A Thought to Think About

A correspondent of ours from a neighboring county expresses deep regret that the Democratic party should in many counties be so divided that though there is a large nocratic majority, it is not reliable; and sks-what shall be done to cure this

To us it occurs that this comes from a lax regard of usage in the party, by which men are placed in nomination whose main merit is that they bave at a previous time aided is that they have at a previous time alled to defeat a regular and undisputed nomination of the party. This seems like rewarding disorganization, and hence come the many competitors for the reward. But whenever men who have opposed regular nominations are placed upon the ticket, there are many discriminating Democrats who feel the furnished samples of one pound of cotton spun into 900 hanks, of 840 yards each, that such candidates cannot avail themselves of a protection on the ticket which they themselves did not give to others; and that he who has himselt made war upon a fair Another firm exhibited 1200 hanks, of the nomination cannot claim that such nomination next year shall shield him.

He who will not observe discipline towards others has no right to ask others to observe discipline towards him. Hence seem which cotton machinery has arrived. Brusto arise the cutting and cross-cutting of tick-ets; and we cannot see where the evil can stop unless conventions learn to understand lace shawl, made in France for the duchess of Sutherland, is exhibited, the cost of which ination has withdrawn himself from the pale of party discipline. So long as opposition to a nomination is treated as a merit and rewar-ded it will grow worse but can never be cur-came blind from the heavy task it put upon ed. This certainly is a thing to think about her eyes. Just think of simple handiwork in coolness and prudence. ****

The negro who was on week before last captured by Assistant Marshall at Wilkesbarre as a fugitive slave was the same one whom Mr. Jameson Harvey had been charged with concealing. It will be same that the same of the same o remembered that a prosecution had been instituted in the United States District Court upon this charge, which was amicably companies. On the 22d ult., in Berwick, by Rev. J. H. Young, Mr. HENRY SHAFFER, and Miss CATHURDON THE WHITENIGHT. remembered that a prosecution had been inpromised; and it is now said, (we know not with how much truth,) that it was a part of that compromise that Mr. Harvey should send the negro to Wilkesbarre with the team, where he might fall into the hands of the Deputy Marshall. The case at least shows that the men of the South have no cause to complain for the want of legal protection in last State Treasurer's report shows that for the year 1850, the amount paid for tavern licenses was $107,427 49. For the present year there are in Columbia county 34 licensed tavers which will pay altogether $392,25 for the privilege of selling fire-water. There are in the county 33 stores where liquor is sold, and the increase of the license revenue from this source is $139,50. Three distilleries pay a special license of $21 over and above their tax. From these sources then the direct liquor tax paid in Columbia county is $452,75. How much is paid indirectly we have no means of determining.

Cattawissa Railroad Meeting.

The citizens of Tamaqua have held a meeting, at which they resolved that they would collectively and individually use every effort to aid in the completion of the Cattawissa, Williamsport and Erie Railroad. They appointed a committee to make arrangements for a general meeting of the friends of the road from all points to be held at Cattawissa at such time as the Committee may determine.

Our friend Wynkoop of the Miners-ville Bulletin guesses more like a spiritual knocker than a live Yankee who can beat all neture catching trout. For a story is told of one of these knockers who when asked how a distinguished man then thought of had died rapped out 'deler-i-u-m t-r-e-m-e n s. Well, said the querist, I was thinking of Mar-

Prospectus of the Washington Union.

Prospectus of the Washington Union-THE undersegned having purchased this pa-per of Tomas Ripchie, Esq., it will in future be conducted by A. J. Donelson, according to the principles of the old democratic republican party. The editor enters upon his task with a deep sense of the responsibilities he has assumed, but while he distrusts his qualifications for the arduous duties which the persuasions of friends more than his own inclinations have imposed on him, he takes his post with a firm determina-tion that the expectations of those friends shall not be disappointed by any want on his own part of energy, constancy, courteey, and a firm adherence to those great principles on which the honor, glory and prosperity of the country de-honor, glory and prosperity of the country depend.

The Union will advocate principles, not men; and it will be so conducted as to farnish no pretext for the imputation that it will be devoted to the service of any political aspirant, or become the organ of any combination formed for the personal or political advancement of its members contary to the principles and usages of the democratic party by rebuking those who would depart from its principles, or mar the beauty of its creed by the introduction of dangerous Joctrines.

Twelve numbers will make two volumes of 1248 pages, to which indexes and title-pages will be prepared. The price of the work is rive not than a year, payable in advance; the extremely low terms on which it is furnished, make a strici adherence to this rule indispensable. All moneys may be such by mail, post paid, at the Publisher's risk, and the postmaster's certificate will be considered sufficient evidence of the mailing of subscriptions. Postmasters are the publisher's only agents. All letters must be addressed to JOHN LIVINGSTON, Editor and Proprietor, 157 Broadway N. Y.
