"This is, without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligible work published of the class of diseases of a which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the teason of its-readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent however featidious can object to placing it in the hand of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, with too little breath to puff, and too little presumption to impose, he has offered to the world, at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruit of sorre twenty years' most successful practice."—[Herald.

HENRY'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL. Purely Vegetable in its Composition

This invaluable cordial is extracted from herbs and roots which have been found of ter years of experience, by the most skittful physicians to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the discoses for which it is free-ommended, and hence while it is presented to the public as an efficacious remedy, it is also known to be of that character on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. As cases of impotency, Hemorrhages, Disordered Streit, try, Menstruation, or Suppression of the Menses, Pluor Albas or Whites, or for

DEBILITY, attaing from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for femiles after confined ment, abortion or miscarriage, this cordial cannot be excelled ir. its salutary effects: or in the loss of muscular energy, irritibility, physical prostration, seminal weakness, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervoueness &c. where a tocic medicine is required, it will be found equal, if not superior to any compound over used, DEBILITY,

TO FEMALES. TO FEMALES.

Henry's invigorating cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. It assists nature to brace the whole system, check excesses, and creater enewed health and happiness. Less suffering, disease and unhappiness among fadios would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debililated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are res'ored by the use of a bottle or two, to bloom and vigor.

YOUNG MEN. That solitary practice, so fatal to the existence so fatal to the existence of man, and it is the young who are most likely to become its vicitims, from an ignorance of the danger to which they subject themselves, causes NERVOUS DEBILITY.

lessening both mental and bodily capacity, hold Henry's Invigorating Cordial, a medicine that is purely vegetable, will aid nature to restore those important functions to a healthy state and will prove of service to you. It possesses rare virtues, is a general remover of disease and strengthener of the system.

AS A TONIC MEDICINE, it is unsurpassed. We do not place this Cordial on a footing with quack medicines, and, as is customary, append a long last of "ecommenda-tions de., beginning with "hear what the pra-cher says." and such like; it is not necessary, for Henry's invigorating cordial only needs a trial to prove all that we say.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the beach of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheat, Rye Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on hie book.

THE Morgenblatt, a high authority in Belle Lettee criticism in Germany, says of this work:—

"This popular writer has again displayed his genius in a graphic and interesting narration of entirely new and attractive scenes. His romance introduces us to a region with which he is thoroughly acquainted from personal observation, but which is a rare and almost untroduced field of fiction—the remote neighborhood of the North Pole, and those toy, desert steppes, where the Laplander pursues his wantlering life of privation and suffering. His life-like descriptions of the manners and customs of this curious people, and the Norwegian settlers on the coasts are drawn with such power as to awaken the keenest interest in his brilliant story, and to keep the attention of the reader intensely excited from the first to the last page. The characters are portrayed with a rare skill and fidelity to nature, and the whole composition cannot fail to augment the reputation of the author, and to place him in the front rank of German historical novelusts."

him is the front rank of German historical novelests."

The reader will discover, in his perusal of this beautiful work of genius, that this praise is fully merited; and he will not fail to remark the high moral tone and pure sensiment which pervades the whole composition—the more striking from its contrast with the deprayed taste and corrupting influence of so many of the works of fiction of the present day.

The great success of "Alraja" in Germany, where it has rapidly passed through several editions, proves that the popular mind has not lost its partiality, for those who seek to refine and elevate the imagination, and to base their boyes of success on an appeal to the higher feelings of our nature.
