Dr. Keeler's Cordial & Carminative.

Br. Keeler's Cerdiel & Carminative.

For the speedy cure of Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholers Infantum, Cholers Morbus, all summer complaints, Cholic, Flatulency, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels from teething, &c.

Thousands die annually with diseases of the stomach and bowels from neglect. Almong the numerous remedies both public & private, recommended for the above diseases none are equal to the Condial. Years of experience and trials made with it in hundreds of cases, superadded to the voluntary testimony from physicians and others, gives it a character not to be unheeded by those cherishing the welfare of themselves and children. Speedily subduing the pain and inflammatery tendency, allaying irritability of the stomach, and constraining unhealthy evacuations, its operation is prompt and effectual.

From the Upland Union.
We are as little disposed as most pen ons to encourage appeals to law or medicice, but with all the legerdemain of the first, and the ignorance and quakery of the last, appeal must occasionally be made to both. The excessive heat and the accompaning productions of the season are already producing Diarrhoza, Dysentery and holera Infantum, complaints which if not promptly relieved produce great debility and feequent death. From a knowledge of its beneficial effects, we refer to Dr. Keeler's Cordial and Creainative," advertised in this paper. Dr. Koeler is a physician of intelligence, skill, and large practice, and if the remedies and commer dations of medical authority are to be depended on the adove named article will be found useful in the complaints referrest to.

That it will cure, and has cured, the wors form of disease of dethstomach and bowels read the following evidence:

Dr. J. N. Keler—I received yournote this morning asking for information as to the distribution. I made of the package of contial you put into my possession while in command of the U. States transport during the Mexicon war. According to your direction a part was distributed in Vera Cruz, the other I kept for the use of my seamen and others on board, beliving I should have use for it, as I had on board frequently from one to three hundred persons, and that many when leaving Mexico would be on the sick list.—Such was the fact, for Dysentery and Diarrheen extensively prevailed; I used the cortial freely, and in not a single instance do freeclased of its having failed to cure. My own crew would often be attacked with Diarrhos, Dysenterry, &c., peculiar to nearly allafter getting on shore and eating finit and vegetables; in all such cases the cordial did not fail to cure specify.

When in New Orleans, a friend-informed me of a Philadelphia gentleman, S. Churchman Esq, who was sick with the Dysantery, and despaired of by his doctor. I monitored having a bottle or so of your cerdial the stomach and bowels.
