The deceased was the son of the late George Billmyer, and came to his death in the following awful manner, while helping to raise a sawmill a short distance from his dwelling.

The timbers of the mill being nearly all up and ready to receive the plate, the one bend of the building not being stayed on which Mr. Billmyer had just ascended to adjust the plate suddenly fell over, he being on the under side and crushed him to death instantly.

On last Saturday in Bloomsburg, at the residence of Mr. Cyrus Fry, Miss Elizabeth Abbot, aged about 55 years.

Light be the turf of thy tomb!
May its verdure like emeralds be:
There should not be the shadow of gloom
In aught that reminds us of thee.
Young flowers and an evergreen tree
May spring from the spot of thy rest:
But no cypress nor yew let us see;
For why should we mourn for the blest

In Wilkesbarre on Saturday the 30 of September last, Hon. Luther Kidder, aged about 50 years.

Judge Kidder was a man whose energy and labor made him all he was—a man of learning, eminence and honor. Unwearied diligence and uncorruptible fidelity gained him a high position at a bar which included much of the best talent in the state. He soon obtained a large and lucrative practice in his profession which give him a competence and independence through life. Some years ago he was elected to the Senate from this district, and afterwards received from Governor Shunk the appointment of President Judge in the Schuylkill district. When he went back to Wilkesbarre he was welcomed by hundreds of his old friends, who clung to him until the hour of his death.

Dollard,s Herbanian Extract, or Lustrous Hair Tonic, prepared from South American herbs and roots, the most successful article ever produced for preserving the hair from falling out or changing color, restoring and preserving it in a healthy and luxurian: state. Among other reasons why Dollard's Hair Cutting Saloon maintains its immense popularity, is the fact that his tonic is applied to every head of hair cut at his establishment, consequently, it is kept in better preservation than under any other known application. It being thus practically tested by thousands, offers the greatest guaranty of its efficacy.

Sold wholesale and retail at his old establishment, 177 Chestnut Street, opposite the State House.

R. Dollard has at last discovered the ne plus ultra of HAIR DYE; and announces it for sale, with perfect confidence in its surpassing every thing of the kind now in use. It colors the hair either black or brown, as may be desired, and is used without any injury to the hair or skin, either by stain or otherwise, can be washed off ten minutes after application, without detracting from its efficacy. Persons visiting the city are invited to give him a call. Letters addressed to R. Dollard, 177 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, will receive attention.
