

The New-York Tribune was first issued as a small Daily paper, in April, 1841: its Weekly and Semi-Weekly editions are of more recent origin. It commenced with a few hundred subscribers and slender prospects of patronage or aid of any kind; it has now Seventy Thousand subscribers for or constant purchasers of its regular issues, (a larger circulation than was ever attained by any other Political journal.) with an extensive Advertising business, ample materials and facilities, and an income, which is abundantly satisfactory to its publishers. These facts are recapitulated in a spirit of heartfelt gratitude to that wide American public by which its faults have been so tenderly regarded and its merits so generously acknowledged.

The Tribune is preeminently a newspaper. Its first aim is to present a lucid and accurate panorama of the living world around us. Whatever importance its Editors may attach to their own opinions, they deem it of still greater moment that their readers shall be supplied with all data essential to the formation of correct opinions for themselves. Hence special attention is given to reliable Correspondence from the most important points throughout the world, while the Electric Telegraph is largely employed in the procurement of the earliest tidings of transpiring events. When news presses upon our columns, Editorials as well as Contributions habitually stand back. One of the Editors and Proprietors (Bayard Taylor) has just started on a journey of observation in the interest of the paper by way of the Danube and the Levant to the recently discovered Ruins of Nineveh and there to Upper Egypt and the sources of the Nile. His letters will appear in our columns throughout the ensuing year. We shall endeavor to be surpassed by no other journal in the ability and accuracy of our Correspondence and Reports from Washington during the Long Session now approaching. So with other capitals whence important advices may be expected. We are able to pay for early intelligence worthily by way of the Danube, and we pay for paper alone more than half of all we receive from subscribers and purchasers, and that, but for Advertisements, our annual expenditures would exceed our receipts by many thousands of dollars. A copy of our Weekly or Semi-Weekly contains an amount of matter (which has all cost us money or labor) equal to the contents of a fair average volume, for which a majority of our subscribers (in clubs) pay no more than two cents. Whenever it shall be possible to print a better paper for that sum, we shall endeavor to be among the first to adopt the improvement. And, while we respectively solicit subscriptions and the aid of our friends in procuring them, we do not desire the money of any who consider our paper less than its cost.

Philadelphian's ESSENCE OF COFFEE.
ABOUT two years ago a new discovery was made in Europe, consisting of a substitute for the ordinary store coffee, called Essence of Coffee, which has gone into general use with astonishing rapidity, not only among the poorer classes, who at once dispensed with the use of the celebrated Chickory Coffee, but is in general use in the wealthiest families and the first hotels, and is highly recommended by the medical faculty.
It is extracted from pure, wholesome vegetables, and exceeds all similar preparations that have ever been offered to the public, either in this country or in Europe. Its superior quality has already been attested to in the cities by some of the most distinguished of the clergy and other highly respectable citizens. Copies of the above Essence, according to the prescription obtains a more delicious and pleasant favor than the common store coffee, and is certainly more wholesome, especially for persons in delicate health, which will be admitted by every physician who will take the pains to test the nature and properties of this essence.
One paper costing only 12 1/2 cts., is equal to four pounds of store coffee, will be light and clear without the application of any other ingredient to clarify or settle it. The public are therefore invited to give this essence at least a trial before they condemn it.
A respectable merchant of Luzerne county, in writing of it says:
"My customers have been using of the above Essence for some months past with general satisfaction, and I do not hesitate to recommend it to the public."
