I feel it a duty noumbent upon myself to declare publicly the great blessing Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicoh has proved to me. For two years my health was miserable; I was slmost unable to walk. Physicians promounced my case falling of the womb, extensive ulcerations, commencing with flour abous. The pains, irritation, prostration, &c., rendered life a burden. In this miserable condition, Dr. F. P. Newland recommended Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon. After taking four bottles I found myself in perfect health. Gratitude for my restoration makes me ardently desire that all my sex, a like unfortunate, may find sure relief from this inestimable medicine. REFERENCES.

TO THE FASHONABLE AND OTPIETIBITES.

THE undersigned, having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions, would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared than ever to accommodate any one with the neatest, easiest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of repentance steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheat, Rye. Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on hte book.

Messrs. Evans & Watson, No. 26 south Fourth Street, Philadelphia, Dec. 16th, 1954.

Messrs. Evans & Watson, No. 26 south Fourth Street, Philadelphia, Gentlemen:—We take pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, &c., from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers, and cash in as good condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth Streets. The above Safe was in use in-our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out.—The safe was then removed, and oppened in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who witnessed the good condition of the contents. Will you please have the Safe and locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire proof qualities. Yours, respectfully.

Evans & Watson take pleasure in referring to the following, among the many hundreds, who have their Safes in use.—U. S. Mint, Philadelphia; Farmers & Mechanics Bank, Philadelphia; Farmers & Mechanics Sank, Philadelphia; Farmers & Mechanics Sank, Philadelphia; Samuel Allen, Esc., High Sheriff, Philadelphia; Farmers & Mechanics Sank, Philadelphia; Bancroft & Sellers, Machinists, corner 16th and James streets; Franklin Fire Insurance Co., Philadelphia; Lacey & Phillips, corner of 5th and Minor street; Sharpless Bro., No. 32 south Second street; James, Kent & Santee, No. 147 north Third street.

A large assortment of the above Safes always on hand [warranted to stand at least 10 per cent. more fire than any Herring's Sale now in use.] Evans & Watson also manufacture and keep for sale, fron Shuters, Iron Doore, and Iron Sash, for making fire proof Vaults, for Banks, stores, priv Philadelphia, Dec. 15th, 1854.

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

The Author of the above volume is a gradu-

Tas Author of the shove volume is a graduate of one or the first medical schools in the United States, and having devoted a quarter of a century to the study and treatment of Syphilis and kindred disorder as a speciality, he has become possessed of most invaluable information in regard to the same, and is able to compass into vade mecum compass the very quint essence of medical science on this important subject; as the result of the experience of the most eminent physician in Europe and America is thorouchly demonstrated in his own highly successful practice in the treatment of servet diseases in many thousands of cases in the City of Philadelphia alone.

The practice of Dr. Hunter has long boen, and still is literally unbounded, but at the earnest solicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend the sphere of his professional usefulness to the community at large, through the medium of his "Medi al Manual Hand-Book for the Affliced."

It is a volume that should be in the hard of every family in the lasd, whether used as a preventive of secret vice, or as a guide for the alleviation of one of the most awful and destructive securges ever visited upon mankind. For the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kt d.

It is a volume that has received the unqualified recommendation of the first physicians in the land, while many clergymen, fathers, mothers, thilanthropists and humanitariars, have most freely extended its circulation in all quarters where its powerful teachings would be likely to be instrumental in the moral purification and phystal healing of multitudes of our people, among the young, volatile and indiscret, otherwise the pride and flower of the nation.

The author argues particularly, most strongly against every species of self-defiement, and warns parents and guardians, in searching terms, to quard the young of both sexes from the terrible consequences concomitant of their ignorance of physiological laws and secural impurities and irregularities, whether exhibited by precocious develo
