CONTENTS: It teaches how to make ladies or gentle-men win the devoted affections of as many of the opposite sex as their heatre may dearer. And the plan is simple, yet so capitvating that all may be matried irrespective of age, appearance or position; and it can be arran-ged with such ease and delicacy, that detec-tion is impossible. It teaches avery eye to form a beauty of its own. It teaches every eye to form a beauty of its own. It teaches how to act when fascinated by a lady. It teaches how to make the wrinkled face smooth. It teaches you the kind of a wife to select to render home happy. It gives advice to the lover who has been once truly accepted, and is rejected alier-wards through the interte-ence of friends. It gives a remedy for unrequired love. It gives you matructions for beautifying the person. Complete Library Edition. In five very large octavo volumes, with a ortrait on Steel, of Charles Dickens, con portrait on Steel, of Charles Dickens, con-taining the same reading matter as the Illus-trated Edition, and comprising over four thou-sand very large double columned pages, handsomely printed, and bound in various styles.

It gives you instructions for beautifying the person. How to have a handsome face and hands. How to remove tan and freckles. A tecture on love, or a Private Advice to Mar-ried Ladies and Gentlemen. This is decidedly the most faschaving, in-teresting and really useful and practical work on Courtebip, Matrimony, and the duties and delights of Married Life, that thas ever been issued from the American press. The artifi-cial social system, which in so many instan-ces prevents a union of hears, and sacrifice to conventionalism the happiness and even the lives of thousands of the young and hope-ful of both saxes, is thoroughly analyzed and exposed. Every one who contemplates mar-riage, and wishes for an infailible guide in the selection of a partner for life, should pur-chase this great text book of commbial feli-city. handsomely printed, and bound in various styles. A NEW BOOK COMING. WE have the pleasure of announcing that we have in press, and shall publish about the first of December, a new work of fiction the first of December, a new work of fiction entitled BOSB CLARIE, A ROMANCE---BY FANNY FERN. The lost work, and first combineous tale of of this brilliont and fascinating authores, "Huth Hall," achieved a success unexam-pled in the anneals of letters. In the language of a leading periodical, it "created a more prolound semsation than any which has been issued during a quarter of a century." But it is unrecessary to allude to the morits of "Ruth Hall." Judging from the number of copies of it we have sold, we judge that every body in the U. States has read it. As respects the work we have now in press, Ross CLARE, we can only say that we regard it as, in every respect, a greater, better work; and te confident it will not only sustain, but ever increase the reputation of its distinguish-
