THE TICKET.
During court this week we have heard a number of prominent Democrats express their pleasure and satisfaction with the Democratic ticket. Every person grants that all the nominees will make excellent and competent officers; and the Know-Nothing alone seem troubled as to what is best for them to do. They don't even hint that the country would be ruined by the officers now on the Democratic ticket, but they strongly intimate that they would like all the offices themselves.
We are very sorry to see our clever friend Mr. Cole in the company and control of the Know-Nothing. He submitted his claims to the Democratic county convention and was fairly and honorably treated by it. No disrespect was intended, and no injury done him when another competent gentleman received the nomination.
When a man submits his claims to a convention and is fairly treated by it, he can gain neither respect nor profit by deserting the party because he did not receive a nomination. Each candidate before a convention expects the others to support him if he is successful, and honesty would require that if he is not nominated he should treat others as he wished to be treated. The men whom we have seen lately flatter Mr. Cole are notorious Know-Nothing men who never bore any love for the Democratic party, and who were both last year and in the fall of 1853 the leading spirits in opposition to the Democratic ticket. By thinking of this coolly the candid portion of the voters will understand the motives which have made Mr. Cole a candidate.

Court Proceedings.
Court opened in this place on last Monday. There was a pretty good attendance, though but few cases were for trial, and none of these of any general interest. Solomon Neyhard Esq., of Centre was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury.
The only civil case tried was an appeal—Joseph Hampton vs. Samuel Henry, in which the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $32.65.
The only other case which went to a jury for verdict was Com. vs. Andrew Freas for assault and battery. Verdict not guilty and the prosecutor for costs.
Court adjourned on Wednesday forenoon. The report of the Grand Jury will be found in another column. The court directed it to be published and notice to be given to the supervisors mentioned in the report.

We publish in an other column the advertisement of the "Savings" Fund of the United States Insurance, Annuity and Trust Company, 301 South East corner of Third and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia. It is the pioneer 5 per cent. Saving Fund of this City, and is esteemed one of the best Savings Institutions of our country. Monies deposited with this Institution draw 5 per cent. interest, and are paid back on demand without notice. The direction embraces some of the best men of Philadelphia.

Whenever a disappointed Democrat turns against his party the Know-Nothing sulk him in just as easy as the whale did Jonah, and declare he is the most clever and gentlemanly fellow alive, even if only a short time before they abused him as a "d—d dirty loco f—c."

Spalding & Rogers' Circus which exhibited in this place yesterday has a large number of excellent performers, and fulfilled every reasonable expectation of the many who patronized it. The seats were filled both in the afternoon and evening, until a number of the spectators were compelled to stand.

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY.—The Democrats of Northumberland county have placed in nomination the following ticket:—For Assembly, J. H. Zimmerman; for Register and Recorder, C. Boyd Pusey; for Treasurer, Geo. Bright; for Commissioner 3 years, Charles Hostenstein; for Commissioner 1 year, Frederick Haas.

SULLIVAN COUNTY.—The Democratic convention of Sullivan county met last Tuesday at Laporte and selected Senatorial conferees in favor of A. J. Diesterich, Esq., formerly of this county, and Representative conferees in favor of Col. James Deegan.

The real estate in Millin and Centre which is advertised in an other column to-day is worth the attention of those who want to purchase.

EDUCATIONAL.
The Teachers' Association.
Of Columbia County, will meet at Bloomsburg, on Saturday, the 29th day of September, at 1 o'clock P. M.
Several essays and addresses are expected, and teachers are earnestly solicited for their experience on School topics.
All friends of education are respectfully invited to attend. R. W. WEAVER, Sec'y.
Wm. Burgess, Sec'y. President.

School Meetings.
On next Monday (Sept. 10th) afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a School Meeting at Cole's School-House in Sugarloaf. Teachers will be examined, and Directors and people are invited to attend.
On Tuesday forenoon Sept. 11th at 9 o'clock there will be a similar meeting at the school-house near the town of Benton.
On Saturday afternoon, Sept. 15th at 2 o'clock there will be a school meeting for the examination of teachers in the Stoker school house in Fishingcreek township.
On the evening of that day there will be a similar meeting at Orangeville.
On Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Sept. 17, there will be a similar meeting at the school-house in Jerseytown.
There will also be a similar meeting at Cattawissa on Tuesday, the 18th day of Sept. at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, and another at Slabtown on the same day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.
It is important that directors attend at these examinations; and a good meeting of all the friends of education is desired on every occasion. All teachers in the vicinity of those places, who desire certificates, will present themselves for examination. Like appointments will hereafter be announced for Berwick, Millinville, and Rohrsburg.

