From A, Woodward, M. D. of Penn. University, Philadelphiv.

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the author of the "Medical Manusl," Numerous cases of disease of the genital organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health in some cases where the pattent has been considered beyond medical aid, in the treatment of seminal weakness, or disarrarge ment of the functions produced by self-abuse or excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. I have been acquainted with the author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as kindness to the unfortunate victum of early indiscretion to recommend him as one in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.

ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D.

ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D.

"This is, without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligible work published of the class of diseases of swhich it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no patent however fastidious can object to placing it in the han do his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, with too little breath to puit, and too little presumption to impose, he has offered to the world, at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruit of some twenty years' most cents., the fruit of some twenty years' most successful practice." TO FEMALES.

Henry's invigorating cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. It assists nature to brace the whole system, check excesses, and creates renewed health and happiness. Less suffering, disease and unhappiness among ladies would exist were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are resorted by the use of a bottle or two to bloom and vigor.

TO THE FASHONABLE AND OTHERD .

THE undersigned, having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions, would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared than ever to accommodate any one with the neatest, easiest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need futher notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the beach of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheat, Rye, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on hie book. hie book.

Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases "the laborer is worthy of his hire."
