THE NOMINATIONS.

We give this week, at length, the pro-ceedings of the Democratic County Con-vention of Monday last, and of the Representative Conference of yesterony, at Catta-wissa. We have neither time nor room for many comments, but will hereafter speak of the nominations in detail. The ticket is be-fore the people of the county; let it be supsentative Conference of yesterday, at Catta ported from top to bottom with energy and in good faith to the party and its organiza-The men whose names are upon the tion. The men whose names are upon the ticket deserve support from their position as regular nominees, and must all be triumphantly elected.

M. E. Jackson Esq.

This gentleman, who has just been nomi-nated for Assembly, will be elected by a heavy majority and will be an able and faithful representative of the people. He has not pushed himself forward, nor intrigued in any direction or with any interest, and can therefore defy all assaults or cavil with reference to his nomination. He deserves a hearty support, and will receive it.
