VOLUME 6.

BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1854.

NUMBER 6.

THE STAR OF THE NORTH In published every Thursday Liorning, by R. W. WEAVER.

& HICE-Up stairs, in the new brick building on the south side of Main street, third square below Market.

square below Market.

Trans:—Two Dollars per annum, if paid within six months from the time of subscribing; two dollars and fifty cents if not paid within the year. No subscription received for a less period than six months: no discontinuance permitted until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the editor.

Appearisements not exceeding one square will be inserted three times for one dollar, and twenty-five cents for each additional insertion. A liberal discount will be made to hose who advertise by the year.

SINILIPOTIND IP OINTING

The Bride's New Home

Far from childhood's sunny bowers,
A new home meets the tair Young Bride;
New dunies claiming now the hours,
And stranger scenes on every side.
But when the twilight hour was come,
And Memory's holiest depths are stirred,
Bees she not then the dear old home,
Where late her voice and steps were heard?

And thinks she not of childhood's dreams,
That thrilled her with their witching spell
Of youth's more wild romantic schemes
She loved to foster all so well?
And sees she not those absent friends
Who miss the dear one gone from them,
With each of whom some memory blends,
Now treasured as a priceless gem?

But the deep sense of fonctioness.
That weighs so heavily on the soul,
When thoughts like these upon her press,
Yields to affection's sweet control—
That strong affection which incites To almost any sacrifice, Which is to those whom it unites, An antepast of Paradisc.

The Bride's New Home! Religion there Should ever have her sacred shrine, And morning praise, and evening prayer Be breathed tor every gift divine. Poor human lare will never wane, Nor idolize its objects here, Where piety both reared a fane, And the heart offering is sincere.

The Bride's New Home ! Teace be within The Bride's New Home! Peace be with And every hallowed grace em Joyed; A mother's prayer an answer win; A father's blessing full enjoyed; A sister's wishes realized; A brother's hopes fulfilment find; Kach dear friend's benediction prized, And all with odorous thoughts the mind.

The Bride's New Home! Let music wake Her sonl-entraneing measure there,
And melaucholy's dirige ne'er break in darkling cadence on its air.
Let Love's perfume its hall pervade,
That echo but to genile words.
So shall the Bride's New Home be made,
The fairest dwelling earth affords.

MUSCIELLANIEOUS,

THE CONTAMINATION OF EVIL.

The religious papers that lately praised the "Hot corn" skeiches are recanting very fast. Among these is the New York Inde-Beecher in manly frankness retracts what he had said for the book, and follows with some baseless and depravity are in question, cowter in the most respectable weekly and daily newspapers full as bad as this of "Hot Con-?"

What if Mr. Robinson should plead in this whe; "If I have been t istaken in my baseless and depravity are in question, cowter in the most respectable weekly and daily honesty and miegrity; to which may be added decision, firmness, courage and persevethings a mere contact with which defiles like pitch, burns like coals. The monstrons ingenuities of passions, the hiddeous charms obstacless which cannot be overcome—he goes strait abed in one nortons manner fully encourages such anticipations:—"The whe; "If I have been t istaken in my judgment in the proper materials for such a work, I was parily misled by religious papers and respectable dailies. Neither of them seem to have much delicacy m serving food for an appetite for the hortible. Murders are registered in all their frightful destroyed it.

A love of pusity is better to the years of many parity misled by religious pant. And in a few years such a local stant that years cannot cleanse. The field encounages such annicipations:—"The fully encounages such annicipations:—"The fully encounages such annicipations:—"The fully encounages such annicipations:—"The whole in a fully encounages such annicipations:—"The fully encounages such annicipations:—"The fully encounages such annicipations:—"The whole it is a the strongest? Necessity—be constant of many for the served to moor the cance and the boat, and as it laughs at time and distance, seems to young man almost as if by magic. Confi-lettle less B-b trakes his discourse uto short bits, like children do dere candy wen with a sit laughs at time and distance, seems to yould from its taunts at the tradiness of the young to use the most constant of all things? What is the strongest? Necessity—be constant to the warrent of each was in a deway tro': so do Triss Lucy, only a leed less B-b trakes his discourse uto short bits, like children do dere candy wen with a sit laughs at time and distance, seems to young on a sit laughs at time and distance, seems to young from a sit laughs at time and distance, seems to young to use the post of them. What is the errongest? I he goes strait shed in one of trous and the way tro': so do Triss Lucy, only a like it makes men face all the boat, and set of them, and the way tro': so do Triss Lucy, only a like it makes men face all the boat, and itse it makes men face all the day of his, all was to use to the young trous destructions.

