

We announced in our last issue the arrival of J. W. Bear, the Buckeye Blacksmith, and we must this week record his departure for Crivingsburg, attended by an escort of one or two constables. His charge is seduction under promise of marriage. The girl is a resident of Pottsville.—S. Angell Hill Haven Map.

Gov. Seymour of Connecticut, was inaugurated on Thursday last, and in his message recommended free banking, the abolition of the death penalty, and a homestead exemption.

The Committee of conference upon the appropriation bill have not yet reported in the Legislature. Best is trying to get Schuykill attached to Montour and giving to district 3 members.

LUCKY CALIFORNIA.—It is stated that Mr. James Bryant, a carpenter, who borrowed the means of going to California a year ago in January, returned in the last steamer, and has arrived in Boston with $90,000.

The Rev. Canon Bowles, the poet, whose controversy with Byron, may be recollected by many, died at Salisbury, in England, on the 7th ult., at the advanced age of eighty-nine.

CURE FOR BAD FITS.—Not by any patent medicine, but by a good suit—not such a suit as a man can get into at court, but such a neat, well-made and fashionable suit of clothing as every body should wear; just such as you can find at A. H. Ellis's, if you will call and examine his stock of coats, pants, vests, and other articles of dress at the lower door of the Exchange Block nearly opposite the Court-House, in Bloomsburg. His stock of ready-made clothing is not the "slap-work" made up for sixteen cents a day, but is cut with attention and made up to wear and not only to sell.

Mr. Ellis has also on hand an assortment of cloth, cassimeres, satinettes, and suitable trimmings; so that he is prepared to make up clothing to order at the shortest notice. He will pay particular attention to cutting out.

DIED.
In Union township, Luzerne county, on Friday last, Mrs. John McCaskey, formerly of Harrisburg, aged about 45 years.

In Danville, on Tuesday evening last, Mrs. Ann Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Wm. G. Moore, aged 23 years.

In Berwick on the 27th ult., Mrs. Nancy Stockhouse, in her 81st year.
