COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT

" Our Constitution---guard it ever!
Our glorious Union---hold it dear!
Our Starry Flag---forsake it never!
The proud Caucassian---our only peer!

EDITED BY LEVI L. TATE, PROPRIETOR.

BLOOMSBURG:

Saturday Morning, Nov. 25, '65

DEMOCRACY, a sentiment not to be appalled, corrupted or compromised. It knows no baseness, it cowers to no danger, it oppresses no weakness. Destructive only of despotism it is the sole conservator of liberty, labor and property. It is the sentiment of freedom, of equal rights, of equal obligations—the law of nature pervading the law of the land.—ALLEN.

Special Notice.

We ask our friends, who are indebted to this office, in any way or amount, to make IMMEDIATE PAYMENT. They must know that our business requires a large amount of Cash, at greatly incerrsed prices, and can only be met by prompt and regular payment on the part of our customers. We have ever found them kind and prompt, generally,—for which they have our sincere thanks—but there are many others, who should pay us our honest dues, like men, and not act as though they intended to defraud the Printer.

We hope that all indebted hereabouts, will send or bring us our money at the December Court. Others can send by mail.

Convention Day.

Under the above heading the Jeffersonian presents to its readers a very able disquisition upon the question of the proper time for holding the Democratic State Conventions, in the future. The conclusions to which the Editors come are these :—

"In our judgment a proper convention day, in any year except Presidential year, may be fixed on any day between the 1st of June and the 5th of July. This would give a campaign of three or four months, which we regard as abundantly ample for all useful purposes in this era of railroads and telegraphs."

Our objection to this conclusion is this If a day for the convention is to be fixed, there ought to be no fluctuation to suit times or seasons. Let the meeting be as certain as the day, and let the day be fixed as that for the election is—say the first Wednesday of March.

We favor that time because, the spring work, moving and other matters would not interfere, as they would in April, May or June—because we do not think a campaign beginning then is too long, and the excitement of short campaigns is unfavorable to correct conclusions—because elections are not carried by "railroads and telegraphs" but by a thorough ventilation of principles, in the shops, fields, and firesides—because the genius of our people is against the hurry and rush and war of modern campaigns.

Expediency as to persons, times, and seasons, has been our destruction. Let us return to the old land markes and take lessons from the fathers. Young America has led us somewhat estray; let us retrace our steps.

Newspaper Agency Bores.—We receive by almost every mail, batches of New York Humbug Advertisements, requesting their insertion in the Columbia Democrat, conditional that we take a due-bill in part pay and give the other part or two parts in Cash. All such notices we throw in our paper-basket, and the sooner these sagacious Agents know it the better for all parties concerned. We indignantly reject all stuff emanating from the miserable concern, called Mather & Co., Broadway, New York.

Official Stupidity.—Occasionally our paper, like every other sheet published, is refused by the person or subscriber to whom address. In most instances the Post Master returns the paper to us, instead of writing a letter, as the Post office Law requires of them, they scrible on the margin,—"you must stop this paper—it is not taken out of the office," without even naming the office. Now we ask those officials, that we may have an idea of where the paper was returned from, to be so kind as to also write the name of said Post-office.

☞ If the rebel States have never been out of the Union, any attempt to reform their State institutions, either by Congress or the President, is rank usurpation.

Thus spake Thadeus Stevens in his Lancaster speech, previous to the state election of 1865. Remember now that the President holds, that the "rebel States have never been out of the Union," and see where the right over person and property, claimed by the radicals, comes from. Stevens and the destructionists claim that the States were out ; in that event secession must have been loyal. We Democrats and President Johnson aver that the States never were out, and that the ordinances were void and a nullity.

☞ "Our Mutal Friend," By Charles Dickens, being a large volume of 350 pages, is the title of a New Novel, just published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, in Philadelphia. Price $1 00. To those who relish Novel Reading, this work affords a rich and rare intellectual feast.

A Negro Rebellion.

Our negro equality friends might, if they were so disposed, read a useful lesson in the negro rebellion now raging in the island of Jamaica. The circumstances attending the revolt prove incontestibly that the natural antipathieo existing bet ween the two races render it impossible for them to live together in harmony on terms of equality. Strifes, bloodshedding, and war must always prevail in countries where this perversion of natural laws is attempted. If the negroes are in the minority, the will be constantly mistreaten by the whites; and, if the predeminate, they will constantly outrage the whites. The only difference is that the whites, being naturally more considerate and possessing the elementary principles of of civilization, regulate their maltreatment of the blacks by those principles. Amongst them if any are so cruel as to inflict serious domage upon the blacks, public opinion is shocked and the oppression is prevented from demonstrating itself by the interference of those of his own race. But the negroes are naturally savage. Their instincts are all barbarian, and whatever civilization they attain is derivative andartificial. Hence, when they get started there is none amongst them to cry shame, or beg the others to desist, but the entire mass become infuriated and unites in pursuing their victims with unrelenting hatred. Like the Indians, they take no prisoners and give no quarter, and to beg mercy at their hands is to waste breath. The present rebellion is described as being exactly similar to all those which have preceded it, in which negroes were engaged. It is the St. Domingo massacre over again. In the city of Kingston business was entirely suspended, and the entire population were placing themselves in a state of defence.