Union and Harmony.
The Columbia county Democratic Convention, and the Representative Conferees of Columbia and Montour, have unanimously concurred in the nomination made by Montour, of John G. Montgomery, Esq., for Assembly. Of Mr. Montgomery's election there can be no doubt. Mr. Maxwell was urged by indiscreet friends, to run against the Ticket, but he does himself credit by declining to accede to such request, and pledging himself to support the ticket.
Mr. Temer, of Derry, has likewise been solicited to run as a volunteer, but he declines to have his name thus used by the opponents of the democratic organization, and will himself support Mr. Wagner. Mr. Temer thus strengthens himself with the Democratic party, and as he is a gentleman of excellent character and good qualifications, he will be favorably remembered hereafter.—Danville Intelligencer.

What the Russians Say.
The official organ at St. Petersburg expresses the opinion that the Allies, by their inactivity and want of enterprise, have allowed the opportunity to slip by when Sebastopol might have been taken. It now says the city is impregnable; that it can replace one hundred dismounted guns in a night, or can exchange 50,000 fatigued troops against 50,000 fresh troops; the Allies cannot, with double the force they can dispose of, cut off the communication by Perikop; that the Russian army, fighting for its country and its sovereign, is animated by a better spirit than is the heterogeneous mass of French, English, Turks, Egyptians and Sardinians, contending for an abstract idea and a confused interpretation of the duties of civilization. There is some force in these remarks, and the Allies themselves appear to be impressed with the same idea for the preparation of defenses they are making at Kamiesh look very like a protection in the event of being compelled to re-embark.
Sunbury and Erie Railroad.—The eastern link of this road from Northumberland to Milton, will be completed and formally opened on Thursday 20th inst. By the completion of this link, which, by using flat boats on the basis of the Susquehanna river at Northumberland, western New York will be connected with the coal fields in the middle Atlantic region. Col. A. S. Diven, President of the Williamsport and Elmira Railroad Company, has had a large number of coal cars built, and the locomotives are ready for the coal trade, which will begin on the 21st inst. This link will also afford another pleasant route to the north and west, via the Pennsylvania railroad to the junction, above Harrisburg, and passenger boats from that point 40 miles to Northumberland.

REPORTED ROBBERY OF THE COUNTY TREASURER AT LANCASTER.—A letter from Lancaster informs that the office of the County Treasurer at Lancaster was robbed of from $800 to $1000, on Sunday night. The Treasurer's Office is on the first floor of the new Court House, and was entered by the western door leading to the corridor. The door leading to the office was also opened by false keys—no appearance of the lock having been forced in either door. The safe-key was generally kept in a small desk in the office, which was forced open, and the safe-key taken out, by which the safe was opened. The County Commissioners are investigating the matter.—Ledger.

AMERICAN IRON.—Everything at present indicates a prosperous condition of the American iron-trade. Our pig iron is now in far better repute and demand than it has been for a long time, and by the attention of the manufacturers it has been so much improved as to possess all the valuable qualities of Scotch pig. The Philadelphia American states that the Mount Hope and Hibernia iron mines, in New Jersey, are doing a large business. The rolling mill at Rockway, N. J., has been enlarged, and is now driven by steam, instead of water power, the steam being generated entirely from the waste heat of the puddling and heating furnaces, so that no more fuel is used than under the water power system. The mill is now constantly employed.

The people very generally seem pleased with the nomination of Mr. Montgomery for Representative, and he will receive a very fine vote in this county.

