It is further directed that the election at the said several districts shall be opened between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue open without interruption, or adjournment until 7 o'clock in the evening when the polls shall be closed.

PROSPERITY OF THE DAILY PENNSYLVANIAN A DOUBLE SHEET MORNING NEWSPAPER.

The Proprietor of the Philadelphia "Daily Pennsylvanian," in view of the Presidential Election, has made ample arrangements for the improvement of that Journal in all its various departments. A double sheet, printed on good paper, with clear type, is issued daily. No pains are spared to do full justice to every part of that paper. The largest telegraphic news from all parts of the country will be found in its columns; and at great expense, talented correspondents from whom highly interesting letters are received, have been secured, not only in England, France, Washington and New York, but in many other parts of the country. Great attention is also paid to the monetary, commercial, and especially the shipping list department of this Journal, as well as to the local news of the City. And while every desirable feature of a Newspaper is thus carefully maintained, the "Pennsylvanian" will continue with redoubled energy and determination to do battle for the Constitution and the Union.

The editorial conduct of the "Pennsylvanian" has met with general approval, on account of the fearlessness with which it assailed the dangerous political heresies introduced by an organization acting in secret; and corrupting the whole moral structure of society. Abolitionism also, has found its strongest opponent in an unrelenting enemy because the doctrine is subversive of the rights of one portion of our country.

That of course has been approved by our party, and intelligent citizens generally, is attested by the success of the "Pennsylvanian" in its circulation. Our subscription is still greater. There are now in circulation more than 10,000 copies of the paper, and at our present rate of progress, before the year 1858 shall be expired, we shall have more than 20,000 copies. The Proprietor intends to spare no expense to make the "Pennsylvanian" one of the first journals of the country in all its departments, and in this way merit the patronage of a deserving public.

The Opposition, fully aware of the immense power and influence wielded by the press, avail themselves of it to the fullest extent. The circulation of their organs are increased by every possible means and the whole power of that organization is applied to accomplish their object. The speeches of their disunion orators, and other incendiary documents, are soon broadcast throughout the land, and obtrusively thrust into the hands of every voter. Those who have so much to lose as the Union, and the rights of the very corner stones upon which our happiness is founded—civil and religious liberty—and the perpetuation of the Union itself, should not be less active in their appeal to the sense of duty, and to all Constitution loving citizens, to come forward and aid us in disseminating correct political information, and exposing the nefarious designs of our antagonists. We appeal alike to the citizens of the North, and of the South, and in the circulation of these sentiments, and support of those measures, which are advocated by the only National Political organization now in existence.

The Proprietor has already boast of a large circulation in the Southern States, and in order to increase the number of his readers in that region, so that his hands may be strengthened for coming conflicts against those who are not only the enemies of the South, but the enemies of all true men in ever portion of the Confederacy. In Pennsylvania, and the Northern and Western States, an increased circulation of this journal will do much as an antidote to the poisonous doctrine of the Union-baiting Black Republicans.

We therefore confidently calculate upon the hearty cooperation of our political friends to the extension of our circulation, and feel confident that this appeal will not be made to them in vain.

TERMS: DAILY PENNSYLVANIAN, Double Sheet, $6.00 per annum, if paid in advance, or $7 at the end of the year.

TRI-WEEKLY, $3.00 per annum, if paid in advance, or $3.50 at the end of the year.

WEEKLY, $1.00 per annum, invariably in advance.

The price for the WEEKLY PENNSYLVANIAN, for a single year, is ONE DOLLAR per annum, but for the purpose of further increasing the circulation, we offer the following terms to agents and others to raise Clubs:

One Copy one year, $1 00
Six do do " 5 00
Twelve do do " 10 00
Twenty-five do do " 20 00

THE CAMPAIGN WEEKLY. Persons who wish to receive the paper merely during the campaign, will have it sent on the following terms, for six months from the time of subscribing:

5 copies to one address, $1 00
10 " " " 2 00
20 " " " 4 00
30 " " " 6 00
40 " " " 8 00
50 " " " 10 00
60 " " " 12 00
70 " " " 14 00
80 " " " 16 00
90 " " " 18 00
100 " " " 20 00

Large Clubs in proportion—Cash always in advance.

Although the rate at which the Weekly Pennsylvanian is offered falls far below the real value of such a publication, we are willing for another year to test the experiment of continuing to issue it at this reduced price in the confident hope that, by an extensive circulation, we may be secured from the heavy pecuniary sacrifice which such an experiment involves.

Postmasters will confer a favor by sending to one address when convenient.

