ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER! PEP SIN!
THE TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, OR
GASTRIC JUICE.
A Great Dyspepsia-curer, Prepared from RENNET, or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, all directed by Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., No. 11, North Eighth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice.
Half a spoonful of this Fluid, infused in water, will digest in five or six hours, out of the stomach.
DIGESTION.
Digestion is chiefly performed in the stomach by the aid of this Fluid, which freely exudes from the inner coat of that organ when in a state of health, called the Gastric Juice. This fluid is the Great solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the stomach, and it is without it that there is no digestion, no conversion of food into blood, and no nutrition of the body; but rather a foul, torpid, painful, and destructive condition of the whole digestive apparatus. A weak, diseased, or injured stomach, produces no good Gastric Juice, and hence the disease, distress and debility which ensue.

PEP SIN AND RENNET—Pepsin is the chief element, or great Digesting Principle, of the Gastric Juice. It is found in great abundance in the solid parts of the human stomach after death, and sometimes causes the stomach to digest itself, or eat itself up. It is also found in the stomach of animals, and is the material used by farmers in making cheese, called Rennet, the effect of which has long been the special wonder of the dairy. The curdling of milk is the first process of digestion. Rennet is the most powerful and efficient of all the curdling agents. The stomach of a calf will curdle nearly one thousand times its own weight of milk. Baron Liebig states that, "One part of Pepsin dissolved in sixty thousand parts of water, will digest meat as effectively as other fluids." Diseased stomachs produce no good Gastric Juice, or Pepsin. To show that this want may be perfectly supplied, we quote the following

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE!
Baron Liebig, in his celebrated work on animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, which various articles of food, as meat, and eggs, will not only digest, but digest in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."
Dr. Pereira, in his famous treatise on "Food and Diet," published by Fowlers & Wells, New York, page 25, states the same fact, and testifies the method of preparation. There are few higher authorities than Dr. Pereira.

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "the administration of the true quantity of the Gastric Juice is a prominent and all-pervading cause of Dyspepsia," and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding every thing else to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomach of living animals, which proved completely successful."
Dr. Graham, author of the famous work on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachic fluid, the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process of Man," (See & Blanchard, Phila., 1846, pp. 321-2): "The discovery of PEP SIN in the stomach of the calf, and its application to the cure of Dyspepsia, is one of the most remarkable events, curing, in the most marvellous manner, the most obstinate cases of Dyspepsia, Decline, and dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limit of this advertisement—but a few authentic certificates have been more than five hundred Remarkable Cures, in Philadelphia, New York, and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent."
It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to bilious disorder, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, or badly treated Fever and Ague, and the evil effects of Quinine, Mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive organs, after a long use. Also, for excesses in eating, and the too free use of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles Health with Intemperance.

OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS—There is no form of Old Stomach Complaints which it does not seem to reach and remove at once. No matter how bad they may be, it gives Instant Relief! A single dose removes all the unpleasant symptoms, and it only needs to be repeated, for a short time, to make the most permanent effects. Purify of Blood and Vigor of Body, follow at once. It is particularly excellent in cases of Nausea Vomiting, Cramps, Soreness of the pit of the Stomach, distress after eating, low, cold state of the Blood, Heaviness, Lowness of Spirits, Despondency, Emaciation, Weakness, tendency to Insanity, Suicide, &c.
Price, ONE DOLLAR per bottle. One bottle will often effect a lasting cure.

PEP SIN IN POWDERS.
Prepared by Mail Free of Postage.
For convenience of sending to all parts of the country, the 1-ounce Matter of Pepsin is put up in the form of Powders, with directions to be dissolved in water or syrup, by the patient. These powders contain just the same matter as the bottles, but twice the quantity for the same price, and will be sent by mail, Free of Postage, for One Dollar sent (post-paid) to Dr. J. S. Houghton, No. 11 North Eighth Street Philadelphia, Pa.
Six packages for five dollars. Every package and bottle bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., Sole Proprietor.
Sold by agents in every town in the United States, and by respectable dealers in Medicines generally.
Agents for Bloomsburg, JOHN R. MOYER, E. P. LUTZ.

This fluid is the Great solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the stomach, and it is without it that there is no digestion, no conversion of food into blood, and no nutrition of the body; but rather a foul, torpid, painful, and destructive condition of the whole digestive apparatus. A weak, diseased, or injured stomach, produces no good Gastric Juice, and hence the disease, distress and debility which ensue.

PEP SIN AND RENNET—Pepsin is the chief element, or great Digesting Principle, of the Gastric Juice. It is found in great abundance in the solid parts of the human stomach after death, and sometimes causes the stomach to digest itself, or eat itself up. It is also found in the stomach of animals, and is the material used by farmers in making cheese, called Rennet, the effect of which has long been the special wonder of the dairy. The curdling of milk is the first process of digestion. Rennet is the most powerful and efficient of all the curdling agents. The stomach of a calf will curdle nearly one thousand times its own weight of milk. Baron Liebig states that, "One part of Pepsin dissolved in sixty thousand parts of water, will digest meat as effectively as other fluids." Diseased stomachs produce no good Gastric Juice, or Pepsin. To show that this want may be perfectly supplied, we quote the following

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE!
Baron Liebig, in his celebrated work on animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, which various articles of food, as meat, and eggs, will not only digest, but digest in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."
Dr. Pereira, in his famous treatise on "Food and Diet," published by Fowlers & Wells, New York, page 25, states the same fact, and testifies the method of preparation. There are few higher authorities than Dr. Pereira.

Price Reduced!
VAUGHN'S LITHONATRIC MIXTURE!
Large Bottles—Only One Dollar.

The Proprietor of the Great American Remedy, "VAUGHN'S LITHONATRIC MIXTURE," induced by the urgent solicitations of his Agents, throughout the United States and Canada, to reduce the price of his medicine, to the amount of

ONE DOLLAR.
The Public may rest assured that the character of the Mixture, its strength, and curative properties will remain unaltered, and the same care will be bestowed in preparing the reduced price.

As the medicine, under its reduced price, will be purchased by those who have not hitherto made themselves acquainted with its virtues, the Proprietor would beg to intimate that his article is not to be closed with the usual amount of "Reminiscences of the Day," but to be filled with a greater volume of matter, than any other preparation now before the world; and has sustained itself for eight years, by its superior medical value, and, for its long and successful use, and the price of any other article in the market.

Many proofs are here given, and we solicit an inquiry from the public into this medicine, as it has never known its equal in perfectly reliable, and the medicine worthy their best confidence and patronage.
