Religious Denominations.

According to an estimate made by one of the Professors of Hamilton College, the number of members of the different religious denominations in this country stand pretty much as follows:

Catholics,	1,131,300	Unitarians,	34,00
Methodists,	1,215,069	Baptist,	1,215,620
Presbyterians,	495,083	Friends,	50,000
Universalists,	325,000	Episcopali's	67,540

Hard Times in New York.

By an estimate in the Herald, it is shown that not less than twenty thousand people, on an average, nightly visit the theatres and other places of public amusement in that city. The cost of admission to these places of amusement is not less than between ten and twelve thousand dollars nightly, or about seventy thousand dollars a week.

Ohio Grects Pennsylvania.

Ohio voted on the same day with us, and the Democrats there have achieved an equally decisive victory. Reuben Wood, Dem., is elected Governor by not less than 15,000 majority, and the Democrats have in all probability secured a majority on joint ballot in the Legislature.

Folly and Fanaticism.

Digging for Treasure.—A crowd of men and boys were gathered about the ramparts of the old French Fort, on the west side yesterday afternoon, and again this morning. It seems the farce of digging for treasure is again in operation there, with the aid of what the boys call a "witch." This has produced the interest, and called together an amused crowd. A young girl, apparently 14 years of age, said to have seen this treasure in a mesmeric sleep in Albany, is on the ground. She sits upon the bank of a deep excavation, and while working the men are not permitted to speak, she issuing her directions in writing. Preparatory to the commencement of the work, the girl (in Bloomer costume) with solemn gravity walks round the edge of the excavation three times, and at a given signal the men fall to digging. The whole scene is one bordering largely on the ridiculous, but strongly marked by gullibility. A police officer was present yesterday to preserve order To-day the number of spectators is largely increased, in consequence of the presence of the sight-seeing young miss, who directs, with the aid of her mesmeric eye, exactly where the treasure is buried.—Oswego Journal.

More Threatened Secession.—The citizens of Dade county, Georgia, acting upon the example of their disunion Governor, at a late meeting resolved that, if Georgia secedes from the Union, they will secede from Georgia. The merit of the resolve is mostly contained in the fact that Dade county is naturally separated from the rest of Georgia by a range of mountains, and her citizens could annex themselves to Tennessee, upon which State they border, without any difficulty whatever.

CIRCULAR.

Surveyor General's Office of Pa.
June 30, 1851.

Solomon Neyhard, Esquire, Surveyor of the County of Columbia:

Sir:—The act passed the tenth day of April, 1835, authorizing the graduation and valuation of the unpatented lands in this Commonwealth, by the Commissioners of the several counties, and which has been extended from time to time by supplementary acts, expires on the tenth day of December, 1851 (see Pamphlet Laws, 1849, page 38,) after which time no abatement of any interest can be made on the purchase money due on such lands. I have, therefore conceived it to be my duty to give this notice to all the County Surveyors. You will take such measures as you may deem proper to circulate this fact, in order that those interested may avail themselves of the benefit of a law which favors those who own unpatented lands very much.

There is no appropriation made to defray the expenses of publishing this notice in the different counties, or else I should have taken that method of giving notice in the newspapers.

Very respectfuly yours,
J. PORTER BRAWLEY, Surveyor Gen.

A SERIES OF ORIGINAL DESIGNS FOR

Cottages, Villas, Suburban Residences, Country Churches, School Houses, &c., &c., &c.

BY SAMUEL SLOAN, Arch't.

The above work is designed to meet the wishes not only of those directly interested in building, but all who desire the advancement of this noble art in our country, and wish to cultivate their tastes and acquaintance with architecture. The work, in two volumes of twelve numbers each, to be issued monthly until complete. Each number contains four lithograph engravings of original designs, costing from $800 to $1400. There are also 4 sheets of details accompanying the designs, comprising grand plans, &c. Besides this, each number contains eight pages of letter press, descriptive of the designs, giving extended accounts of the various styles adopted, essays on warming, ventilation, &c., elaborate specifications, estimates tables, and in short everything desirable, either for construction or for general information, in beautiful type: the whole being executed on the very finest paper, manufactured, expressly for the work.

