"Love rules the court, the camp the grove, or Love is Heaven, and Heaven is Love." For Love is Heaven, and Heaven is Love." So sang the Bard; yet thousands pine For love—of life the light dwine—
Who, did they know some gentle charm, The hearis of those they love to warm, Might live, might die, in bliss supreme, Possessing all of which they dream. The road to Wedlock would you know? Delay not, but to RONDOUT go.
Time flies, and from his gloomy wings. A shadow falls on living things;
Then serze the moments as they pass, Ere fall the last sands through the glass;
At least the present is your own, While all the future is unknown.
A happy marriage man or maid Can now secure by RGNDOUT'S eid.

It teaches how to make the wrinkled face smooth.

It teaches you the kind of a wife to select to render home happy.

It gives advice to the lover who has been once truly accepted, and is rejected alterwards through the interference of triends. It gives a remedy for unrequired fove.

It gives you instructions for beautifying the person.

It gives you instructions for beautifying the person. How to have a handsome face and hands. How to remove tan and freckles. A lecture on love, or a Private Advice to Married Ladies and Gentlemen. This is decidedly the most fascinating, interesting and really useful and practical work on Courtship, Matrimony, and the duties and delights of Married Life, that has ever been issued from the American press. The artificial social system, which in so many instances prevents a union of hearts, and sacrifice to conventionalism the happiness and even the lives of thousands of the young and hopeful of both sexes, is thoroughly analyzed and exposed. Every one who contemplates marriage, and wishes for an infallible guide in the selection of a partner for life, should purchase this great text book of connabial felicity.

TERRIBLE DISCLOSURES Secrets for the Million!

Dr. Hunter's Medical Manual;

Br. Hunter's Medical Manual;

BEING AN ORIGINAL AND CONTROL OF THE WORLD AND CONTROL OF THE WOMAN: their Physiology, Functions and Sexual Disorders of every kind, with never lading Remedies for the speedy cure of all diseases of a private and delicate character, incident to the violation of the Laws of Nature and of Natures God.

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

The Author of the above volume is a graduture and of Natures God.

PRICE TWENTY. FIVE CENTS.

The Author of the above volume is a graduate of one or the first medical schools in the United States, and having devoted a quarter of a century to the study and treatment of Syphilis and kindred disorders as a speciality, he has become possessed of most invaluable information in regard to the same, and is able to compass into vade mecum compass the very quint essence of medical science on this important subject; as the result of the experience of the most eminent physician in Europe and America is thotoughly demonstrated in his own highly successful practice in the treatment of served diseases in many thousands of cares in the City of Philadelphia alone.

The practice of Dr. Hunter has long boen, and still is literally unbounded, but at the earnest solicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend the sphere of his professional usefulness to the community at large, through the medium of his "Med. al Manual Hand-Book for the Affliced."

It is a volume that should be in the hand of every monty to the land, whether used as a revenitive scourges ever visited upon mankind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kit d.

It is a volume that has received the unqualistructive scourses ever visited upon makind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kt d.

It is a volume that has received the unqualified recommendation of the first physicians in the land, while many clergymen, fathers, mothers, philanthropists and humanizariars, have most freely extended its circulation in all quarters where its powerful teachings would be likely to be instrumental in the moral purification and physical healing of multitudes of our people, among the young, volatile and indiscret, otherwise the pride and flower of the nation.

The author argues particularly, most strongly against every species of self-defliement, and warms parents and guardians, in essiching terms, to guard the young of both sexes from the terrible consequences concomitant of their ignorance of physiological laws and sexual impurities and irregularities, whether exhibited by precocious development or arising from the viscious and corrupting examples of their school-mates or otherwise. To those who have been already ensuanced to the spatts that take hold on hell," a clear and explicit way is shown by which they may scure a return of sound health and a regeneration of the soul from its terrible pollution.

It is well known that thousands of victims and a regeneration of the soul from its terrible pollotton.

It is well known that thousands of victims are annually sacrificed at the shrine of Quack-regressibly those sufficial from Veneral or Syphilitic diseases—Stricters, Seminal Weskness, Nervous Debility, and the numerous malsadies which spring directly or less remotely from the indulgence of carnal passions and secret violations of Nature.

In view of these facts, and when it is also considered that aboat 100,000 persons die annually in the United States of Conoumption—a large majority being the victims of the voluputious indiscretion of their progenitors, agreeably to the Scriptural enunciation, that the sires of the parents are visited upon the children, even to the third and fourth generation. The Author, imbued with sentiments of enlarged philiathropy will scarcely be censured for any effort to restian the vices of the age, by the humble instrumentality of his Medical Manual, Sign that alligious persention of the One kar.

The scene of this Domestic Tale is fait during that religious persecution of the Quakars which is so deep and sad a stain upon the bright fame of the Puritans. To the charm of absorbing interest as a tale, it adds the attraction of historical accuracy.

We have never announced new books with greater satisfaction than in the present instance. These are not sensation books.—They do not in any respect belong to the "gutter literature," of the day. Differing widely in plot, purpose and style, they may alike lay claim to fascinating interest and an adaption to improve both head and heart.—EF Any newspaper giving this advertisement three insertions, and sending us a copy of paper with advertisement marked, will receive advance copies of the work, by mail, post paid.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS WHY ARE WE SICK?

It has been the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering. Holloway's Piils are specially adapted to the relief of the Weak, the Nervons, the Deltate, and the Infirm, of all cimes, ages, sexes, and constitutions. Professor Holloway personally superintends the manufacture of his medicines in the United States, and offers them to a free and enlightened people, as the best remedy the world ever say for the removal of disease. These Pills Purify the Blood. These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, the lungs, the skin, and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying he lungs, the skin, and the bookers, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints.

Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world, that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorders of the liver, dyspensia, and stomach complaints generally. They