Friends spring to ever to the cance and the boat, and itse it makes men face all the way tro': so do Triss Lucy, only and a taint that years cannot but morbid appetites can endure, are set down as conscientiously in many religious papers, as are pious anecdotes and pious expts. The tricks of knaves are spread out, of reformation. of counterfeiters, burg lars, and swindlers, in respectable dailies, of sharpen young wits against the fime of need. The police reports are not over delicate. And the record of criminal trials, the testimony, the speeches &c., are worse often, by far than anything in my book. There is enough matter in the news-department of our best and soberest city dailies to make several annual volumes of the size of "Hot Corn," and not a whit more refined or moral " What shall be said creature, Madame Restell, and say if there And it is not a thing so easy as most per ing in "Hot Corn" a whit worse .--Let any one refresh his memory with the a guise as to excite horror and disgust only. est Divorce Case, and then say whether all ture in a writer, to overbear that infectious But as a question for surprise and in the ad- appetites, in circumstances designedly ar- king of his riches. of blame. partiality amounts to

Then it suddenly comes up with rush and pathy with evil, at least so far as to give it roar and nothing can stand before it. It soon vitality and inspiration. The only part of the Narrows.

of indigration, forevarning of storms. It is very lax or very rigid. It is all toleration or all persecution. Frome while it coose with dove-like sentimentality among the branches, harmless and gentle. Then, with

Now we have no desire to excuse the imbefore the very papers that are most repre-hensory will give columns of news about a brutal prize-fight; the horrible details of barbarous crimes; and the variegated moral-ity of region invites in the variegated morality of police justice; and the loa.hesome testimony of all the intrigues and familiarities that lead to jealousies, which, in turn, lead to assassinations, or worse, to divorce cases, which for months gorge the papers with prurient details and morbid excite-more serious attention, than the use to be circulation, even it the wound through made of the morbid anatomy of the human heart in efforts to reform the heart.

of natural laws. We do not on that account however, put treatises of morbid anatomy, Morbid curiosities cannot be rubbed out eral years, sermonizing on different topics; nor reports of hospital cases into our children and the soul like chalk-marks from a black-for dough she am a little bersef, her heart board. There may be a benefit in a guarded revelation of the fruits of vice.—

book burned; but the impressions which no doubt, dat de poet san dere were traits of beautiful monsters, or to shock refined sensibility with a wearisome abund-rid light, in every darker hour of templa. But I will say, as a kin-know-shure, dat she ance of vulgarities that roll their thick and ti turbid streams in the "dismal swamps" of Society.

"But are not such things true \text{?" What if they are? Is every thing that is true and hideous a necessary moral remedy?

tself. Yet you would think it wise to walk with his children through the fires of Moloch things?" If known at all it should by the professional men. The general public are not fit recipients for such matter.

It may put a few upon their guard, but i will probably but ten times as many off from their guard. It may protect single cases come away plucked and ruined.

They will go into brilliant saloous life and will come away having felt it; obpendent, in which the Rev. Henry Ward rervation will quickly change experience, servation will quickly change experience, and the knowledge of good and evil will to for all right-minded young men in this be had by plucking the forbidden fruit, country, that though they may not be able to gaged in de same perfession as mysef, name-servants—men and maids—the men in full all without, the least hesitation, and how than a horror of vice. We must remedy vice niary means; ere long our young friend cloak ob wisdom. I don't mean wrapped exorable progress is on his heels, and neithby anticipating it. At least this is true in so stands foremost, the honored, far as we employ public sentiment as a means loved. Would that we could induce every dress she has on purpose dat no one shall from an inevitable destiny, that, after having amount of foolish discussion and false, sen-these rainbow tints that mark its inception, that we must hope to interfere successfully Where rottenness takes hold, remedy is hope-

To justify the gross exposure of gross be ferried over along with the other ghosts. Stone as well as de rest. Don't I scenes, in the expectation of saving the Charon demanded his fare, and was surprised quick, an' don't praise too much young by them, is an extremely dangerous to see the miser, rather than pay it, thing. If, in attempting it, the subscriber sac- himself into the river and swim to the othceeds in describing the evils only so as to in- or side, notwithstanding all the clamor and to this? Is it so or not? Let any one read fluence the curiosity, or the passions, then opposition that could be made to him. he has himself induced the very peril which in this week, of Tuesday Feb. 14, the abom. he sought to cure. He is a Tempter under of the judges was meditating some punishthe name of a Mentor.

