On the question, "twill the House consider this bill?" the orders of the day were called. House refused to suspend the order by a vo.'e yeas 50—nays 35; a two-third vote required.

On leave given, Mr Acker read in hi place a bill supplementary to the General Appropriation Act, which construes the section in the bill just passed, giving members $3 per day, so as not to apply to the Present Legislature.

This bill led to a protracted discussion, in which Messrs. Cornyn, Bowen, Smyser, Bur-den, Porter, and Brower participated. The bill was finally referred to the Committee of Retrenchment and Reform.

Mr. Baker read in his place a resolution lature, specifying Tuesday next, the 14th.

Mr. Porter read in his place, a bil to incorporate the Philadelphia and Saucon Railroad Company.

Senate amendments to House bills were taken up and acted on. An amendment was adopted incorporating the Philadelphia Coll-
