I feel it a duty incumbent upon myself to declare publicly the great blessing Dr. Marchiei's Uterine Catholicon has proved to me. For two years my health was miserable; I was almost unable to walk. Physicians pronounced my case failing of the wormb, extensive ulcerations, commencing with flour albus. The pains, irritation, prostration, &o., rendered life a burden. In this miserable condition, Dr. F. P. Newland recommended Dr. Marchiei's Uterine Catholicon. After taking four bottles I found myself in perfect health. Graitude for my restoration makes me ardently desire that all my sex, a like unfortunate, may find sure relief from this inestimable medicine.

I must say, from my own experience and personal observations in my practice, it has proved to be the best and salest remedy for the difficulties for which it is recommended, viz.: those of female weakness, such as Prolapsus Uteri, Flour Albus, and all irregular and painful menstruation, and diseases of irritation of the female organs.

**Messrs. Evans & Watson, No. 26 south Fourth Street, Philadelphia,—Gentlemen:—We take pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, &c., from fire, as the one we purchased from yon about seven months since has preserved our books, papers, and eash in as good condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth Streets. The above Safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out.—The safe was then removed, and oppened in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who wilnessed the good condition of the contents. Will you please have the Safe and locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire proof qualities. Yours, respectfully, LACEY & PHILLIPS.

Evans & Watson take pleasure in referring to the fotlowing, among the many hundreds, who have their Safes in use:—U. S. Mint, Philadelphia; Farmers & Mechatics' Bank, Philadelphia; Farmers & Mechatics' Bank, Philadelphia; Farmers & Mechatics' Bank, Philadelphia; Bancroft & Sellers, Machinists, corner 16th and James streets; Franklin Fire Insurance Co., Philadelphia; Lacey & Phillips, corner of 5th and Minor street; Sharpless Bro., No. 32 south Second treet; James, Kent & Santee, No. 147 north Third street.

A large assortment of the above Safes always on hand [warranted to stand at least 10 per cent. mors fire than any Herring's Safe now in use.] Evans & Watson also manufacture and keep for sale, fron Shutters, Iron Doors, and Iron Sash, for making fire proof Vaults, for Banks, stores, private and professor.

The Author of the above volume is a graduate of one or the first medical schools in the United States, and having devoted a quarter of a century to the study and treatment of Syphilis and kindred disorders as a speciality, he has become possessed of most invaluable information in regard to the same, and is able to compass into yade mecun compass the very quint. the come possessed of most invaluable information in regard to the same, and is able to compass into vade mecum compass the very quintessence of medical science on this important subject; as the result of the experience of the most eminent physician in Europe and America is thoroughly demonstrated in his own highly successful practice in the treatment of ser rt diseases in many thousands of cases in the City of Philadelphia slone.

The practice of Dr. Hunter has long boen, and still is literally unbounded, but at the earnest splicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend the sphere of his professional usefulness to the community at large, through the medium of his "Medical Manual Hand-Book for the Afflicted."

It is a volume that should be in the hand of every family in the land, whether used as a preventive of secret vice, or as a guide for the alleviation of one of the most awful and destructive scourges ever visited upon mankind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kit d.

structive scourges ever visited upon mankind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kt d.

It is a volume that has received the unqualified recommendation of the first physicians in the land, while many clergymen, fathers, mothers, thilanthropusts and humanitariacs, have most freely extended its circulation in all quatters where its powerful teachings would be likely to be instrumental in the moral purification and physical healing of multitudes of our people, among the young, volatile and indiscreet, otherwise the pride and flower of the nation.

The author argues particularly, most strongly against every species of self-defilement, and warns pare fits and guardians, in resiching terms, to guard the young of both sexes from the terrible consequences concomitant of their ignorance of physiological laws and scrual impurities and irregularities, whether exhibited my precocious development or arising from the viscious and corrupting examples of their schoolmates or otherwise. To those who have been already enanared to the "paths that take hold on hell," a clear and explicit way is shown by which they may secure a return of sound health and a regeneration of the roult from its terrible pollution.

which hely may secure a return of sound health and a regeneration of the soul from its terrible polluton.

It is well known that thousands of victims are annually sacrificed at the shrine of Quack-cry—especially those suffering from Veneradior Syphilitic diseases—Strictures, Seminal Weskness, Nervous Debility, and the numerous maladies which spring directly or less remotely from the indulgence of caraal passions and secretiviolations of Nature.

In view of these facts, and when it is also considered that about 100,000 persons die annually in the United States of Conoumption—a large majority being the victims of the voluputous indiscretion of their progenitors, agreeably to the Scriptual enunciation, that the sins of the parents are visited upon the children, even to the third and fourth generation. The Author, imbued with sentiments of enlarged publishments of the parents are visited upon the children, even to the third and fourth generation. The Author, imbued with sentiments of enlarged publishments only, will scarcely be censured for any effort to restrain the vices of the age, by the humble instrumentality of his Medical Manual,