sons think to describe guilty pleasure in st It requires a very deep and strong moral na ion should be concentra- excitement which arises from the portraiture on "Hot Corn"! Evil is no less evil of victorious passions. A man who can severer punishment. Let him be sent back conceive and portray the rage or sport of the | to the earth, to see the use his heirs are ma iged to produce fascination, will, ex The fact is, that public virtue, like mountain bis style a fire, an electric quality which will tain brooks is isbject to great caprices. At prove, that, unknown to himself, the writer, he be of an unusual religious nature, lend to during the period of composition was in sym and instantly sink along the barometric scale | genius, which obliges the reader to receive out warning, as some long allowed evil hap-pens to be passing as usual beneath its eye, the eye tosses it to the imagination—the impens to be passing as usual beneath its eye, its eye tosses it to the imagination—the imagination beneather upon it like an anaconda, and with mighty convolutions and convulsive strictures, crashes the victim. Gorged and sated, it lies stupid thereafter, harmless to any mischief that sports around it.

Besides, a work must be eminently one of your duty, and you will know your value.

Nowe to be passing as usual beneath its eye, the eye tosses it to the imagination—the imagination is given by the imagination in the imagination in the imagination is given by the imagination breather upon it of the feelings, and they in turn add to see the flower upon flower, until the product no more resembles the original element, than a full-blossomed flower, the seed that gave it birth. Hence, the best things may be sug-Now we have no desire to excuse the improprieties of "Hot Corn"; but we shall look with some interest to see how long this vigilance of purity will last—how long turn innocence itself and mischief. How ture is forgotten. It is a stab that both cuts There is not another subject worthy of and poisons, and the poison goes into the has an element of mischief lurking within it,

But that certainly does not require one to they made are phosphorescent pictures in open all the dens of infamy, to limit the portion the mind, that in the daylight of virtue are. She am small, as I said before, an' to ble persons of an emotive and imaginative tem-per; and of all persons who, cultivated in-kin' de golden mean, an' mity mean I tick gitimate aim for their feelings, but surrounded by affluence, seek in their own reveries

''Is not the delineation true to nature and ded by affluence, seek in their own reveries

I'm not theral 'nuff. I only say dat she carries de idea 'bout four inches to far. It am is tillage

It was difficult to cultivate it in a tillage ries the torch of lust in its hand, it re-enacts however unintentionally, the part of the auhomever unintentionally, the part of the auhomever unintentionally, the part of the auhomever unintentionally, the part of the auhandles stickin out ob de rong end.

Dere is orders opposed is dress behase it specing under the fifth rib, while engaged in makes Broadway less interes in on a rainy the friendly act of enquiring "How is it with day. Dar's sum ob my kungregashur, as where the best cheese was made—Clashire the subject emphatically declaring that he sights to be seen in our great cities. They icine, however honestly given, does not alwine and ways do that which was wished, and often said four inches an' I shall maintain dere igant wife either, nor an ornament about her has a mind of its own which, when once cause long—as long as—as long as de kon—yes, a single bracelet clesps a fair round-expressed cannot be recalled.

—yes, a single bracelet clesps a fair round-ed arm—that's all.! The train stopped at e expressed cannot be recalled.

CAPITAL FOR TAE YOUNG .- It is a copsolabad said for the book, and follows with some very good common-sense remarks on the contamination of evil, which we are pleased to copy and endorse.

While men are righting themselves, and guiding back again those whom they have miled, may there not be danger of an univese concentration of the public attention? Have not the public been patient of printed matters and covardice, when the public been patient of printed matters and covardice and covardice. There are leasted to copy and endorse.

be had by plucking the forbidden fruit, and expatitation from the paradise of purples of the public attention. This is a woman in the public attention of the paradise of purples of the public attention? Have the public attention? Have been patient of printed matters and covardice and covar

A miser being dead and fairly interred. came to the banks of the Styx, desiring to

All Tartarus was in an uproar; and each ment suitable to a crime of such dangerous consequences to the infernal revenues

"Shall he be chained to the rock along with Prometheus? or tremble below the precipice in company with the Danaides? or assist Sisyphus in rolling his stone 3" "No," said Minos, "we must invent some

Monseignor Bedini, the Popes Nuncio was not known, and his friends put him on board a small steamer at Staten Island from

The public conscience the evil. Goodness will be flat, and vice Let How can I come to know myself?—

From the N. Y. Picayane.
PROF. JULIUS CÆSAR HANNIBAL'S
Scientific Lectures.