More Developments.
We invite the attention of every honest man to the card of Mr. Henry Craw of Muncy which we publish below. At least a dozen men in this county have come to us and told an experience very much like this man's; for the plan of these conspirators is everywhere the same, and honest men are everywhere leaving them in disgust. Hereafter, if occasion requires, we may put some of the revelations of those who have seen the hollow heartedness of Know-Nothingism in this county into a proper shape for our readers.—For the present Mr. Craw's experience will serve as a sample.
To the Independent Electors of Lycoming, Clinton and Potter Counties.
The undersigned has been induced to offer his services to the people of this district, and permit his name to be used in the approaching canvass, as a candidate for a seat in the Pennsylvania Legislature.
The fact is admitted by the members of the party with whom I have previously acted, that to make no public avowal of his principles, but being disgusted with these "dark lantern" practices, I have determined to make a frank, open and public exposition of my views upon the various questions of public interest. The principles of the Whig party have been and will be my principles; I have fought for them, and voted for them, and as long as breath remains in my body, will retain fresh and green the recollection of the glorious lessons taught us by Clay and Webster.
When the great reform movement on the subject of temperance was started I lent my voice, and what little influence I possessed to keep the ball in motion. In the midst of our great success in this reformation project my Whig and Temperance friends commenced organizing Know-Nothing Lodges. I was assured by Whig friends that it was resolved by our party to rush en masse into this movement as the sure and effectual way of breaking down the Democratic party. I was also assured that there was no sacrifice of Whig principles, that our party in the order would be largely in the majority, and the minority of Democrats would be compelled to succumb, and finally come into the support of Whig men and measures.—I was assured by temperance friends that this Know-Nothing movement was the only means by which men could be selected and elected, who would pass a prohibitory liquor law—I was told by holy and revered gentlemen with white cravats, that the deception a man would be called upon to practice towards his neighbor, perjury and equivocation to which every member would be forced to resort, that the war which was to be waged against a small and contemptible body of Christians and against all foreigners whether Protestant or Catholic, would be justified by the great end to be attained. In consequence of these various assurances, I joined that dark and proscriptionist order, in whose midnight councils the ghosts of men, women and children slaughtered in Cincinnati and Louisville, pass in sad and solemn array before the eyes of pale, trembling and terror-stricken congregations of conspirators. How appropriate one of the places of meeting in this Borough! viz., a butcher shop! the President standing behind the meat block, the initiated collected in a circle around, while a member holds in one hand a candle (their only light) and in the other a box of matches, so that upon the first alarm the light may be extinguished, and be lighted when the danger of detection passes away.
I was one of the charter members of the Murcy council. We organized in a tavern; I met with them, acted with them, and for the good of the temperance cause and with the example of temperance men and Preachers of the Gospel, and in their company, at an hour when all nature was hushed in repose, when sleep had closed the eyes of the unsuspecting, stole forth from our families to meet in councils, held at the houses we had been in the habit of our temperance speeches of styling "rum shops" our ingress being through the stables, over the fences, creeping along under the shrubbery of the gardens, and egress in the same humiliating and disgraceful manner.
The limits of this communication will not permit me to give all the reasons in addition to the foregoing which influenced me to renounce and free myself from the moral contamination surrounding this order. From the assembling to the adjournment of the last Legislature, fraud and corruption "ruled the hour." Every measure of any importance was passed in secret council and duly went through the forms of ratification in the Senate and House of Representatives. We sent a majority to pass the prohibitory liquor law, and with the will and inclination, they lacked the courage to do their duty, but placed upon the statute book, that miserable abortion known and appropriately styled the "Know-Nothing Jug Law." If this was the only infamous measure passed by that Legislature, it is enough to cover the authors with disgrace. I herein pledge myself if elected to do my utmost to effect the repeal of this odious law, and substitute in its place, a Regular Sinagogue Neal Dow Maine Law. Mr. Beck the Democratic candidate it is said is in favor of the repeal of this law; but opposed to a prohibitory law: Mr. Caldwell a drinking man, is pledged in writing to the temperance men to sustain the law; and as the position of neither of these gentlemen is satisfactory to myself, and as I believe, to a number of Whigs and temperance men, I have resolved to enter upon this canvass in order to test the sentiment of this district respecting the "Maine Law and the abominable order of Know Nothings. With these sentiments emboldened upon my shield with lead in real, I challenge to combat the visored champions of Know-Nothingism, and God defend the right."
Muncy, Aug. 24, 1855. HENRY CRAW.

Hon. George R. Barrett, of Clearfield, having been solicited by the citizens of Monroe county to become a candidate for President Judge of the 22d Judicial District, has assented to the request. He expresses his intention, if elected, to reside in that district.
All who want the Magazines at the lowest prices will find a "notice" in another column to their interest.