Sacred Scenes and Characters—By the Rev. J. T. Headley. This work may be very properly considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author. Its object is to illustrate and "render more life-like" the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history, doctrines and laws; to know its truth to imbibe its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation; in a word, to prize in some measure as it deserves, this treasure which is indeed beyond price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works.

[The News, Jan. 7th.

Rambles and Sketches—By Rev. J. T. Headley. We have not for a long time sat down to a book with more pleasing anticipations, or found those anticipations more fully realized, than in the perusal of the work before us, and we know it will be hailed with gratification by the many admirers of the talented author. His "Napoleon and his Marshals" was, perhaps, as popular and found at least as many enthusiastic readers as any book that can be mentioned. We think the Rambles and Sketches are destined to be as popular at least as any of his previously published works. There is not a dull chapter in the work, filled as it is with "an infinite variety." The author has ample room and verge enough for the employment of his fine talents to great advantage, and most successfully has he accomplished the task. The biographical sketch of the author is interesting and "well considered," and adds much to the value of the book, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher.—See Portland Transcript, Dec. 15th.

Mr. Headley is one of themost promising writers of this country, and we have here one of his best books—one on which he can safely rest his fame. It possesses the unfatiguing charms of perfect simplicity and truth. There is graceful frankness pervading the composition, which engages the interest of the reader in the author as well as in the subject. His rambles about Rome, Paris and London exhibit a thousand traits of an ingenuous nature, upon which a man of taste will delight to linger. We predict for this a sale equal to that of any of the author's works.

[New York News.

The collection is one of which no author need be ashamed. It consists, indeed, of some of Mr. Headley's most brilliant and highly finished compositions of those specimens of his abilities by which he may be judged with the greatest safety to his fame as a word-painter and thinker. [New York Tribune.

The Christian Statesman.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

Devoted to African Colonization and Civilization, to Literature and General Intelligence.

THE undersigned propose to publish, in the City of Washington, a weekly newspaper, bearing the above title, and dedicated to a sound morality in Politics, to the Union of the States, to the cause of African Colonization and Civilization, and to all topics of a high and general interest to their country and mankind. They will endeavor to impress upon the People and Government of the United States and of the several States the importance of colonizing in Africa, with their own consent, the free people of color of this country and such as may become free. They will communicate to the public all important information they may obtain in regard to the Geography, Exploration, Resources, Commerce and Population of Africa; the state of the Slave Trade, and the measures best adapted for its suppression; and will enforce the duty of union among all Christian denominations in efforts to diffuse the knowledge of our Arts, Liberty, and Christianity, among the barbarous people of that Continent.

They will aim to render the journal an instructive and useful Family Newspaper, and to secure for its columns, as the public favor shall enable them, contributions, literary and scientific, of decided merit.

The Christian Statesman will be of the size of the Home Journal or National Era, and exceed in size the Intelligencer or the Union of this city; and, with but few advertisements, will be nearly filled with matter designed to be of interest to its readers.

It will be printed with new type, on fine white paper, and, in mechanical execution, be equal to the best newspapers in the country.

Terms—The Christian Statesman will be two dollars a year, papable in advance.

Postmasters or others, who may be pleased to act as voluntary agents, will be responsible to those who may pay over to them subscriptions; and to the order of such agents, or to any who may make remittances for the Christian Statesman, it will be supplied on the following terms:

Single copy for one year	$2 00
Single copy for six months	1 00
Three copies for one year	5 00
Six copies for one year	10 00
Twenty copies for one year	30 00
Twenty copies for six months	15 00

The first number of this paper may be expected to appear early in August, and it is desired that those who are disposed to further its great objects, by their patronage, should indicate their wishes before that time. Orders and communications, addressed (post paid) to Gurley & Goodloe, will receive immediate attention

Blackwood's Magazine,

AND THE

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

OWING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest heretofore unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The London Quarterly Review,
The Edinburgh Review,
The North British Review,
The Westminster Review, and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical. "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge: It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and
