I feel it a duty incumbent upon myself to declare publicly the great blessing Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon has proved to me. For two years my health was miserable; I was almost unable to walk. Physicians pronounced my case falling of the womb, extensive ulcerations, commencing with flour abus. The pains, irritation, prostration, &c., rendered life a burden. In this miserable condition, Dr. F. P. Newland recommended Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon. After taking four bottles I found myself in perfect health. Gratitude for my restoration makes me ardently desire that all my sex, a like unfortunate, may find sure relief from this inestimable medicine. REFERENCES.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of repentance, steadily drawing out the thread of affliction, hopeing it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind the nore afflicted tailors must live, or they that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore, Wheat, Rye, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing of hie book. Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases

THE never failing MRS. VANHORN is the very best; she is sure to succeed when all others have failed. All who are in trouble, all who have been unfortunate, dewhen all others have listed. All who are in trouble, all who have been unfortunate, deceived and trified with; all whose fond hopes have been crushed each blasted by false promises, all who have had bad tock, fly to her for advice and satisfaction, from whalever cause, fly to her for rehef and comfort. In love affairs she was never known to fail—She has the secret of winning the affections of the opposite sex. It is this fact which induces illiterate pretenders to try to imitate her. She shows you the likeness of your future wife, husband, or absent friend. It is well known to the public at large that she is the first, and only person in this country who can show their likeness in reality—which can be testified and proved by thousands, both married and single, who daily and eagerly visit her. Philadelphia, Dec. 15th, 1854.

Messrs. Evans & Watson, No. 26 south Fourth Street, Philadelphia.—Gentlemen:—We take pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, &c., from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers, and cash in as good condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth Streets. The above Safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out.—The safe was then removed, and oppened in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who witnessed the good condition of the contents. Will you please have the Safe and locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire proof qualities. Your, respectfully, diseases of a private and delicate character,

ture and of Natures God.

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

The Author of the above volume is a graduate of one or the first medical schools in the United States, and having devoted a quarter of a century to the study and treatment of Syphilis and kindred disorders as a speciality, he has become possessed of most invaluable information in regard to the same, and is able to compass into vade mecum compass the very quintessence of medical science on this important subject; as the result of the experience of the most eminent physician in Europe and America is thoroughly demonstrated in his own highly successful practice in the treatment of se-ret diseases in many thousands of cares in the City of Philadelphia slone.

The practice of Dr. Hunter has long boen, and still is literally unbounded, but at the earnest solicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend the sphere of his professional usefulness to the community at large, through the medium of his "Med. al Manual Hand-Book for the Afflicted."

It is a volume that should be in the hand of every family in the land, whether used as a preventive of secret vice, or as a guide for the alleviation of one of the most awful and destructive securges ever visited upon mankind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kit d.

It is a volume that has received the unqualistructive scourges ever visited upon mankind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kt d.

It is a volume that has received the unqualified recommendation of the first physicians in the land, while many clergymen, fathers, mothers, thialmthropsts and humanitariacs, have most freely extended its circulation in all quarters where its powerful teachings would be likely to be instrumental in the moral purification and physical healing of multitudes of our people, among the young, volatile and indispreet, otherwise the pride and flower of the nation.

The author argues particularly, most strongly against every species of self-defilement, and warns parents and guardians, in searching terms, to guard the young of both sexes from the terrible consequences concomitant of their ignorance of phyiological laws and sexual impurities and irregularities, whether exhibited by precocious development or arising from the viscious and corrupting examples of their schoolmates or otherwise. To those who have been already ensuared to the "paths that take holi on hell," a clear and explicit way is shown by which they may secure a return of sound health and a regeneration of the soul from its terrible polluton.

It is well known that thousands of victims which they may secure a return of sound health and a regeneration of the soul from its terrible pollution.

It is well known that thousands of victims are annually sacrificed at the shrine of Quackery—especially those suffering from Venereal or Syphilitic diseases—Strictures, Seminal Weakness, Netvous Debility, and the numerons maladies which spring directly or less remotely from the indulgence of caroal passions and secretivolations of Nature.

In view of these facts, and when it is also considered that about 100,000 persons die annually in the United States of Conoumption—a large majority being the victims of the voluputous indiscretion of their progenitors, agreeably to the Scriptural enunciation, that the sins of the parents are visited upon the children, even to the third and fourth generation. The Author, imbued with sentiments of enlarged phintshropy, will scarcely be censured for any effort to restrain the vices of the age, by the humble instrumentality of his Medical Manual,

One copy, securely enveloped, will be forwarded free of pos age to any part of the United States for 20 cents, or 0 copies for $11. Address, post paid,
