of John Snyder, Report of the Grand Jury at February Term, 1855.

11 O the honorable the Judges of the court of quarter sessions of the peace in and for the county of Columbia.

The undersigned Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania inquiring for the body of the county of Columbia, Respectfully Report.

That they have pursuant to their required duties calmly and deliberately, investigated all bills of indictment presented for their consideration at this term, and have passed upon them accordingly. They have also made a thorough examination of the Court house, Jail, and all other public buildings, and find them generally in good repair.

It is within the knowledge of the Inquest that the public road leading along Fashing-creek above Orangeville is much injured and obstructed by the creek at this present season. But nour judgment, the difficulty will be obviated whenever the bridge now in contemplation shall be built over Fishing-creek a short distance above where the road is now injured by the water.

The violations of law in this community, are not marry, nor are the few crimes of a high nature. It is a cause of congratulation that our labors can be short, and, that no serious represents attach to our community. The condition of public morals we believe to be about as good as the fraities of human nature allow to be expected—while the bounties of Provuence and the blessings of free institutions still continue to fill our land.

All of which is respectfully submitted this seventh day of February A. D. 1855

SEARS' GREAT WORK ON RUSSIA.

TUST published, an Illustrated Description of the Russian Empire. Being a Physical and Political History of its Governments and provinces, Productions, Resources, Imperial Government, Commerce, Literature, Educational Means, Religion, People, Manners, Customs, Antiquities, etc., from the latest and most authentic sources. Embellished with about 200 Engravings, and Maps of European and Asiatic Russia. The whole complete in one large octave volume of about 700 pages, elegantly and substanticular and will, it is believed, meet in the fullest accepation of the world, the want so universally felt for reliable information on the history and internal resources of a country occupying so large a portion of the Eastern Hemisphere, and holding so fornidable a portion at the present time to the rest of Europe and Asia; but of which for less is known than of any other European nation.

Also, a deeply interesting volume, entitled "The Remarkable Adventures of Celebrated Persons," embracing the Romantic Incidents and Adventures in the Lives of Sovereigns, Statesmen, Generals, Princes, Warriors, Travellers, Adventurers, Voyagers, &c. eminent in the History of Europe and America, including Sketches of over fifty celebrated theroic characters. Beautifully illustrated with numerous engravings. One volume 400 pages, royal 12mo. cloth, gilt. Price.

The subscriber publishes a number of most valuable Pictorial Books, very popular and of such a morai and religious influence that while good men may safely engage in their circulation, they will confer a public benefit and receive a fair compensation for their labor.

Gentlemen:—We take much pleasure in recommending your FIRE PROOF SAFES to merchants and others, who may desire to purchase, with a view to the preservation of their Books and other valuables. The Safe we purchased of you, and manufactured by Evans & Warson, of Philadelphia, Pa, remained in the fire at the burning of our store until the entire stock was consumed, the heat being intense, as you may suppose as there were about seventy barrels of fiquor in the store, besides some seventy thousand pounds of rags and ropes, and other articles of a highly combustible nature. We had the Safe opened after the fire had ceased and found our books and papers preserved in perfect order. No. 116 Light street wharf.