SPECTED BRUDDERN AND SISTERN-

De subjick ob my torts dis week, an' ob de 'scorse I intend to deliber to you dis e-benin,' am no easy one. Foolosofers hab made rules an' regitations for understandin' glish lady, in going up in the Express train most kreated tings, but wedder de subjick ob my 'scorse am a kreated ting or not, am chace 'em roun' an', roun' widout enny

De subjick ob dis lecture, as I said before-would look much better ef her taste would This is peculiarly the danger of youth, of not let her ware sumfin' atween a genlman' When, therefore a book which professes hansum as dey kin' as well as comfortable;

"But most not come one know these to have for its end the extinction of vice carlooks like a Dutch churn wid two werry stout wheat lands.'

their goard. It may protect single cases from the wiles of the destroyer; it will educate still more to become wily destroyer.

It will stir up the sediments of a prurient curiosity among the young. They regard the depths of society as among the directly the reverse. But a book, like medicate still more to be found and the friendly act of enquiring "How is twith the friendly act of enquiring "For is the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pears with the friendly act of enquiring "Goals" (All 'pear Lucy hab her faif biwided into four quarters York; no sooner had my travelling com- of the wise men of Greece, proposed to him trusted and up in de l'ectionate way. She wates de er his strength nor his spirit may save him youthful reader to commence life on the fall in lub wid her, as she knows dere won't lived his age, he too will have a conquerer sumfin not good in obbery one-in Lucy era as undreamed of in the present as the to the Stone as well as de rest. Don't kendem too present has been in the past.'

A Temperance Man.

West, a Cincinnati monthly :

He received for answer, the timber for sale and want the money, but of the forest decorate the majestic oak no man shall purchase a single stave of me for that purpose.

in the back to mest such a stern reproach, are reunited beyond the limits of the tomb." got mad and called him a 'nigger.'

board a small steamer at Staten Island from which he was received by the Atlantic in the Narrows.

That is very true, mildly replied the other.

The time and and called him a "nigger.'

That is very true, mildly replied the other.

The time and and called him a "nigger.'

That is very true, mildly replied the other.

The time and and called him a "nigger.'

That is very true, mildly replied the other.

The time and and called him a "nigger.'

That is very true, mildly replied the other.

The time and and called him a "nigger.'

That is very true, mildly replied the other.

The time and and called him a "nigger.'

That is very true, mildly replied the other.

The time and and called him a "nigger.'

That is very true, mildly replied the other.

The time and and called him a "nigger.'

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8 inches square, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8 inches square, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

A box 8 inches by 8-4 inches aquare, and the contain one peck.

ENGLISH LADIES.

The following is from Mr. Holcomb's adciety :

As showing the interest English ladies glish lady, in going up in the Express train from London to York. Her husband had bought a book at the stand as we were about yet an undecided question. Dis eubjick am LUCY STONE. Starting, and remarked to her that "it was one of her favorite American Authors— LUCY STONE.

De kwestion stands dus—am Lucy Stone a Hawthorn." I casually observed, "I was be awestion stands dus—am Lucy Stone a strong minded woman? Most foolosofers di-wide de human specie into men and women but make no perwision for de strong mind-ed ones. Deg say dey are not a genewine ors. But! said to rayel pretty soon, "this ed ones. I Dey say dey are not a genewine specie—but begue. Odders again diwides de human race ille goldrense, workin man an higgars. But neider dem makes enny menshun ob dis klass. Konsekwense is, we must s'spose dey is not a kreated bein,' but sumfin' made. We puts 'em long wid de tings hard to understand,' an' rather ongreeable to look at, like Gypsum mummies and great pieters. Not dat dey looks exactly like mammies—contrary, some would be kwite well lookin' ef dey dressed eider like men well lookin' ef dey dressed eider like men or women, an' didn't let dere single idea chare 'em roun' an' roun' widoat enny mor fault this season, as the seeding was late;' 'those drills,' she added, turning to her husband for his confirmation, 'cannot be has an element of mischief lurking within it, ready to start up on every temptation, and miscrices of disease is a motive to obedience of natural laws. We do not on that account however, put treatises of more than to more than to me than to me than to me inches apart, and you see, sir, the ground is not completely covered—a Stone to be a hard subjick. Miss Lucy hab takin' to public speakin' now for sebthe ground is not completely covered—twelve, and eleven inches is now preferred for the width of drills, and two bushels of seed to the acre will then entirely cover the ground, on good land, so you can hardly discover the drille.