The Prejudice of Color.
Of all the prejudices that warp the human breast, it might have been supposed the prejudice of color would be the last one to affect the sensibilities of Horace Greeley. He is known, far and wide, as a zealous abolitionist, and the almost daily indignations of the Tribune against the exclusion of colored persons from public stages and railroad cars in the city of New York, and the prohibition of their promiscuous association with whites in places of entertainment, has given color to the idea that he is an amalgamationist as well—at least, so far as the intermingling of whites and blacks in social intercourse is concerned. But it is not so. With all his love for the negro, Mr. Greeley finds, when the experiment of admitting, his colored brethren freely into the society of whites, is brought practically before him, that his prejudice is a stronger feeling, and much deeper rooted in his nature than he supposed.—He "starts" at the sight, with a shudder of disgust that he makes no effort to conceal.
In his last letter from Europe, Mr. Greeley gives an account of a visit he paid to the "Cremorne Gardens," a place of cheap and general resort at the extreme West end of London, and this is the result of his "experience":
"I looked in with a friend one evening, and found some three thousand people there—as many as six or eight hundred of them dancing at once under the open sky on a slightly raised floor surrounding the tall stand or tower in which the musicians were seated. There were not far from a thousand women present, most of them quite young, and the majority manifestly lost to virtue if not quite dead to shame. What struck me with surprise was the fact that many obviously respectable and uneducated girls, mingled and danced in the throng, including mere children of 10 or 12 years, who could not fail speedily to comprehend the errand on which the lost ones come hither. I had heard much of the decorous depravity of the Parisian dancing gardens, though I never visited them; here the lecorum were dubious and the depravity unmistakable. The English are not skillful in varnishing vice—at least, I have seen no evidence of their tact in that line. I endured the spectacle of men dancing with women when rather bery and smoking but at the sight of a dark and by no means elegant mulatto walking with a decent looking white girl while puffing away at a rather bad cigar proved too much for my Yankee prejudice, and I started."

GEN. HOUSTON AND HISTORY.—Gen. Sam Houston, in giving in his adhesion, to the "secret order," justifies his course by saying the first secret political society formed in this country was the Cincinnati Society, that General Washington was one of its members, and that no man was eligible for membership in the society unless he was an American. General Houston's knowledge of the history of his own country must be rather deficient for one who professes so much native patriotism. The Cincinnati Society was not political at all, nor was it a secret organization. It was formed by the officers of the revolutionary army, to perpetuate their long-revered friendship and social intercourse, and that they might, at regular annual periods, communicate with each other, and revive a recollection of the friendly bonds by which they were connected. A fund was also provided to relieve any of the officers who might become unfortunate. Such native born citizens as Lafayette, Steuben, and Kosciuszko were members of the Society.—Sam must not go so far off the track if he wishes to "run" successfully as the leader of "Young America" for youth can scarcely excuse ignorance or perversion of the history of one's native country.—Ledger.

WASHINGTON'S INDIAN AMPHITHEATRE AND CIRCUS.—It is announced in another column to perform in this place on the 21st, September. One of the numerous notices which we have seen of this company, is the following from the Boston Evening Times:
The success of this equestrian company, which concluded its three days' performance in this city on Saturday, has never been surpassed since noble steeds and daring riders first exhibited their training and skill within the limits of a Circus ring. Appearing, as this great troupe did, for the first time before our citizens, with one-half the unemancipated seekers at the encampment in Quincy and foul weather to contend against, it required the very best talent and most superior performances to attract "paying houses," therefore, when we inform our friends that such exhibition, excepting the first, was crowded, (and over a thousand people turned away on Friday night), the quality of the performances can be correctly judged. We speak understandingly and justly in stating that the several equestrian artists and gymnasts attached to the company cannot be excelled by any troupe in this or any other country. The Indian performers also present a most attractive feature, and their various feats are both wonderful and interesting. Of the clown, Geo. O. Knapp, we must set him down as the embodiment of fun and wit; he plays the fool wisely, never offending by the use of broad and indecent jokes to make the vulgar laugh and the judicious grieve. In brief it is a model company, under excellent management.

Affairs in Washington.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The Cabinet held a meeting to-day, all the members being present. Several matters of importance were considered, including despatches from Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Mason. Much business has accumulated during the President's absence.
Senor Almonte, the Mexican Minister, does not apprehend a recall by Carrera, the Provisional President, who is his intimate personal friend.
The official result of the Kentucky election reaches us by telegraph. Moorehead, the Whig and Know Nothing candidate, has 4,403 majority. General Scott, in 1852, had 3,262 majority; Taylor had 17,421; and Clay, in 1844, 9,267. Verily, the Know Nothing have won a tremendous victory!

