hearts of oak and nerves of steel, Ye who feared no foul bastile, To your country always leal, Gather in from hill and glen.

Gather in your power and might, Gather for the cause of right, And may Heaven its purest light, Shed upon your brave array; Raise the glorious banner high, Shout aloud your hattle cry.

Let the mountains make reply,

"Liberty for aye and aye

The inquest of Coroner Hendrickson, et Jamacia, J. I., on the bodies of the five persons who have so far died in coasequence of their injuries in the collision of two trains on the Long Island Bailroad. was begun Monday afternoon and continued yesterday. Most of the testimony went to show that the collision was entirely owing to the inexcusable neglect and carelessness of the redroad employees.
