The undersigned having a limited supply of what is called the "Trop Coan," will send a sufficient quantity for planting twenty-five hills, post-paid to any person who will forward time to this post office, by mail or otherwise, the sum of one dollar. Leger quantities at the sam rate.

The usual yield of this con is about eight to turburears, to the single stock. The following notice, taken from the Luserne Union, of Nov. 8, 1854, will-give some idea of the value of this article:

"Propurtive "Coan "We were shown, yesterday, by Captain Converse, a stalk of corn, of trace kind, which was set for eightien ears, but owing to the seed having been planted too late, only eleven came to mating. If this climate and soil is adapted to the raising of this corn, and there seems to be no doubt of it, it certainly must prove to be a most acceptable seed to our farmers.

EVANS & WATSON,

Gentlemen;—We take much pleasure in recommending your Fire PROOF SAFES to merchanes, with a view to the preservation to purchase, with a view to the preservation to their Rooks and other, who may desire to purchase, with a view to the preservation to their Rooks and other valuables. The Sate we purchased of you, and manufactured by Evans & Warson, of Philadelphia, Pa, remained in the fire at the burning of our stors until the entire stock, wha consumed, the heat being intense, as you may suppose as there were about seventy bariels of figure in the store, besides some seventy discussed pounds of rags and ropes, and other articles of a highly combustible nature. We had the Safe opened after the fire had caused and found out books and papers preserved in perfect order. No. 116 Light street wharf.

Thesas send as another of rour best Safes, of the same size, for our future use, and ebigs. R. W. W. Isaac, No. 91 Light street wharf. Baltimore Blitmore, Blitmore Blitmore, Blitmore Blitmore, Blitmore Blitmore, Blitmore Blitmore, Blitmore Blitmore, Blitmore Blitmore, B FAIRBANKS & Co