The Flight of Santa Anna.
The flight of Santa Anna from Mexico is confirmed by the late advices from Havana, to which port, it appears, he has safely fled. The abdication was not without tumult, and has left an open quarrel for the Presidency, which may give some trouble to his successor. Carrera is provisional President of Mexico for six months, but there are others who will want to have a hand in the business of President making, and then the trouble will begin. Santa Anna, before he left, issued a proclamation, depositing the Government in the hands of Pavoni, Vega and Salas; but those gentlemen did not seem to be ambitious of retaining the honors. In the City of Mexico, the populace showed their appreciation of their new-found liberty by mobbing and robbing the bankers. The military fired upon the mob, and killed some and wounded others. The new Government sent expresses to the various Governors of the Departments or States, requesting them to pronounce, and at the same time they sent to the commanders of the liberal forces, to inform them that everything had been regulated according to their views, and to request them to come to the capital alone, leaving their forces behind them, for the purpose of electing officers and arranging the Government. The liberal party, however, were not satisfied, and sent to the commander, telling them to bring their forces, and that they would be able to carry out their plans. The Government was, in fact, composed of a large proportion of the members of the last one, closely united with the Church, for which reason the liberals could not accept it. The press is now free and the Verdad, the Monitor Republicano, the Patra and the Revolution, had reappeared.

Republican Convention.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 5.—The Republican State Convention assembled here to-day. There were about 3000 persons in attendance from different parts of the State. After a preliminary organization a committee on officers was appointed, who reported the Hon. Wm. Jessup, of Susquehanna, for President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.
9 o'clock, P. M.—The Convention is still in session, and has just nominated Pasmore Williamson for Canal Commissioner, amid great enthusiasm.
Joshua Giddings is now addressing the Convention. It will probably adjourn to-night.

EMIGRATION TO MINNESOTA.—Our Western Territories are being settled with hardy pioneers, with a rapidly hardy people. Among others, Minnesota is fast being covered with intelligent and enterprising citizens. Large numbers, says the Chicago Daily Press, are exploring Southern Minnesota. Many are also wending their way northwest to the south bend of the Minnesota, and up the valley of that beautiful river. Most of the country between Lacrosse and Mankato is very fine, well watered, with timber at convenient distances. The soil of the prairies is excellent, and everything invites the industrious and the enterprising to seek a home in that fertile and healthful region. Land can be had at government price, of the very best quality.—The settlers are principally from northern New York, Ohio, and Canada West. A year ago a pioneer by the name of John Robinson, settled in "High Forest," in northern Minnesota, and at the time his nearest neighbor was thirty miles distant, in the direction of a town called Lacrosse. There are now seventy-two houses on the same road. Mills and stores have also been erected, and improvement is the order of the day.

STRONG PROOF OF POPULARITY.—A correspondent of the New York Post, who went out with Colonel Kinney on his "mission" to Nicaragua, speaks in very high terms of the Colonel's purposes, and his popularity among the Greytown people. Nobody can resist the influence of the fascinating Kinney. An Irish sailor was so charmed with him and his mission to establish the "church and school house," that he could not be kept on board his vessel, but jumped from the rigging, where he had been sent, into the sea, preferring to run the risk of becoming a meal for an alligator rather than not assist the Colonel in his pious work. The temptation was too strong for the alligator to resist, and he accordingly took the man in; but, by anticipating the Colonel in this way, it saved the Irishman a deal of disappointment.—Ledger.

SANTA ANNA, when he abdicated, issued an address, denouncing the "scandal, dishonor and perfidy of his enemies had reached the extreme of associating not only with the filibusters of the North, but with troops of the United States, who passing the frontier in the disguise of deserters, are led by rebels and unworthy Mexicans, who teach them the road by which to invade their native land; to assassinate with rifles the Mexican soldiers who defend the sovereignty and integrity of their territory." In the midst of the excitement in the capital, caused by Santa Anna's flight, the American minister procured the release of the only two American prisoners there.

IMPREGNABLE.—A Russian, in New York, says Swearby is impregnable, and that the Allied fleet could have done nothing more, in their late attack, than destroy a few buildings by burning; that the works could not be injured by the kind of fire the fleet appears to have directed against the place. We shall know the facts in a few days. The despatches from the Allied admirals are certainly unsatisfactorily brief; but whether designedly so, from the lack of any decided results or not, the next news will probably determine.—Ledger.