Let those in this section who favor negro eqality in this country, heed the lesson taught by this revolt, and learn that the Omniscient Maker of all things, for some wise purpose, created different races of bipeds as well as of quadrupeds, and that it is not in the power of man to equalize and amalgamate these different species, nor destroy the natural distinctions existing between them. The white race is pre-eminently the governing race, and to it attaches the responsibility of employing and taking care of the inferior and subordinate races, in order to conduce to the general good. Experience has shown that this can only be effectively accomplished by placing the inferior races in subordinate conditions.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The December number of this favorite magazine is a superb one. The leading steel engraving, in illustration of the text,

"Children' s children are the crown of old men,
And the glory o children are their fathers,"

is one that will go home to many hearts. The engraved title-page is truly beautiful —it is a gem of art. It represents The Past and the future—while, around,

"The little birds sing East, and the little birds sing West," to use a well-known line from Mrs' Browning's beautiful "Rhyme of the Duchess May." The Double Colored Steel fashion Plate for this number will be pronounced by the ladies "superb," or else we are greatly mistaken. Prce $1 50 a year ; 2 copies $4 ; 8 copies (and one gratis) $16. Now is the time to get up clubs for 1866. Specimen numbers for this purpose will be sent for 15 cents. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

THE LADY'S BOOK.—Godey's Lady's Book, for December, the last for the year, has been received, and is a very superior number. It contains four Christmas Stories ; the Christmas Tree," a fine line engraving ; title page, consisting of five tablau, equal to five pictures ; double extention fashion plate, colored ; a Winter Scene ; Out in the cold, a seasonable engraving, besides a great variety of dress and embroidery paterns, &c, &c.—"Rizpah's Idols,' is the title of a new novel by Marion Harnold, to be commenced in the January number.—Now is the time to subcribe for the new year. The terms are one copy one year $3,00 ; two copies, $5,50 ; three copies $7.50 ; four copies $10.00, &c.

☞ The election of Rev. Dr. Kerfoot, to the Bishopric of Western Pennslvania, is one of the best signs of the good time coming, which we have seen. He stood up in the General Convention as a christian and a patriot, and the storms of radical hate and rancor beat against him in vain. The Binneys and the Brunots and the Philadelphia "Loyal League" were powerless before his stern integrity, his lowly piety and his love for the Church. Place and position have sought him out, and having so well performed his Master's behests in an humbler sphere, the word has gone forth "come up higher."

Bishop Stevens warmly and cordially endorsed the election of Bishop Kerfoot.

☞ The Typographic Messenger, by James Conner & Sons, New York, is the title of a very neat specimen number of printing type and Cards. Price 25cts per year. It is a very neatly gotten up work —at the top of the Art,—exhibting a rare picture of Pigs & Cats.

—Boats of all kinds are constantly engaged in dragging the Hudson river, between New York and Hoboken, for the body of Preston King, which remains undiscovered.

The Given Fraud.

Col. May, the commander of the 58th regiment P. V., says the Age, has been examined as to the correctness of the vote alleged to have been polled in portions of his regiment for the City Commissioner of Philadelphia, Col. May raised one of the companies of that regiment, and is therefore competent to speak with certainty on the subject. So far as that company is concerned, the whole return is a forgery. The Col. in his examination dwelt upon nearly every name, giving the time of death, desertion, or discharge, and showed that but five were present on the election day when their votes were alleged to have been cast. This is a startling revelation ; and it will be followed by others of like importance from other parties, showing that the whole return of the alleged soldier vote is deserving of no consideration in the official count. It is to be hoped that the concoctors and agents in this scheme of villainy will be discovered and punished according to their deserts.

FORTY YEARS AGO.—A cotemporary observes, says the Luzerne Union, that it is "refreshing" to those who live in this age of extravagance to look back over a period of forty years, and see how people lived in days gone by. It seems that there were no extortionists at that time—they must be "leeches of a very recent growth." A glance at the "weekly prices current," published in the month of November, 1824, will satisfy the reader of the correctness of our remarks. We publish the articles side by side with the present market rates in order to show the cost of living then and now.

1824.—Butter 8 cents per pound, ham 7 cents per pound, shoulder 4½cts per lb, lard 7 cents per pound, eggs 7 cents per dozen, potatoes 18½ cents per bushel, wheat flour $4,75 per barrel, rye flour $1,82 per barrel, wheat 90 cents per bushel, rye 31 cents per bushel oats 20 cents per bushel.

1865.—Butter 50 cents per pound, hams 26 cents per pound, lard 28 cents per pound, and shoulders 22 cents per pound, eggs 55 cents per dozen, potatoes $1 per bushel, wheat flour $13,00 per barrel, rye flour $7 per barrel, wheat $2,40 per bushel, rye $1,20, corn 90 cents per bushel, oats 65 cents.

Quite a difference to be perceived. Reason—we had Democratic currency in the olden time, now, shoddy rags

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.—We notice that there has been a change in the management of this well known and favorite weekly, by the admission of a lady author as editor. Mr. Emerson Bennett, the popular writer, now writes exclusively for THE POST, and announces a continued story, to begin the first of the year, to be called 'THE PHANTOM OF THE FOREST," a wild story of the early settlement of Kentucky. Bella Z. Spencer, the editor, whose novel of Ora has been so highly praised, also announces a continued story, to be called GENEVIEVE HOWE. Florence Percy, the author of "Eve Isle," Louise Chandler Moulton, August Bell, Eleanor C. Donelly Beatrice Collonna, Mrs. Margaret Hosmer, and a host of other popular authors also write for The Post. THE POST contains, besides stories, sketches, poetry humorous articles, &c., an original Agracultural Department, and original and selected Receipts for Housekeepers. Wheeler & Wilsons celebrated Sewing Machines are offered worth in Philadelphia FIFTY-FIVE Dollars ! The price of THE POST is $2 50 a year, two copies $4, four copies $8, eight copies (and one gratis) $16. Sample copies, containing the terms and inducements in full, are furnished gratis. Address H. Peterson & Co., 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.
