"MAN KNOW THYSELF!
An invaluable Book for 25 cts.—Every Family should have a Copy.

100,000 COPIES SOLD IN LESS THAN A YEAR. A new edition, revised and improved, just issued.

AN INVALUABLE BOOK, ONLY 25 CTS. A COPY—MAN KNOW THYSELF!
Dr. Hunter's Medical Manual and Hand Book for the Afflicted. Containing an outline of the Origin, Progress, Treatment and cure of every form of disease, whether Promiscuous Sexual Intercourse, or Self-abuse, or Sexual Excess, with advice for their prevention, written in a familiar style, avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the sensitive delicacy. With an outline of complaints incident to females, from the result of some twenty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague.

Testimony of the Professor of Obstetrics, in Penn College, Philadelphia.
"DR. HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUAL."
—The author of this work, unlike the majority of those who advertise to cure the diseases of which it treats is a graduate of one of the best Colleges in the United States, and is entitled to recommend him to the unfortunate. He is the victim of mal-practice, as a successful and experienced practitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may place the greatest confidence.

JOHN S. LONGSHIRE, M. D.
From A. Woodward, M.D. of Penn. University, Philadelphia.

It gives me pleasure to give my testimony to the professional ability of the author of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of disease of the genital organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health in some cases where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of seminal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by self-abuse or excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the medical profession. I have been acquainted with the author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretion to recommend him as one in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.

ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D.
—This is, without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligible work published of the class of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and is perfectly adapted for families as an object to placing it in the hands of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated, of with little breath to puff, and no little presumption to impose, he has offered to the world, at the most moderate price of 25 cents, the fruit of some twenty years' most successful practice."—(Herald).

"No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this valuable work. It would save years of pain, misdirection and sorrow to the youth under its charge."
—(People's Advocate).

A Presbyterian clergyman in Ohio, writing of "Hunter's Medical Manual" says:—"Thousands upon thousands of our youth by evil example, and influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution, without realizing the sin and fearful consequences upon themselves and their posterity. The constitution of thousands who are raising families have been enfeebled, if not broken down and they do not know the cause or the cure. Anything that can be done to enlighten and instruct the public mind, and to remove this plague from the human race, would confer the greatest blessing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present coming generation. Intemperance, or the use of intoxicating drinks, though it has slain thousands upon thousands, is not at greater scourge to the human race. Accept my thanks on behalf of the afflicted, and believe me your co-worker in the good work you are so actively engaged in.

One copy, securely enveloped, will be forwarded, free of postage, to any part of the United States for twenty-five cents, six copies for one dollar. Address, J. B. COSDEN & CO., Publishers or "Box 196 Philadelphia."
N. B. Book-sellers, Canvasers and Book Agents supplied on the most liberal terms.

No. 3 Over the crown of the head.

D. Dollard has always ready for sale a splendid stock of Gentlemen's Wigs, half Wigs, Frizzes, Braids, Curls, etc., being manufactured, and as cheap as any establishment in the Union.
Dollard's Herbanian Extract, or Lustrous Hair Tonic, prepared from South American herbs and roots, the most successful article for restoring and preserving the hair from falling out or changing color, restoring and preserving it in a healthy and luxuriant state. Among other reasons why Dollard's Hair Cutting Saloon maintains its immense popularity, is the fact that his tonic is applied to the head of hair cut at his establishment, consequently, it is kept in better preservation than under any other known application. It being thus practically tested by thousands, offers the greatest guaranty of its efficacy.
Sole wholesale and retail at his old establishment, 177 Chestnut Street, opposite the State House.

D. Dollard has also discovered the new plus ultra of HAIR DYE; and announces it for sale, with perfect confidence in its surpassing every thing of the kind now in use. It colors the hair either black or brown, as may be desired, and is used without any injury to the hair or skin, either by stain or otherwise, can be washed off ten minutes after application without detracting from its efficacy. Persons visiting the city, are invited to give him a call. Letters addressed to D. Dollard, 177 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, will receive attention.

PURDON'S DIGEST.
ANY Justice of the Peace wishing to purchase a copy of Purdon's Digest, can be accommodated by applying at his office.

