

STAR OF THE NORTH.

B. W. WEAVER & B. S. GILMORE, EDITORS.

Bloomsburg, Thursday, Jan. 17, 1850.

W. B. PALMER, general newspaper, subscription, and advertising agent, N. W. Corner, of Third and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia.

THE DEMOCRATS OF COLUMBIA COUNTY are requested to meet at the several places of holding the general elections in said county on Saturday, the 24th of February next.

THE MORALS OF THE FEDERAL PARTY. "Know thyself" is an aphorism which has its origin, certainly as far back as the Greeks.

SECRET ASSOCIATIONS. Our Philadelphia correspondent has to-day something to say upon the subject of secret societies, and we embrace the occasion to give our own views upon this subject.

THE PARDONING POWER. At the November court, in Luzerne county, B. Morrison, Esq., was found guilty upon an indictment, and last week, at the January sessions, was called up for sentence.

OHIO DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION. COLUMBUS, JAN. 9. Reuben Wood, was nominated as a candidate for Governor, on the sixth ballot, by the Democratic State Convention.

THE BOSTON CHRONOTYPE is no more. The editor on Saturday had the mournful duty of writing its epitaph. He says—"If it had told less truth in its life, it would not be lying now in death."

A FEDERAL HERESY. We look upon the practice of electing members of the Legislature to the position of State Treasurer and United States Senator as one of the most dangerous and injudicious.
