Temperance Meeting. A Temperance meeting will be held at the Methodist church to-morrow, (Friday) evening, at early candle light. One or more addresses will be delivered, and the public are invited to attend.

A New Post Office has been established in Franklin township Montour county, and Lloyd Thomas appointed Postmaster. The address is Franklinville.

Mr. Beckley's speech on our first page will be read with interest by every person into whose hands our paper falls. It is full of sound views and treats of several new topics in the present political campaign.

A telegraphic dispatch from Easton, Northampton county, last evening, states that in the Democrat Convention, delegates in favor of Mr. BOCHANAN were elected, and resolutions in his favor for the Presidency were adopted.

The Telegraph is now extended from Danville to Northumberland, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Milton, and Muncy.

Court adjourned finally this morning. In Alabama Collier the secession candidate for Governor has been elected.

The following resolution was adopted by the Democratic meeting of the 11th inst. in this place. We omitted it last week only because we did not receive it until our form was put to press and corrected on Thursday morning.

Resolved, That the united thanks of this meeting be, and they are hereby tendered, to Messrs. BULLAN, BECKLEY, and FREEZE for their able, interesting and very eloquent addresses.

Last week we had Sartain's Union, this week we have Godey's Lady's Book, for September. It is a splendid number. "Sour Grapes," (a line engraving), "The Approaching Footstep," (a mezzotint), and "Cherry Ripe," (Fashion Plate), are very well executed. The contents are the productions of American authors—most the articles being from persons of known reputation.

A POLITICAL ANECDOTE.—The following anecdote of the late Gov. James Barbour, of Va., was told us by a gentleman who resides in the Piedmont region. Gov. Barbour was a candidate to represent his county in the State Legislature, and was opposed by Thomas Davis. The Governor, in his speech on the hustings, said: "Fellow citizens, I had the honor to represent my county for several years in the assembly of Virginia; I was for some years Governor of this ancient and venerable Commonwealth, I was for a considerable time a representative of this District in the Congress of the United States; I had, fellow citizens, at a subsequent period, the honor to hold a seat in the most august legislative body in the world—the Senate of the United States, at another period, I had the place of the Secretary of War Department in the administration of John Quincy Adams, and was afterwards Minister Plenipotentiary and Ambassador Extraordinary near the Court of St. James; and fellow citizens, you may picture to yourselves the humiliation that I feel at finding myself here to-day, engaged in a damned little pitiful county-convention with Tom Davis!"

By Telegraph. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19th, 1851. The Bulletin of this evening contains a sad and painful account which occurred on Sunday afternoon in New London, Chester county, Pa. During a thunder storm which passed over the place, the Rev. Jones Bisey had just concluded an excellent and eloquent sermon in the Methodist church when the lightning struck the building killing the Rev. gentleman in the pulpit, and stunning several of the congregation. One young man it was thought had been killed also, but after considerable exertions on the part of those present he was restored to consciousness. No damage was done to the building, except the breaking of some glass of the windows. After closing his discourse, Mr. Bisey was leaning on the Bible when the flash descended. Exertions were made to restore him, but the vital spark had fled. He leaves a wife and one or two children to mourn his loss.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20th, 1851. MARKETS.—Wheat dull. Cargoes sailing. Sales of three to four thousand bushels at 82 cents. 93 for old Penna. Nothing doing in groceries and provisions.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 19th. The river is rising here with four and a half feet in the channel. Weather pleasant. Gov. Johnston addressed on immense meeting in Allegheny county last evening. Twenty-five hundred passengers passed over the Ohio & Pennsylvania Rail Road last week; the business is increasing rapidly.

WARREN, Aug. 19th. The Brig Francis arrived at this port from Matanzas 8th inst. All was quiet. The Spanish troops have mostly left for the Eastern part of the island.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19th. The steamer Mary Queen of Charleston arrived this morning. She brings the first bale of new cotton.

