Among other reasons why Dollard's Hair Cutting Saloon maintains its immense popularity, is the fact that his tonic is applied to every head of hair cut at his establishment; consequently, it is kept in better preservation than under any other known application. It being thus practically tested by thousands, offers the greatest guaranty of its efficacy.

He can always be found at the Exchange Hotel opposite the Court House. Bloomsburg, March, 1st, '55. TO THE FASHONABLE AND OTPHINE.

THE undersigned, having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions, would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared than ever to accommodate any one with the neatest, easiest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheat, Rye. Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on hie book.

Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases "the laborer is worthy of his hire."
