GREAT COUGH REMEDY!

VAYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL:

For the Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, CROUP, ASTHMA, WHOOPING-COUGH AND CONSUMPTION.

In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not our wish to trifle with the lives or health of the afflicted, but to try to lay before them the opinions of distinguished men, and some of the evidences of its success, from which they can judge for themselves. We sincerely pledge ourselves to make no wild assertions, and to stand by the truth, and we hold out no hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant.

Many proofs are here given, and we solicit an inquiry from the public into all we publish, feeling assured that the public will perfectly recognize, and the medicine worthy their best confidence and patronage.

PROF. CLEVELAND, of Bowdoin College, Maine, writes: "I have witnessed the effects of your 'CHERRY PECTORAL' in my own family, and that of my friends, and it gives me satisfaction to state in its favor that no medicine I have ever known has proved so eminently successful in curing diseases of the throat and lungs."

REV. DR. OSGOOD writes: "That he considers Cherry Pectoral the best medicine for Pulmonary Affections ever given to the public," and states that "his daughter after being obliged to keep the room for more than one week, and being accompanied by raising of blood, night sweats, and the attendant symptoms of Consumption, commenced the use of the 'Cherry Pectoral,' and had completely recovered."

EX-CHANCELLOR KING, of New York says, "I have been a great sufferer with Bronchitis, and but for the use of the 'CHERRY PECTORAL' might have continued to be so for many years to come, but that I have cured and I am happy to bear testimony to its efficacy."

From such testimony we ask the public to judge for themselves.

HEAR THE PATIENT.
Dr. Ayer—Dear Sir: For two years I was afflicted with a very severe cough, accompanied by spitting of blood and profuse night sweats. By the advice of my attending physician I was induced to use your Cherry Pectoral, and continue to do so till I considered myself cured, and ascribe the effect to your preparation.

JAMES RANDALL, Hamden s. Springfield, Nov. 27, 1848. This day appeared the above named James Randall, and pronounced the above statement true in every respect.

THE REMEDY THAT CURES.
PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 10, 1847. Dr. Ayer: I have been long afflicted with Asthma which grew yearly worse until last autumn, it brought on a cough which confined me in my chamber, and began to assume the alarming symptoms of consumption. I had tried the best advice and the best medicine to no purpose, until I used your Cherry Pectoral, which has cured me, and you may well believe me, Gratefully yours,
J. D. HILLS, who speak from experience, here is a medicine worthy of the public confidence.

Prepared by J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass., Sold by E. P. Lutz, Bloomsburg, and A. B. WILSON, Berwick Jan. 10, 1851—4m.

KICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE, FOR 1851.

In one of the chapters of the Constitution of the State of Massachusetts, yet in force, there is a declaration, "That the encouragement of the Arts and Sciences, and all good Literature, tends to the honor of God, the advantage of the Christian religion, and the great benefit of the and the other United States of America." It has ever been the highest purpose of the KICKERBOCKER to elevate the standard of American Literature.

It has been the medium of introducing many of our most popular authors to the public. To those who take a pride in possessing a good American Magazine, entirely national in its character, we look for support. Men of judgment need not be told that it is impossible to get up a Magazine entirely original, unless some portion of it be made up from foreign sources are sold. The unremitted efforts of the editor and publisher will be continued to improve the work.

Send it to me to read and new subscribers.
The publisher, grateful for the large increase of patronage which this old favorite of the reading community has received since its re-organization, has determined to offer to the old patrons, and to all new subscribers, a splendid engraving, recently published in this city, by Messrs. Goupil, Wilbert & Co. from a painting by a well-known American artist, William S. Mount. This print is entitled "Music in Connecticut."

It is 19 by 24 inches, is printed on beautiful paper, and framed, will make a valuable and elegant ornament for the drawing-room or parlor. The price of this engraving is three dollars. It will be given to all subscribers to the Kickerbocker Magazine who pay their subscription for 1851 in advance or during the month of January, 1851, and pay in advance. To entitle the subscriber to the Engraving, all payments must be made to the publisher. Subscribers who owe for more than one year, will be expected to settle up all arrears, and pay for 1851, to entitle them to the Engraving. The bills of specie paying banks in all parts of the country will be received in payment. The engraving will be rolled on a stick, and so securely done up that it can be sent to California, or any other part of the United States with perfect safety. The number for January, 1851, will commence the thirty-seventh volume of this work.