The receipts of the first night of Rachel in New York are "estimated" at $5,000.—The criticisms of the New York press on her acting are agonizing. The critics roll up their eyes in a fine phrensy and talk deliriously of her hair, her nose, her eyes her form, her breath, the folds of her dress, anything but the play, as if they did not comprehend her; and were determined that nobody should understand their English. New York is the "metropolis," and her theatrical critics are—humbly.—Ledger.

DEED.
In Berwick, August 30th, of Tubercular Meningitis, WILLIAM FISHWORTH THORNTON, son of Abraham and Mary A. Miller, aged 1 year, 9 months and 21 days.
In Bloomsburg, on Friday, the 24th of August, THOMAS, infant son of Thomas J. Morris Esq., aged about 9 months.

HAY IN MAINE.—The market price of hay in Aroostook Co., Me., is said to be $5 per ton, and large tracts of grass land are left out, as the farmers believe it will not pay for the cutting.

SLOW WORK.—The bounty land warrants commenced being issued on the 1st of June, and after the expiration of three months, only 23,988 have been issued. As there are 209,000 applications, it will take over two years, at the present rate of issuing, to satisfy all the applicants.

The Baby Show at Doylestown, Pa. on Friday of last week, drew a great crowd, though only seven were entered for prizes, the first of which, $100, was taken by a boy of three years. Two or three Boston lady riders were among the female competitors on the race course, but did not take either of the premiums. The riding was "magnificent." Miss Howard was thrown over her horse's head, but was not hurt.

Holloway's Ointment and Pile the Best Remedies for the Cure of Female Complaints.—The extraordinary effect these Pills have upon all complaints peculiarly incidental to females, would appear incredible to the citizens of the Union, if it were not confirmed daily by the wonderful cures they effect in various States. It is an unquestionable fact, that there is not any remedy to equal them for exterminating suffering from the softer sex, particularly for young girls entering into womanhood, therefore all are requested to give them a trial, which will insure their recommendation.

Most Important to the Ladies.
Dr. GEISSNER'S Celebrated Menstrual Pills have been widely known as invariably certain in removing any stoppage, irregularity, or suppression of the menses. In the female hospitals in Vienna, Paris, and Berlin, they have entirely superseded the use of all other remedies; because, where a cure is attainable by medicinal agencies, they are certain of success. Their action is efficacy would be almost incredible, if not vouched for by indubitable testimony, in numerous instances producing returns of the monthly period after all hope had been abandoned.
In every case, from whatever cause the obstruction may arise, as also to prevent pregnancy where the health will not admit of increase of family, they are always efficient; for which reason they must not be used during pregnancy, though always mild, healthy, safe and certain in their effects.
Married ladies will find particular instructions in the directions, in which are stated the various symptoms by which the cause of the suppression may be determined.
Price, One Dollar per Box, containing explicit directions.
Each box will be signed by Dr. R. G. Geissner.
Principal Office, 127 1/2 Liberty Street, New York City.
Responsible agents will be appointed for their sale as soon as practicable. In the mean time, all orders are to be addressed to Dr. R. G. Geissner, 127 1/2 Liberty Street, New York City, or to box 2436 N. Y. Post Office, and a box will be sent by return mail, as they are put up in sealed envelopes, and can be sent with the strictest privacy to any part of the United States.

CAUTION TO LADIES.
As various not only ineffective but injurious compounds purporting to be "Female Pills," under all kinds of names as "Iron Pills," "Silver Pills," "Golden Pills," "Periodical Pills," &c. are attempted to be palmed off upon the credulous or unwary, it is only necessary for ladies to be on their guard against the attempted imposition, and in all cases where there is no authorized agent for the sale of Dr. Geissner's Menstrual Pills, to order direct from him by mail, by return of which a box will be sent. (29-1y)

Agents—Geo. Ross, Lebanon; E. T. Miller, York; S. Alleman, Harrisburg; D. H. Jones & Co., Harrisburg; C. Weigley, Millbach.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.—DR. CHEESBROUGH'S PILLS.—The combinations of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain in restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. The Pills invariably open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deadly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. To ladies whose health will not permit an increase of their family, these Pills will prove a valuable acquisition, as they will prevent pregnancy. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, hoarseness of food, and disturbed sleep now, always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhoea, commonly called the "White." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Waranted to be purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.
These Pills are put up in square flat boxes. Persons residing where there are no agency established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter postpaid to Dr. C. L. Cheesman, No. 267 Bleeker street, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.