If the Goddess of Ceres had appeared with her sheaf, or her cornucopia, I could not have been taken more by surprise. A lady descanting on the width of seed drills and the quantity of seed !'

'I will try her again,' said I, 'this may be a chance shot,' and remarked in reference to a field of ploughed ground we were passing, that it broke up in great lumps, and could invested with perfect lucidity.

The delay, and wished a definition of the word "progress."

Word "progress."

On, I mean the trees are growing!" was tellectually, find no occupation in life, no le-gitimate aim for their feelings, but surrounder—I nose awl walk out ob de church hase ded by affluence, seek in their own reveries and idleor in endless reading of mischievious fietions, a recompense for numbers and idleit am not hansum, an' all ladies should look

The field of the field in the fine of the field of th

The conversation turned on cattle; she The train stopped at discourses beautifully on this theme:

"Man, in uniting himself to het, regains a his body, is incomplete without his wife; he Here is a story of a man to whom honor has strength, she has beauty; he labors in the fields; he does not understand the details of domestic life, but his companion prepares as a profession. A gentleman cooper called upon a negro, who owes a fine farm in Ohio, and wished to purchase some stave timber. Our colored friend finguired for what purpose he wanted it. He received for answer.

A VALE to receive for answer. "I have a contract for so many whiskey of his wife he finds comfort and repose.— A box 24 inches by 16 inches square and "I have a contract for so many whiskey Without woman, man would be rude, gross 28 inches will contain a barrel (5 bashels. "Well sir," was the prompt raply, "I have the flowers of existence, as the creepers 14 inches deep, will contain a half a barrel. their odoriferous garlands. Finally, the pair and 8 inches deep, will contain one bushel. lives united, and in death are not separable; Of course Mt. Cooper was not a little up in dust they lay side and side, their souls and 8 inches deep, will contain half a cent. interest, payable semi- annually.

Cant Phrases.

There is no greater mark of ill-breeding dress before the Maryland Agricultural So- and vulgarity than the use of slang phrases. These forms of speech have heretofore keen been regarded as the distinctive character istic of bar-room loafers, sporting . rowdies thieves and pickpockets.

Of late however, the unseemly habit of interlarding the discourse with cant phrases popular and lachrymose, and maudin; Ger has extended among young men—and wo- man sentime tality is naive and realistic. men, too,-of respectability and good standmen, too,—or respectability and good stand-ing in the community, and has become a crying evil. Low ideas are always attacfied to cant phrases which most inevitably ex-ercize a degrading influence upon the mind. Low conceptions are as detrimental to im-provement as wet and heavy plum ge to a bird that would take a lofty flight.

To show the extent to which the habits of using carr phrases is sometimes carried, the in their downward tendency. following conversation which transpired in he Stout family is reported :

Mr. Rustle in making up to our Josephine ?" said Mrs. Stout after the gentleman referred to had passed the previous evening at their house staying to a later hour than usual. "You'd better believe it." rejoined the young lady playfully.

"You may bet high on that," added Napoleon, who was in the act of lightning a real Havana. " How do you like the cut of his jib," Timothy ?" resumed Mrs. Stout, turning to

" I don't greatly like his 'rig,' but Josephine thinks he he's "some," was the reply.
"Whether you like him or not, it's my opinion he'li make a "tip-top husband, continued the mother.

"Put her through,' mother," said Joseph-

"Go in lemons !"suggested Napoleon, smoking through his nose; a remark by the sured that the work was in "progress."—way, so ambiguous, that it certainly must Atlength he indignantly demanded the cause

"Napoleon, I advise you to 'shut your hop- the consoling raply." per!" elegandy retorted the young lady.

Mr. Stout proceeded to enquire if Mr.

most beautiful tilth on these lands, and which are now regarded as among our best more favorably impressed with Mr. Good-win, a young farmer in the meghborhood,

Questions well Answered - A sophist wishing to puzzle Thales, the Milesian, one

What is the quickest of all things? Thought -because in a moment it can fly to the end of the puiverse.

What is the strongest ! Necessity-be

What is the most constant of all things? CALIFORNIA.—The letters from California

Labor 15 a Profession.—There is a vest storage and commisforfermation.

