The Safe we purchased of you, and manufactured by Evans & Warson, of Philadelphia, Pa, remained in the fire at the burning of our store until the entire stock was consumed, the beat being intense, as you may suppose as there were about seventy barrels of liquor in the store, besides some seventy thousand pounds of rags and ropes, and other articles of a bighty combustible nature. We had the Safe opened after the fire had ceased and found our books and papers preserved in perfect order. No. 116 Light street wharf. Please send as another of your best Safes, of the same size, for our future use, and oblige R. W. W. Jeaac, No. 91 Light street wharf, Baltimore. Baltimone, Min., May 17, 1854.

Messas E. & T. Fairbanks & Co.—Gentlemon:—It gives us much pleasure to bear testimony to the excellence of your Fire Proof Safes. The one I 'purchased of you, manufactured by Messers. Evans & Watson, Philadelphia, Pa, saved my books and valuable papers, when everything else in the house was destroyed by fire, on the morning of the 14th inst, at No. 116 Light street wharf.

Dollard, a Herbanian Extract, or Lustrous Hair Tonic, prepared from South American herbs and roots, the most successful article ever produced for preserving the hair from falling out or changing color, restoring and preserving it in a healthy and luxuriant state. Among other reasons why Dollard's Hair Cutting Saloon maintains its immense popularity, is the fact that his tonic is applied to every head of hair cut at his establishment, consequently, it is kept in better preservation than under any other known application. It being thus practically tested by thousands, offers the greatest guaranty of its efficacy.

Sold wholesale and retail at his old establishment, 177 Chestnut Street, opposite the State House.

R. Dollard has at last discovered the neplus vitra of HAIR DYE; and announces it for sale, with perfect confidence in its surpassing every thing of the kind now in use. It colors the hair either black or brown, as may be desired, and is used without any injury to the hair or skin, either by stain or otherwise, can be washed off ten minutes after application, without detracting from its efficacy. Persons visiting the city are invited to give him a call. Letters addressed to R. Dollard, 177 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, will receive attention.

TO THE FASHONABLE AND OTPINIBLES.

THE undersigned, having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions, would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared than everto accommodate any one with the neatest, easiest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheat, Rye, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on he book.

Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases "the laborer is worthy of his hire."