Extracts from opinions of the Press. Sacred Scenes and Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley. This work may be very properly considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author. Its object is to illustrate and "render more life-like" the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible, but to excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history, doctrines, and laws; to know its truth to imbibe its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation; in a word, to prize in some measure as it deserves, this treasure which is indeed beyond price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works.

Rambles and Sketches.—By Rev. J. T. Headley. We have not for long time set down to a book with more pleasing anticipations, or found those anticipations more fully realized, than in the perusal of the work before us, and we know it will be hailed with gratification by the many admirers of the talented author. His "Sketches" are not "Marshall's" was, perhaps, as popular and found at least as many enthusiastic readers as any book that can be mentioned. We think the Rambles and Sketches are destined to be as popular as any of his previously published works, and we think it will be a long time before a work of this kind, filled as it is with "an infinite variety." The author has ample room and verge enough for the employment of his fine talents to great advantage, and most successfully he has accomplished the task. The biographical sketch of the author is interesting and well considered, and adds much to the value of the book, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher.—See Portland Transcript, Dec. 15th.

Mr. Headley is one of the most promising writers of this country, and we have here one of his best books—one which he can safely rest his fame. It possesses the fascinating charms of perfect simplicity and truth. There is graceful frankness pervading the composition, which engages the interest of the reader in the author as well as in the subject. His rambles about Rome, Paris and London exhibit a thousand traits of an ingenious nature, upon which a man of taste will delight to linger. We predict for this a sale equal to that of any of the author's works. (New York News.)

The collection is one of which no author need be ashamed. It contains, indeed, a highly finished compilation of those specimens of his abilities by which he may be judged with the greatest safety to his fame as a word-painter and thinker.

The above books will be forwarded to order at the prices mentioned, free of postage, to any part of the United States, on the receipt of orders, with the money. Money may be sent by mail at the risk. JOHN S. TAYLOR, Publisher, 143 Nassau st., New York.

ESSENCE OF COFFEE. ABOUT two years ago a new discovery was made in Europe, consisting of a substitute for the ordinary store coffee, called Essence of Coffee, which has gone into general use with astonishing rapidity, not only among the poorer classes, who at once discerned with the use of the celebrated Chickadee Coffee, but now in general use in the wealthiest families and the first hotels, and is highly recommended by the medical faculty.

It is extracted from pure, wholesome vegetables, and excels all similar preparations that have ever been offered to the public, either in this country or in Europe. Its superior quality has already been attested to in the cities by some of the most eminent physicians, and a number of the most distinguished of the clergy and other highly respectable citizens. Coffee made from this essence according to the prescription obtains a more delicious and pleasant flavor than the common store coffee, and is certainly more wholesome, especially for persons in delicate health, which will be admitted by every physician who will take the pains to test the nature and properties of this essence.

One paper costing only 125 cts. is equal to four pounds of store coffee, will be bright and clear without the application of any other ingredient to carry or settle it. The public are therefore invited to give this essence a trial before they condemn it. A respectable merchant of Luzerne county in writing of it says: "My customers have been using of the above Essence for some months past with general satisfaction, and do not hesitate to recommend it to the public."

Sir:—The act passed the tenth day of April, 1835, authorizing the graduation and valuation of the unpatented lands in this Commonwealth, by the Commissioners of the several counties, and which has been extended from time to time by supplementary acts, expires on the tenth day of December, 1851 (see Pamphlet Laws, 1847, page 38,) after which time, no abatement of any interest can be made on the purchase money due on such lands. I have, therefore, conceived it to be my duty to give this notice to all the County Surveyors. You will take such measures as you may deem proper to cause the owners of such lands to be notified of a law which favors those who own unpatented lands very much.

There is no appropriation made to defray the expenses of publishing this notice in the different counties, or else I should have taken that method of giving notice in the newspapers. J. PORTER BRADLEY, Surveyor Gen.
