every second number, or oftener.

The New Volume of the Magazine commences under the best possible auspices.—
Its position is now assured. Two years have demonstrated the extent of its circle of friends, and that circle is constantly widening. The Magazine has not only the sympathy, but the actual literary support of the most eminent authors in the country.

While care is taken that nothing in the remotest degree offensive to propriety or good taste defaces these pages, and the ablest talent is secured to make a Magazine, which, for variety of interest, and excellence of tone, shall be surpassed by no similar publication in the world, the Publishers assure the Public that their motto is still onward, and that every year's experience will enable them more fully to deserve the favor which they so gratefully acknowledge.