N. B.—Letters to be addressed, post paid to W. M. RICE, Proprietor.

House and Lot for Sale. The subscriber offers for sale a lot on Third Street in the lower end of Bloomburg, on which is erected a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE, which would make a cheap and good home for a mechanic or laborer, or moderate business. He will sell it on very reasonable terms, for learning which apply to R. W. Weaver Esq., Bloomburg, or the owner at Millinville.

SOWER & BARNES'S EDUCATIONAL BOOK STORE. No. 33 NORTH THIRD STREET, East Side, above Market, Philadelphia, Pa.

PUBLISHERS of Pelton's System of Geography, taught by the aid of six splendid outline maps, each covering nearly 50 square feet, and forming an invaluable as well as elegant ornaments for the school room.

Children are delighted to study Geography by this system. They learn so rapidly and receive such clear impressions of the subject, that it is a pleasure to be engaged in it. We all know that a better and more lasting idea of a locality is obtained by looking at a bold and distinct drawing of it, than by volumes of description. If a man wants to get an exact idea of a farm he has been purchasing, or of a tract of land he is about to purchase, he need only look at the draft on the back of the deed, but by reading the description inside twenty times. This is the great principle of Pelton's system of Geography, and there are others equally practical combined with it which entitle it to the reputation it sustains, as the best and quickest mode of teaching Geography, yet introduced.

PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY—including all the invaluable discoveries in this science, of L. Murray and his coadjutors, is beautifully illustrated by these maps, and the accompanying keys. The keys are to be used by the scholars, and cost less than half the price of a Geography and Atlas.

SOWER & BARNES also publish Sanders' New Readers, of which over two hundred thousand were sold within six months of their publication. Their success has been wonderful, but their beautiful appearance and evident superiority justifies it.—Prof. Sanders is a practical teacher of public schools, who has made the subject of his books his life. Eighteen years ago he published a series of Readers, which had great popularity, but the new series on which he has been engaged ever since, are acknowledged by all to be the greatest advance yet made in Reading. Eminent teachers everywhere, who have been sorely by book agents that they were unwillingly induced to look at them, have at once pronounced their excellence and introduced them over all kinds, and the best which had been published before them.

School Directors and Teachers are respectfully invited to write to us concerning School Books.

A full assortment of Miscellaneous and School Books, paper and Stationary, including Blank Books, of all kinds, on hand and for sale at the lowest wholesale prices, in large or small quantities, to country Merchants.

SOWER & BARNES, 33 North Third Street, Philadelphia, Sept. 15, 1856—3r.

"NO SUCH WORD AS FAIL." A RESISTLESS REMEDY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. Circular to the Sick. THE first hospital surgeons and medical practitioners of Europe, admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory and healing properties of this Ointment; governments sanction its use in their naval and military services; and the masses in this country and throughout the world repose the utmost confidence in its curative properties. It penetrates the sources of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of disease, and neutralize the fiery elements which feed and exacerbate the malady.

RHEUMATISM, SCROFULA, ERY-SIPELAS. These are among the most terrible and agonizing diseases of the muscles, the fleshy globe, and the skin; yet in their worst forms, and when seemingly incurable they invariably disappear under a persevering application of this soothing, heating antidote to pain and inflammation.

SALT RHEUM, FEVER SORES, STIFF JOINTS. In cases of Salt Rheum, where medical waters, lotions, and every kind of the pharmacopoeia have proved useless, the Ointment will quickly under its influence, and its relaxing effect upon contractile sinews is truly wonderful.

DISCHARGING ULCERS. A most remarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of malignant ulcers after a few applications of this Ointment. The surrounding redness vanishes, and granules of healthy flesh begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or less rapidly, until the ulcer is filled up with sound material and the ulcer radically cured.

A WORD TO MOTHERS. The young are the most frequent sufferers from external injuries, and therefore every mother should have this healing preparation constantly on hand. It is an absolute specific for sore breasts, and quickly removes the encrusted sores which sometimes disfigure the heads and faces of children.

SIGNIFICANT FACTS. This Ointment is universally used on board the Atlantic and Pacific whaling fleet as a cure for scrofulic affections and as the best possible remedy for wounds and bruises. Large supplies of it have recently been ordered by the Sultan of Turkey for hospital purposes.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions, Skin Diseases, Swelled Glands, Chapped Hands, Sore Breasts, Fistula, Sore Heads, Gout, Sore Throats, Sores of all kinds, Mercantial Eruptions, Sprains, Stiff Joints, Piles, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ringworm, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Venereal Sores, Scalds, Wounds of all kinds.

Sold at the Manufactories of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and 244 Strand, London, by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States, and the civilized world, in pots, at 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 each.

There is considerable saving in buying the larger sizes.
