Meeting of Coal Operators. Pottsville, April 7.—The coal operators held a meeting here to day to consider some plan, agreeably to the resolutions adopted at the meeting on Thursday last, for securing a reduction of the rates of toll on the Reading Railroad, but the meeting being secret, nothing is known of their proceedines or the plans proposed. It is hardly probable that any plan can be agreed upon. It cernnot without the co operation of the and that cannot be without a compromise of existing differences and conflicting interests. The bad feeling in reference to the rates is increasing, and the difficult will tend very greatly to limit the extent of the operations here during the season.

PENASYLVANIA'S CALIFORNIA—A joint committee of the Legislature of Fenusylvania, estimate the value of the present annual yield of the coal mines of Pennsylvania, at $17,800,000, and the annual product of fur naces, forges and rolling mills, at not less than $28,000,000. In about two and a half years—the time since the discovery of the gold mines of California—it is estimated that $25,000,000 have been taken out, or at the rate of $38,000,000 per annum. The coal and ison of Pennsylvania are therefore more productive than are California's riches.

SEQUEL TO THE MEMOIRS OF A PHYSICIAN. BY ALEXANDER DUMAS The Queen's Necklace.

the Secret History of the Court of Lewis XVI Or the Secret History of the Court of Lewis XVI.

THIS work is the sequel to Dumas' celebrated work "The Memoirs of a Physician," by Alexander Dumas, author of "The Iron Mask," "Count of Monto Cristo," &c.
Translated from the French by Thomas Williams, Eaq., with beautifully illustrated Covers and Portraits. Complete in two large octave volumes. Price 50 cents a volume.
This novel is founded on the celebrated incident of the diamond necklace, which Cardinal Cohan purchased, as he supposed, for Maria Antoniette, but which fell into the hands of a female sharper, who personated
the Queen, and so dooped the poor cardinal.
Dumas always writes with spirit. The present is better than most—novels now-a-days, and we recommend it as an agreeable companion for a railroad car, or a rainy afternoon.
