Massachusetts] Special Election BOSTON, Nov. 24 .- The Special Electic for Representatives in the various towns where there was no choice on the 10, came off to-day. The following is the result, a far as known : In Lowell, six Coalitionist and one Whig were elected; three, no choice. In Springfield, the Whigs elected the whole ticket of four representatives, by forty to fifty majority. The Hunkers and Free Soilers coalesced.

[SECOND DESPATCH.] Boston, Nov. 24, 10, P. M.—The Demo-crats have nominated A. W. Thaxter for Mayor. Farty-four towns heard from give the Co alitionists 34, and Whigs 14.

[THIRD DESPATCH.] Boston, Nov. 24, 11, P. M.-The return from 55 towns show that 35 Coalitionists and 21 Whigs have been elected. Twentyseven, no choice. Twenty-one towns yet to be heard from. The chances are that the Coalitionists have a small majority in the House, securing the re-election of Boutwell as Governor.

Another Terrible Accident.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24 .- This afternoon the wall of a brewery, adjoining the blacksmith shop, attached to the manufactory of R. Hoe & Co., fell, crushing in the roof of the shop, and killing two men, named Mackay and Brown, who were employed in the shop and injuring a number of others. It is fea ed that others are buried in the ruins.

Lonisianta Election.

NEW ORLEANS. Nov. 30 .- The Democra have probably elected their Auditor by 400 majority. The Senate is a tie ; in the Hous 8 Whig majority.
