I feel it a duty incumbent upon myself to declare publicly the great blessing Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon has proved to me. For two years my health was miserable; I was almost unable to walk. Physicians pronounced my case falling of the womb, extensive ulcerations, commencing with flour albus. The pains, irritation, prostration, &c., rendered life a burden. In this miserable condition, Dr. F. P. Newland recommended Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon. After taking four bottles I found myself in perfect health. Gratitude for my restoration makes me ardently desire that all my sex, a like unfortunate, may find sure relief from this inestimable medicine.

GOOD NEWS FOR ALL!!

THE never failing MRS. VANHORN is the very best; she is sare to succeed when all others have failed. All who are in trouble, all who have been unfortunate, deceived and trifled with; all whose fond hopes have been crushed and blasted by false promises, all who have had bad luck, fly to her for advice and satisfaction, from whatevercause, fly to her for relief and comfort. In love affairs she was never known to fail—She has the secret of winning the affections of the opposite sex. It is this fact which induces illiterate pretenders to try to imitate her. She shows you the likeness of your her. She shows you the likeness of you future wife, husband, or absent friend. It future wife, husband, or absent friend. It is well known to the public at large that she is the first, and only person in this country who can show their likeness in reality—which can be testified and proved by thousands, both married and single, who daily and eagerly visit her. subject; as the result of the experience of the most eminent physician in Europe and America is thoroughly demonstrated in his own highly successful practice in the transment of ser ret diseases in many thousands of cares in the City of Philadelphia alone.

The practice of Dr. Hunter has long boen, and still is literally unbounded, but at the carnest solicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend the sphere of his professional usefulness to the community at large, through the medium of his "Medi al Manual Hand-Book for the Afflic'ed."

It is a volume that should be in the hand of every family in the land, whether used as a preventive of secret vice, or as a guide for the alleviation of one of the most awful and destructive securges ever visited upon mankind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every ki d.

It is a volume that has received the unqualified recommendation of the first physicians in the land, while many clergymen, fathers, mothers, pilanthropsis and humanitarians, have most freely extended its circulation in all quarters where its powerful teachings would be likely to be instrumental in the moral purification and physical healing of multitudes of our people, among the young, volatile and indiscret.

and physical healing of multitudes of our people, among the young, volatile and indiscreet, otherwise the pride and flower of the nation.

The author argues particularly, most strongly against every species of self-deflement, and warns parents and guardians, in sea.ching terms, to guard the young of both sexes from the terrible consequences concomitant of their ignorance of physiological laws and sexual impurities and irregularities, whether exhibited by precocious development or arising from the viscious and corrupting examples of their schoolmates or otherwise. To those who have been already ensnared to the "paths that take hold on hell," a clear and explicit way is shown by which they may secure a return of sound health and a regeneration of the soul from its terrible pollution.

soil is a rich loam, and is not to be surpassed for farming, as examination will show. It is well known that thousands of victims are annually sacrificed at the shrine of Quackery—especially those suffering from Venercal or Sphilitic diseases—Strictures, Seminal Weakness, Nervous Debility, and the numerous maladies which spring directly or less remotely from the indulgence of carnal passions and secretivolations of Nature.

In view of these facts, and when it is also considered that about 100,000 persons die annually in the United States of Conoumption—a large majority being the victims of the voluputous indiscretion of their progenitors, agreeably to the Scriptural enunciation, that the sins of the parents are visited upon the children, even to the third and fourth generation. The Author, imbued with sentiments of enlarged philinthropy, will scarcely be censured for any effort to restrain the vices of the age, by the humble instrumentality of his Medical Manual,
