FAIRBANKS & Co.—
Gentlemen:—We take much pleasure in recommending your FIRE PROOF SAFES to merchants and others, who may desire to purchase, with a view to the preservation of their Books and other valuables. The Safe we purchased of you, and manufactured by Evass & Wateon, of Philadelphia, Pa., remained in the fire at the burning of our store until the entire stock was consumed, the heat being intense, as you may suppose as there were about sevenly barrels of liquor in the store, besides some seventy thousand the heat being sintense, as you may suspose as there were about seventy barrels of liquor in the store, besides some seventy thourand pounds of rags and ropes, and other articles of a highly combustible nature. We had the Safe opened after the fire had ceased and found our books and papers preserved in perfect order. No. 116 Light street what.

Please send as another of your beet Safes, of the same size, for our future use, and oblige R. W. W. Isaac, No. 91 Light street what, Baltimore Baltimore, Mp., May 17, 1884.

Missais E. & T. Fairdanks & Co.—Gentlemen:—It gives us much pleasure to be it testimony to the excellence of your Fire Proof Safes. The one I 'purchased of you, manufactured by Messers. Evans & Wasen, Philadelphia, Pa., saved my books and valuable papers, when everything else in the house was destroyed by fire, on the morning of the 14th ints, at No. 116 Light street what.

The New Volume of the Magazine commences under the best possible auspices.—
Its position is now assured. Two years have demonstrated the extent of its circle of triends, and that circle is constantly witering. The Magazine has not only the sympatity, but the actual literary support of the most eminent authors in the country. While care is taken that rothing in the remotest degree offensive to propriety or good taste defaces these pages, and the ablest talent is secured to make a Magazine, which for variety of interest, and excellence of tone, shall be surpassed by no similar publication in the world, the Publishers assure the Public that their motto is still onward, and that every year's experience wil which they so gratefully acknowledge.

Price $3 per annum. The 4 Vols. published may still be had.
