STREET, BALTIMORE
—SALAMADER SAFES
—EVANS & WATSON'S
TRIUMPHANT—

MESSRS. E. & T.

Gentlemen:—We take much pleasure in recommending your FIRE PROOF SAFES to metchants and others, who may desire to purchase, with a view to the preservation of their Books and other valuables. The Safe we purchased of you, and manufactured by Evass & Warson, of Philadelphia, Pa, remained in the fire at the burning of our store until the entire stock was consumed, the heat being intense, as you may suppose as there were about sevently barries of liquor in the store, besides some seventy thousand pounds of sags and ropes, and other articles of a highly combustible nature. We had the Safe opened after the fire had ceased and found our books and papers preserved in perfect order. No. 116 Light street wharf. Please send as another of your best Safes, of the same size, for our future use, and oblige R. W. W. Isaac, No. 91 Light street wharf. Baltimore Baltimora, MD., May 17, 1854.

MESSRS E. & T. FAIRBANKS & Co.—Gentlemen:—It gives us much pleasure to bear testimony to the excellence of your Fire Proof Safes. The one I 'purchased of you, manufactured by Messets. Evans. & Waison, Philadelphia, Pa., saved my books and valuable papers, when everything else in the house was destroyed by fire, on the morning of the 14th inst, at No. 116 Light street wharf.

Millville, Nov. 1, 1854. Dr. FRANCIS C. HARRISON,

WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of Bloomsburg and vicinity, that he has commenced the practice of MERICANE there; and colicits a share of public patronage. He can always be found at the Exchange Hotel opposite the Court House. Bloomsburg, March, 1st, 255.

TO THE FASHONABLE AND DEPIETED IN

THE undersigned, having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions, would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about. Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared than ever to accommodate any one with the neatest, easiest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheat, Rye Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on hte book.

Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases "the laborer is worthy of his hire."