HENRY'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL.
Purely Vegetable in its Composition!

This invaluable Cordial is extracted from herbs and roots, which have been found for years of experience, by the most skillful physicians to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended, and hence it is presented to the public as an efficacious remedy, it is also known to be of that character on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency, Hemorrhage, Disordered Stomach, Menstruation, or Suppression of the Menstrues, Fluctuating Catarrhs, or for arising from any weakness, or arising from being for some time, for families after confinement, abortion or miscarriage, this cordial cannot be excelled. Its salutary effects: or in the loss of muscular energy, irritability, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervousness &c. where a tonic medicine is required, it will be found equal, if not superior to any compound ever used.

DEBILITY,

TO FEMALES.
Henry's invigorating cordial is one of the most invaluable ingredients in the many complaints to which females are subject. It assists nature to brace the whole system, check excess, and creates renewed health and happiness. Less suffering, disease and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally better acquainted with the benefits which females are able to derive from the use of a bottle or two, to blood and vigor.

YOUNG MEN.
That solitary practice, so fatal to the existence so young to the existence of man, and it is the young who are most likely to become its victims, is a general remover of disease and strengthener of the system.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.
weakness of the system, and premature decay, many of you may low be suffering, as it is purely vegetable, with all nature to restore those who by excess have brought on themselves premature impotency, involuntary seminal emissions, weakness and shrivelling of the genital organs, Nervous Affection, or any other consequences, unrequited indulgence of the sensual passions, necessitating the necessity of renouncing the felicities of lessening both mental and bodily capacity, hold Henry's Invigorating Cordial, a medicine that is purely vegetable, with all nature to restore those important functions to a healthy state and will prove of service to you. It possesses rare virtues, is a general remover of disease and strengthener of the system.

AS A TONIC MEDICINE,
it is unsurpassed. We do not place this Cordial on a footing with quack medicines, and as is customary, append a long list of "recommendations," beginning with "hear what the press has to say in praise of this medicine." Henry's invigorating cordial only needs a trial to prove all that we say.

THE GENUINE "HENRY'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL,"

TO THE FASHIONABLE AND OVERSIGHTERS.
THE undersigned, having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions, would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared than ever to accommodate any one with the newest, easiest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.
His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of responsibility, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hoping it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted travelers must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, What, Ere, Come, Date, Force, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on his book.
Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases "the laborer is worthy of his hire."

The Walter Scott of Germany.
NOW READY,
A NORWEGIAN AND LAPLAND TALES
—OR—
LIFE AND LOVE IN NORWAY.
Translated from the German of Theodore Moge, by Edward Joy Morris, author of "Travels in the East," "The Turkish Empire," &c.
Price in cloth, $1.25. In two parts, paper, $1.

THE Morgenblatt, a high authority in Belle Lettres criticism in Germany, says of this work—
"This popular work has again displayed his genius in a graphic and interesting narration of entirely new and attractive scenes. His romance introduces us to a region with which he is thoroughly acquainted from personal observation, but which is a rare and almost untroubled field of fiction—the remote neighborhood of the North Pole, and those icy, desert steppes, where the Laplander pursues his wandering life of privation and suffering. His life-like descriptions of the manners and customs of this curious people, and the Norwegian settlers on the coast are drawn with such power as to awaken the keenest interest in his brilliant story, and to keep the attention of the reader intensely excited from the first to the last page. The characters are portrayed with a new skill and fidelity to nature, and the whole composition cannot fail to augment the reputation of the author, and to place him in the front rank of German historical novelists."
The reader will discover, in his perusal of this beautiful work of genius, that this genre is fully merited; and he will not fail to remark the high moral tone and pure sentiment which pervades the whole composition—the more striking in its contrast with the depraved taste and corrupting influence of so many of the works of fiction of the present day.
The great success of "Alraja" in Germany, where it has rapidly passed through several editions, proves that the popular mind has not lost its partiality for those who seek to refine and elevate the imagination, and to base their hopes of success on an appeal to the higher feelings of our nature.
