The Union Looks to Pennsylvania.

Napoleon, in the far-off deserts of Egypt, told his soldiers that from the Pyramids centuries looked down upon their actions, and applauded their bravery. That was a contest to gratify Ambition and, it may be, to rescue from barbarism regions that belonged to civilization. In the present canvass, the American Union looks to Pennsylvania, and we shall have to decide for the Union on the 14th of October. It is a great duty to devolve upon i ny State ; but old Pennsylvania will be worthy of her position.

The Whig Judicial Conferees of this district met last week and decided it inexpe dient to nominate a candidate for Presiden

LITERARY WEEKLY JOURNAL. GLEASON'S PICTORIAL DRAWING-ROOM COMPANIOM.

A Record of the beautiful and useful in Art The object of this paper is to present, in the most elegant and available form, a weekly literary melange of notable events of the day. Its columns are devoted to original tales, sketches and poems, by the BEST AMERICAN AUTHORS, and the cream of the domestic and foreign news; the whole well spiced with wit and humor. Each paper is with numerous accurate engravings, by emment artists, of notable objects, current events in all parts of the world, and of men and manners, altogether making a paper entirely original in its design, in this country. Its pages contain views of every populous city in the known world, of all buildings of note in the eastern or western hemispheres, of all the principal ships and steamers of the navy and merchant service, with fine and accurate portraits of every noted character in the world, both male and female. Sketches of beautiful scenery, taken from life, will also be given, with numerous specimens from the animal kingdom, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea. It is printed on the finest paper, and with a font of beautiful brevier type, of the most modern style, manufactured expressly ror it, presenting in its mechanical execution on an elegant specimen of art. It contains fifteen hundred and sixty-four square inches, and sixty-four columns of reading matter and illustrations—a manfour square inches, and sixty-four columns of reading matter and illustrations—a mammoth weekly paper of sixteen octavo pages. It forms

SURVEYON GENERAL'S OFFICE OF PA. June 30, 1851.

SOLOMON NEVIARD, Esquire, Surveyor of the County of Columbia:

Sir.—The act passed the tenth day of April, 1835, authorizing the graduation and valuation of the unpatented lands in this Commonwealth, by the Commissioners of the several counties, and which has been extended from time to time by supplemenary acts, expites on the tenth day of December, 1851 (see Pamphlet Laws, 1849, page 38.) after which time no abatement of any interest can be made on the purchase money due on such lands. I have, therefore conceived it to be my duty to give this notice to all the County Surveyors. You will take such measures as you may deem but notice to all the County Surveyors. You will take such measures as you may deem proper to creulate this fact, in order that those interested may avail themselves of the benefit of a law which favors those who own unpatented lands very much.

There is no appropriation made to defray the expenses of publishing this notice in the different counties, or else I should have taken that method of giving notice in the newspapers.

Very respectfully yours,

J. PORTER BRAWLEY, Surveyor Gen.

Sucred Scenes and Characters—By the Rev.
J. T. Headley. This work may be very properly considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author. Its object is to illustrate and "trender more life-like" the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and per-

Ecr Spring and Summer.

W.M. M. KISILYY & GOO Have just received and opened a large assortment of new spring and summer goods, which they offer to their old customers and new ones at the lowest prices. Their stock is large, and selected to suit wants of this region of country. It comprises every thing of DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, HARDWARE-QUEENSWARE, CEDAR-WARE, HATS, CAPS, BOOTS AND SMOES; and those who have long patronised them are the best judges of their mode of doing business; and the long continued confidence of the commmunity is the best recommendation they can offer to new parcels from the city, nearly every week during the summer.
