

For the Relief and Cure of Suffering Females.

If stands pre-eminent for curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended usually called Female Complaints.

Pémale Cémplaints.

Of these are Prolapsus Useri, or Falling of the Womb; Hour Albus, or Whites; Chronie Inflammation and Ulceration of the Womb; Incidental Hemorthage, or Flooding; Painful Suppressed, and Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted.) no matter how severe or how long standing.

This medicine has never been introduced by empty puffs and misrepresentations, nor is it intended that its present popularity shall be sustained by any medium but its merits and the approbation of the public.

I feel it a duty incumbent upon myself to declare publicly the great blessing Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon has proved to me. For two years my health was miserable; it was almost unable to walk. Physicians pronounced my case falling of the womb, extensive ulcerations, commencing with flour albas. The pains, jrritation, prostration, &c., rendered life a burden. In this miserable condution, Dr. F. P. Newland recommended Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon. After taking four bottles I found myself in perfect health. Gratitude for my restoration makes me ardently desire that all my sex, a like unfortunate, may find sure relief from this insestimable medicine.

I must say, from my own experience and personal observations in my practice, it has proved to be the best and safest remedy for the difficulties for which it is recommended, viz: those of fermale weakness, such as Proha, sus Ueri, Flour Albus, and all irregular and painful menstruation, and diseases of irritation of the female organs.

TO THE FASHONABLE AND OFFICE CO.

THE undersigned, having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions, would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared time ever to accommodate any one with the neatest, easiest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheat, Rye, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on hie book.

Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases
"the laborer is worthy of his hire."

The Author of the above volume is a graduate of one or the first medical schools in the United States, and having devoted a quarter of a century to the study and treatment of Syphilis and kindred diaorders as a speciality, he has become possessed of most invaluable information in regard to the same, and is able to compass into vade mecum compass the very quintessence of medical science on this important subject; as the result of the experience of the most eminent physician in Europe and America in the first of the experience of the most eminent physician in Europe and America in the City of Philadelphia alone.

The tractice of Dr. Hunter has long been, and still si literally unbounded, but at the earnest solicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend the sphere of his professional uscfulness to the community at large, through the medium of his "Medical Manual Hand-Book for the Afflic'ed."

It is a volume that should be in the hand of every family in the land, whether used as a preventive of secret vice, or as a guide for the alleviation of one of the most awful and destructive scourges ever visited upon mrankind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kit d.

It is a volume that has received the unqualified recommendation of the first physicians in the land, while many clergymen, fathers, mothers, thilanthropasts and humanitarians, have most freely extended its circulation in all quarters where its powerful teachings would be likely to be instrumental in the moral purification and physical healing of multitudes of our people, among the young, volatile and indiscreet, otherwise the pride and flower of the nation.

The author argues particularly, most strongly against every species of self-defilement, and warms parents and guardians, in searching terms, to guard the young of both sexes from the irrible pollution.

A lecture on love, or a Private Advice to Married Ladies and Gentlemen.

This is decidedly the most fascinaring, interesting and really useful and practical work on Courtehip, Matrimony, and the duties and delights of Married Life, that has ever been issued from the American press. The artificial social system, which in so many instances prevents a union of hearts, and sacrifice to conventionalism the happiness and even the lives of thousands of the young and hopeful of both sexes, is thoroughly analyzed and exposed. Every one who contemplates marriage, and wishes for an infallible guide in the selection of a partner for life, should purchase this great text book of connubial felicity.
