TO THE FASHONABLE AND

OTHER BIRES.

THE undersigned, having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions, would signin beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared than ever to accommodate any one with the nestest, easiest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Whear, Rye, Corn, Oats, Potatoes and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on hie book.

Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases "the laborer is worthy of his hire."
