COEVERTIMENT AND COEVERTIMENTS THE undersigned, having just received the Intest Paris and New York Fashions, would again beg leave to inform his numer-ous friends and all the world about Blooms-burg, that he is now better prepared than er-er to accommodate any one with the neatest, easiest and best fitting mits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms. His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, scatted upon the benefit of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheet, Rye, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on hte book.
