THE CHRISTIAN STATESMAN.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER. Devoted to African Colonization and Civilization, to Literature and General Intelligence.

THE undersigned propose to publish, in the City of Washington, a weekly newspaper, bearing the above title, and dedicated to a sound morality in Politics, to the Union of the States, to the cause of African Colonization and Civilization, and to all topics of a high and general interest to their country.

They will endeavor to improve upon the People and Government of the United States and of the several States the importance of colonizing in Africa, with their own consent, the free people of color of this country and such as may become free. They will communicate to the public all important information they may obtain in regard to the Geography, Exploration, Resources, Commerce and Population of Africa; the state of the Slave Trade, and the measures best adapted for its suppression; and will endeavor to diffuse among all Christian denominations in efforts to diffuse the knowledge of our Arts, Liberty, and Christianity, among the barbarous people of the Continent.

They will also render the journal an instructive and useful Family Newspaper, and to secure for its columns, as the public pressure shall enable them, contributions, literary and scientific, of decided merit.

The size of the Home Journal will be of the size of the Home Journal, and will exceed in size the Intelligence of the Union of this city; and, with but few advertisements, will be nearly filled with matter designed to be of interest to its readers.

It will be printed with news on fine white paper, and in mechanical execution be equal to the best newspapers in the country.

Terms.—The Christian Statesman will be two dollars a year, payable in advance. Postmasters or others, who may be pleased to act as voluntary agents, will be responsible to those who may pay over to them subscriptions; and to the order of such agents or any who may make remittances for the Christian Statesman, it will be supplied on the following terms:

Blackwood's Magazine, AND THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

OWING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest heretofore unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical—"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British" is of a more unknown degree of interest heretofore unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

For any one of the four Reviews, $3 00 per annum.
For any two, 5 00 " "
For any three, 7 00 " "
For all four of the Reviews, 8 00 " "
For Blackwood's Magazine, 8 00 " "
For Blackwood and three Reviews, 3 00 " "
For Blackwood and four Reviews, 4 00 " "

Payments to be made in all cases in advance. Remittances and communications should be always addressed, post paid or franked, the Publishers.