It is where pleasure has not yet lost all of principle that moral capital is the thing after noncence, and where evil is burnished with these rainbow tints that mark its inception, hat we must be perfect the continuous and where evil is burnished with the serial principle that moral capital is the thing after it is so ugly. She does its kase she don't upon his track, to whom he must yield his well being, is respectable, honorable and here rainbow tints that mark its inception, hat we must hope to interfere successfully

That's the Allegory.

That's the Allegory.

That's the Allegory.

That's the Allegory. essential merit in itself beyond this more or be ruined before the is closed. hearers, recollect dat d'are's sum good an' may stand on his guard to welcome another less productive; the merit belongs entirely say which of the two is most valgar-he you not marry MissG---? who descries and rcomes all labor that is Will Brudder Raymond please to rotate de THE CHRISTIAN'S WIFE.—Chateaubrand soiled or soiling, all common every day toil, speech, and so I left her. or he who values labor only as begrimed with dirt, and turns up his nose at the man part of his substance; his soul, as well as who works with hands or face cleaner than his own. Both are immensely vulgar, and she would have me, she hesitated to say yes, both will have to learn much before they and she hesitated so long, that I cut for an understand the nature und dignity of labor other girl."

> A VALUABLE TABLE.—The following table His day may will be found very valuable to many of our

A box 24 inches by 16 inches square and A box 24 inches by 16 inches square and A bex 29 inches by 15-8 inches square A box 12 inches by 11-2 inches square

4-2 inches deep, will contain one quart.

OPINIONS FROM GOETRE.

I bate all bungling as I do sin, but articularly bungling in politics, which leads to the misery and ruin of many thousands and millions of people.

The sentimentality of the English is amorous and tender; that of the French is

The effect of good music is not causd by wovelty. On the contrary, it strikes es more, the more femiliar we are with it.

Certain books are written, not to instruct you, but to let you know that the au-

The decline of literature indicates the beline of the nation. The two keep pec

Our adversaries think they refute us when they reiterate their own opinions without paying attention to ours.

A little six year old girl of our acquaintance, says the Sunday Couries, whose father had been repeating the Lord's prayer,

" Papa, is God your father ?"

"Yes, my child, "replied the parent, solemaly.
"Then," said the little gtrl, opening her eyes wide, "God is my grandpapa." -+0000

Progress.-The shoemakers have long enjoyed a reputation for procrastination, above all other mechanics; but a cabinet maker we have just heard of, quite throws in the shade all the disciples of St. Crispin on record.— One of the most impatient of all customers, (a man who was to be married as soon as his house was furnished,) ordered some sample articles of furniture, and every week for several months after they were promised, as-the Collins case-the first carried up and argued-the Court was equally divided, Judg-es Green, Johnson, Martin and Whipple being for the constitutionality of the law, and Judges Wing, Pratt, Douglass and Copeland against it. So the question is still open, and the law is at the discretion of the inferior Courts of the State.

Good Morning, Mr. Smith, on the sick list to-day 2' Yes sir, got the ague."

Yes, shake like thunder.'

'When do you shake again !' " Can't say when ; shake every day. Why

O, nothing in particular; only I tho't if u shook bad, I'd like to stand by and see if it wouldn't shake the fifteen dollars ont

Mr. Smith sloped

Nor Ban .- In the New York Independent, we find the following from a mother:
"But did I never tell you what a time I had with little Joe?" " No what was it?"

"Why, I was showing him a picture of the martyrs thrown to the lions, and was talking very solemnly to him, trying to make him feel what a terrible thing it was. Mal' said he, all at once, 'oh, ma! just look at tha poor little lion way behind there, he won's get any !" "

were disposed of to pay for their fre there is no sale, or at least no sale that realhonorable and izes anything for shippers. It is predicted that many men of business in that place will

> HESITACY IN SPEECH .- "Tom, why did "Oh she had a sort of hesitacy in her

"A hesitacy in her speech I never heard of that before-are you not mistaken? "No-not at all; for when I asked her if

The widow of Alexander Hamilton though 98 years old, still retains her faculties in an astonishing degree, and converses with ease and brilliancy. She always insists upon visitors taking a merry glass from General Washington's punch bowl which is choicely cherished.

Bill, what brought you to prison!"

A couple of constables, sir.

"What brought them after you ?"
"Their legs I suppose."

"And had liquor anything to do with it $" Yes, Eliza teased me so I had to lick-mind really is.