HERRING'S

AGAIN THE CHAMPION!

The only Safe which, in every instance, preserved the entire contents at the late Extensive Fires.

AT THE BURNING OF THE ARTIZAN BUILDINGS, April 10th, and in the great fire in Market Street, May 1st, 1856, the genuine HERRING'S SAFE preserved the Jewellery of George W. Simms & Bro.; Books, Papers, etc. of Fisher & Bro. and Edward S. Mears & Co., after remaining exposed in the burning ruins for nearly Forty Hours, and proving conclusively what we have always claimed for them, their great superiority over all securities known.

In these fires, the HERRING'S SAFE, standing side by side with those advertised as "warranted to stand 100 per cent. more fire than Herring's," came forth the acknowledged victor, not only preserving their contents in excellent order, but being themselves in a condition to go through another ordeal, while the boasted "Salemdamers" of other makers were badly used up in every instance, and in some cases their entire contents completely destroyed.

To the public we would simply say, that during the fourteen years of the Herring's Safe has been before them, more than two hundred have passed through accidental fires without the occurrence of a single loss.

We would, therefore, caution purchasers against the misrepresentation of the Herring's Patent as the only Fire-proof Safe made in this city which is protected by a Patent Right, and we will guarantee it to resist more than double the amount of heat of any other safe now known.

Sole Manufacturers in this State of "Herring's Patent Champion Safes," 34 Walnut St., Philad'a.

RESOLUTION

PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

FIRST AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said Constitution to be designated as article eleventh, as follows:—

ARTICLE XI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS.

Sec. 1. The State may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in levying taxes, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall not exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Sec. 2. In addition to the above limited power the State may contract debts to defend in case of war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the State; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Sec. 3. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created, by or on behalf of the State.

Sec. 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from the time to time owned by the State, or the proceeds of any sale of lands, or other property, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the State, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it the public lands, or other revenues of the State, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of Government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than as aforesaid.

Sec. 5. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not in any manner, or even, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or association; nor shall the Commonwealth, or any officer thereof, be authorized to guarantee, or become a stockholder in, any company, association, or corporation.

Sec. 6. The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township, or of any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the State to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the State in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

Sec. 7. The legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, or township, or any incorporated district, by a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation; or to obtain money for, or loan its credit to any corporation, association, institution, or party.

SECOND AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said Constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follows:—

ARTICLE XII. OF NEW COUNTIES.

No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one tenth of its population (either to form a new county or otherwise) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMENDMENT. From section two of the first article of the Constitution, strike out the words "of the city of Philadelphia, and of each county respectively;" from section five, same article, strike out the words "of Philadelphia and of the several counties;" from section seven, same article, strike out the words, "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any," and insert in lieu thereof the words, "and no;" and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following:—

"Sec. 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred, shall be apportioned and distributed equally, throughout the State, by districts, in proportion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; signing to it the several parts thereof; except that any county containing less than three thousand five hundred taxable, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided, in the formation of a district. Any city containing a sufficient number of taxable inhabitants to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal taxable population, as nearly as may be, each of which district shall elect one representative."

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contiguous territory as nearly equal in taxable population, as possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof."

The legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial districts, in the manner above provided; and the districts so formed shall not be changed until the appointment in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

FOURTH AMENDMENT.

The legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke, or amend, any charter of incorporation hereafter conferred by, or under, any special, or general law, whenever in its opinion it may be expedient to do so; and the provisions of the commonwealth; in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.

In SENATE, April 21, 1856.

Resolved, That this resolution pass. On the first amendment, yeas 24, nays 5. On the second amendment, yeas 19, nays 6. On the third amendment, yeas 23, nays 1. On the fourth amendment, yeas 23, nays 4. Extract from the Journal.
